RAILROAD REFUSES TO OPEN STREET ACROSS HOLDINGS

New York Central R. R. Refuses to Let City Extend Middleboro av., South.

Representatives of the New York Central railroad refused to consider with the Mishawaka board of works, the possibility of opening up Middleboro av. southward, across their property, at the regular meeting of the board, Monday noon.

The railroad officials added, however, that no objection would be raised against extending the Middleboro sewer across their property if the assessments were considered on a basis of benefits and damages. The matter was taken under advisement by the board.

City Purchasing Agent Joseph De Lorenzi announced that the price on new side cars for motorcycles was quoted at $125, and the purchase of one for the police department's motorcycle was taken under consideration.

A number of residents from the vicinity of Broadway and Calhoun st., presented a petition for an electric street light at that corner. Their petition was handed over by City Electric Superintendent A. R. Klein, as was a petition from several residents along the Spring st., road, for the extension of the city's electric service, south, for a short distance outside the city limits.

Lon Wolfe presented a protest to the board against a large pile of dirt which he asserted had been left in the middle of an alley, opening eastward from Ernsperger st., and only through which he has access to his garage. He also said that the blocking of a smooth passage through the alley was not marked by any red light or warning signal, and reported that serious damages had been caused to several cars because of the obstruction. The matter was taken under consideration by the board, and a thorough investigation will be made during the next few days.

Edward Philion, of Philion and Christensen Furniture Co., who are erecting a new building on the North side, presented a request to the board that the city move one of their poles that stands directly behind their new building. The matter was turned over to Superintendent Klein for consideration.

John Willie, representing the Eagle Die Co., of Oshkosh, Wis., demonstrated before the board a set of dies for "pressing" bent hydrants back into place. After short consideration and on the recommendation of Fire Chief Edwin Christian an order was placed with the company for a set.

It was also decided at this time to have a workman repair several cracks in the city hall steps fronting on First st., and several cracks in the cornices that were becoming conspicuous.

FRANK E. COATS IS RECIPIENT OF BIRTHDAY FAVORS

Popular Undertaker Is Treated to Real Birthday Surprise.

Frank E. Coats, proprietor of the Coats Funeral Home, Lincoln Way E., and probably one of the most popular townsmen of Mishawaka, was treated to the surprise of his life last night on the occasion of the celebration of his 37th birthday. Through the "machinations" of his popular "better half" a number of business men were invited on the q. t. Of course everyone was deaf and dumb to the occasion until Art. Haselanger arrived carrying a smokers' stand which he gracefully presented with an overflow of California gibberage to the popular man of the night. Mr. Coats gracefully replied voicing the sentiment that he hoped the weather would soon change to that suited best to his business which was interpreted that trade is none too good among city undertakers, although the Coats Funeral Home gets the most of the burials. Refreshments were served ad libitum by Mrs. Coats assisted by other ladies. The evening was a most enjoyable one. Cards were enjoyed.

FRANK E. COATS.

LITERATURE GROUP ENJOYS "BETTER" SPEECH PROGRAM

"Better Speech" day was observed by two clever playlets presented at the meeting of the Literature department of the Mishawaka Woman's club yesterday afternoon. "The Burial of Old Man Slang" was given by 22 children under the direction of Mrs. S. B. Palmer. The children marched into the auditorium carrying signs as "Hot Dog;" "Cut the Comedy;" "I'll Say So;" "Go To It;" "You Tell them;" "Pipedown;" "Gee Whiz; "Goodnight;" "Doggone It;" "Holy Smoke"; "Sweet Daddy" etc. These signs were placed into a casket and the "minister" explained in a few words they had gathered to bury "Old Man Slang."

The remainder of the program was given by pupils of the eighth grade under the direction of Mrs. H. A. Moran. Miss Luella Rempis, Mrs. Margaret Hindelang and Miss Margaret Fonda. Miss Nellie Huston was the announcer and gave the "Ten Commandments of Speech." She then introduced the cast of characters in the "Good English Program" which were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Riffraff, Marcel Van Pucke and Blossom Oudette; their children, Lucille Wylie, Bertha Robbins, Ethel Alleman, Florence Borst, Virginia Kable, Myrtle Schlott, Harry Fulmer and Robert Emmons. Mr. and Mrs. Culture, Richard Gardner and Bess Warner; their children, Lois Webster, Evelyn Meixell, Harry Custer, Richard Quaintance and Orville Nagel.

TAX EXPERT TO SPEAK AT C. OF C. LUNCH AT NOON

John Z. White to Speak on "Taxation and Community Development."

John Z. White, said to be one of the greatest living authorities and exponents of the "Single Tax" and close friend of it's originator, Henry George, will appear at a luncheon, today. Mr. White will take as his subject "Taxation and Community Development."

Mr. White is widely known as an authority on taxation and tax problems, and has been closely connected with a number of problems that have been puzzling the ingenuity of various city administrations for some time.

It is said that he has devoted his lifetime and an entire fortune toward the fulfillment of the goal set by his predecessor, Henry George, that of the "Single Tax."

Mr. White said in a talk delivered before a legal body at the University of Michigan, a short time ago, "The greatest power, possessed by any peaceful society, whether for good or for evil, is taxation." He can trace the various evils of improper taxation from the time of the fall of the Roman Empire to the present day, when he challenges his hearers with the question, "Are you satisfied with your taxes? Think it over."

LIQUOR VIOLATORS' TRIAL DATES SET IN LOCAL COURT

Three Cases Pending Get Date for Trial Set at Monday Morning Session.

The cases of three alleged liquor law violators that have been pending for some time, came up for trial Monday morning and had definite dates for their hearings set.

John Barrett, 515 E. Mishawaka av., arrested about two weeks ago on the charge of illegal possession of intoxicating liquor, will have his hearing Thursday morning, Nov. 16.

Barrett and his wife were arrested on testimony given by a "drunk" before Judge Raab in the city court. The drunk was said to have been dissatisfied with the quality of the liquor alleged sold to him by Barrett, and willingly told the local police department all the particulars.

A raiding party was immediately formed by Chief Harry Barrows, who visited Barrett's home, where a small quantity of white mule and a keg of wine was confiscated. Mrs. Barrett was said to have attempted to jettison the mule but was prevented from so doing by an officer.

Mike Vintella, S. Mill st., arrested late in October on the charge of selling intoxicating liquor, will come before the court at its Wednesday morning session.

The re-trial of Henry Himschoot N. Main st. soft drink parlar proprietor, will be started Monday, Nov. 20.

Himschoot was given a hearing before a jury and Special Judge Isaac Kane Parks last Thursday and Friday, but a disagreement of the jury until an early hour Saturday morning made a new trial necessary.

This is the second time Marguerite has broken her left arm in two months. She was taken to the St. Joseph's hospital, where the bone was set. QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION
Get Dr. Edward's Olive Tablets
That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.
Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.
No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.
If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.
Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 15c and 30c
