OPIUM, WHISKEY AND ALL DRUG HABITS

Cured Without Pain at Your Home

THE BEST OF SANATORIUM FACILITIES IF DESIRED.

If you are addicted to these habits you think you will quit it You won't; you can't unaided; but you can be cured and restored to your former health and vigor without pain or the loss of an hour from your business at a moderate cost. The medicine builds up your health, restores your nervous system to its normal condition; you feel like a different person from the beginning of treatment, LEAVING OFF THE OPIATES AFTER THE FIRST DOSE. You will soon be convinced and fully satisfied in your own mind that you will be cured.

Mr. T. M. Brown, of DeQueen, Ark., says: "Over seven years ago I was cured of the opium habit by your medicine, and have continued in the very best of health since."

Dr. W. M. Tunstall, of Lovingston, Va., says: "I am glad to say that I firmly believe that I am entirely and permanently cured of the Drink Habit, as I have never even so much as wanted a drink in any form since I took your eradicator, now eighteen months ago. It was the best dollars I ever invested."

Mrs. Virginia Townsend, of Shreveport, La., writes: "No more opium. I have taken no other remedy than yours and I make no mistake when I say that my health is better now than it ever was in my life, and I owe it to you and your remedy. It has been twelve years since I was cured by your treatment."

The Crops—Farmers Disappointed in The Yield—Oysters—Business Improving—To Make a Big Haul of Fish—Secured a Fine Lot of Game, Etc.

Montross, Va., Nov. 23rd, 1903.

A large number of farmers are unusually late in wheat seeding. Others still contemplate sowing and have in readiness their fertilizer.

The corn crop does not meet the expectation of our farmers. A large quantity has been shucked. The yield is only an average.

The tomato crop, in which a large number of our farmers were engaged, resulted in about half crop as compared with 1902. Take it all in all the farmers generally have not realized the remuneration from their crops and farming efforts this year that was anticipated. The result fell short of 1902 and 1901.

The oyster industry is proving remunerative with the tongmen. The quality is exceptionally good with fine prices. Oysters that have been selling by the gallon heretofore for 80 cents, now bring $1.00 and are difficult to get.

Mr. A. M. Chandler, near Montross, has cut his mill dam in two, and let out the water, preparatory to putting in new flood gates and wind sills. This is the largest pond in the neck. A vast quantity of fine fish have accumulated, principally carp or chub. During the past summer it was not unusual to see five or six boats, with sportsmen fishing for carp. The writer enjoyed some of the sport, and has the credit of catching the largest taken from the pond, weighing 8 pounds. Mr. Chandler, the owner of the property, expects to get two or three hundred dollars from his fish, having put a wire net across the pond near the dam when cut, and has drawn the fish down in a small body of water and will haul them out, with seine as soon as the water gets at its lowest.

A company of huntsmen, composed of Mr. James Walker and Mr. Wescott, of Baltimore; Dr. G. C. Mann and John M. Hutt, of Montross, put in ten days hunting birds and rabbits. They bagged 382 birds and sixty rabbits during the hunt. Mr. J. M. Hutt sold his setter dog for $25 and later a young dog for $50.

At Montross Mr. T. R. Jackson has just added a large two story wing to his hotel, which makes the building more convenient as well as greatly improved in appearance.

Mrs. H. B. Walker a few days since sold her farm (Smarts) to Mr. Charles Henagher for $1,550. This farm is located on Curioman Bay, at the mouth of Smart's creek, from which it derives its name. The creek belongs to the farm and is noted for its fine oyster bottom, in which enterprise Mr. Henage will engage.

Mr. William Goldsby, a native of this county, now engaged in the jewelry business in Washington, D. C., is spending several days with his friends and relatives at Montross and enjoying hunting.

Mr. L. Rosser Porter left Saturday last by steamer for Fredericksburg, where he has accepted a position as clerk. Many of his young friends at Montross express regret at his leaving the lively little town, but the few rabbits left are rejoicing.

Previous to the establishment of The People's Line of Steamers on the Rappahannock, it was seldom any one in this section visited Fredericksburg except on some special business. The travel and shopping was done in Washington. Now it seems the tide has turned and three-fourths of the travel, especially by ladies, is drawn to Fredericksburg, and the general expression is that they can buy more for the same money and make the trip more pleasantly.

Congressman Rixey Wants to Change the Rule in Reference to Claims.

Representative Rixey has introduced a bill in Congress which, if passed, will materially aid those who have claims against the government in having their claims adjudicated and paid, if found just. Under the present rule all these claims have to come before Congress and be investigated there. As a result, the few who get their claims acted upon are insignificant as compared with the thousands whose claims are not acted upon. Mr. Rixey's bill is to take this matter out of the hands of Congress and to put it into the hands of the Court of Claims for judicial ascertainment.

$100,000 Fire at Tannery.

Dubois, Pa., Nov. 23.—Fire broke out in the Sterrett Gallery of the Ellis Tanning Company, at Curwensville, and destroyed the main building, entailing a loss of $100,000. It is claimed that the fire was caused by friction of the pulleys. The departments destroyed were the beam house, rocker room, dry loft and roller room. The loss will temporarily drive 100 men out of employment.

Millionaire's Poor Stomach

The worn-out stomach of the overfed millionaire is often paraded in the public prints as a horrible example of the evils attendant on the possession of great wealth. But millionaires are not the only ones who are afflicted with bad stomachs. The proportion is far greater among the toilers. Dyspepsia and indigestion are rampant among these people, and they suffer far worse tortures than the millionaire unless they avail themselves of a standard medicine like Green's August Flower, which has been a favorite household remedy for all stomach troubles for over thirty-five years. August Flower rouses the torpid liver, thus creating appetite and insuring perfect digestion. It tones and vitalizes the entire system and makes life worth living, no matter what your station. NOVEL SUIT.

Asks for Damages Sustained While Stealing a Ride.

A novel suit has been filed in the U. S. Circuit Court at Richmond by Wm. Hanch, who sues the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad for $10,000. Hanch was riding tramp fashion on the break beam under a car and had both legs cut off.

He states in his petition that he was stealing a ride, but the burden of his complaint is against the trainmen who, he alleges, found him concealed on the beam near Williamsburg and brutally cracked him on the head with a big stick. The train was moving at the time, he alleges, and he fell from his hobo compartment to be maimed for life.

This case will interest the whole community of hoboes the country over for many of the wanderers have suffered frightful injuries through stealing rides.

Confederate Home

The Confederate Home, at Beauvoir, Miss., the late residence of Jefferson Davis, is to be opened for the reception of impoverished Confederate soldiers on Tuesday, December 1. Forty indigent veterans have already applied for admission. Captain James Stone, of Greenville, Miss., has been appointed superintendent. The home is to be presented to the State of Mississippi at the next session of the legislature, in January, and until that time the expenses will be borne by private contributions obtained by the Daughters of the Confederacy. There are now thirty or forty Confederate Veterans in the county poorhouses of the State, and is hoped to gather them all in the home.

More Money For Pensioners.

Stepped Against a Hot Stove

A child of Mrs. Geo. T. Benson, when getting his usual Saturday night bath, stepped back against a hot stove which burned him severely. The child was in great agony and his mother could do nothing to pacify him. Remembering that she had a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the house, she thought she would try it. In less than half an hour after applying it the child was quiet and asleep, and in less than two weeks was well. Mrs. Benson is a well known resident of Kellar, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic liniment and especially valuable for burns, cuts, bruises and sprains. For sale by M. M. Lewis, druggist.

IF I SHOULD DIE TO-NIGHT

If I should die to-night
And you should come to my cold corpse and say,
Weeping and heartsick o'er my lifeless clay;
If I should die to-night
And you should come in deepest grief and woe
And say, "Here's that ten dollars that I owe,"
I might arise in my large white cravat,
And say, "What's that?"

If I should die to-night
And you should come to my cold corpse and kneel,
Clasping my bier to show the grief you feel;
If I should die to-night
And you should come to me and there and then,
Just even hint at paying me that ten,
I might arise the while,
But I'd drop dead again.

Mr. Hearst After the Presidency.

One of the candidates for Presidential honors, Mr. William R. Hearst, is preparing to enlarge his already elaborate campaign for the Democratic nomination. Being now in Congress his personal efforts will for the present have Washington for their base. A spacious floor in The Washington Post building has been secured for headquarters. There has been, so far, no "spontaneous uprising" of the people in favor of Mr Hearst, but an earnest effort is being made to give him such strength in the Democratic Convention of next year as will make him available in the event of a deadlock in the Convention over the nomination. The two thirds rule offers opportunities for manipulation and tradeout has would of course be necessary if a man comparatively unknown, like Mr. Hearst, has aspirations for the nomination.—Petersburg Index-Appeal.

The Best Remedy For Croup.

[From the Atchison, Kan., Daily Globe.]

This is the season when the woman who knows the best remedies for croup is in demand in every neighborhood. One of the most terrible things in the world is to be awakened in the middle of the night by a whoop from one of the children. The croup remedies are almost as sure to be lost, in case of croup, as a revolver is sure to be lost in case of burglars. There used to be an oldfashioned remedy for croup, known as hive syrup and tolu, but some modern mothers say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better and does not cost so much. It causes the patient to "throw up the phlegm" quicker and gives relief in a shorter time. Give this remedy as soon as the croupy cough appears and it will prevent the attack. It never fails and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by M. M. Lewis, druggist.

SIGNED BOND PROTECTS YOU

Mi-o-na Costs You Nothing If It Fails to Restore Health, Says K. N. Goolrick.

The poor, thin, emaciated dyspeptic, when he becomes plump, rosy and robust, after using Mi-o-na, forgets that there is such a thing as indigestion.

This treatment is entirely different from any other medicine or treatment for dyspepsia. It is so different and so uniformly successful that K. N. Goolrick wants every reader of the Lance to take Mi-o-na for a month at his risk.

In order that there may be no misunderstanding he will give the following signed bond with every package:

GUARANTEE BOND.

I hereby agree to refund the price paid for Mi-o-na, if the purchaser tells me that it has not increased flesh and given freedom from stomach troubles.

K. N. Goolrick.

You will be your own judge as to whether you pay for Mi-o-na or not. Simply leave 50c on deposit with K. N. Goolrick getting his signed bond which will protect your deposit.

This remarkable flesh-forming food is assimilated as soon as it is taken into the stomach, produces good, rich blood, tones up the weakened digestive organs and makes permanent cures in the worst cases of dyspepsia.

You certainly can afford to start using Mi-o-na to-day, when K. N. Goolrick takes all the risk of its giving satisfaction. 11

MORGAN ON PANAMA

Charges Roosevelt With Knowing of Uprising Before It Began.

DUSTED FROM CANAL COMMITTEE

Alabama Senator Says We Will Get a Canal, For the President Has Said So, and Then Charges Him With Breaking Treaty With Colombia.

Washington, Nov. 24.—Panama and Cuba engaged the attention of the senate to the exclusion of all other questions. Mr. Hale moved to reconsider the vote by which the Newlands joint resolution for the annexation of Cuba was referred to a committee, and several speeches were made on the motion without disposing of it.

Before adjournment the senate unanimously agreed to vote on the Cuban bill December 16.

The Panama question came up in connection with the announcement of the reorganization of senate committees, Mr. Morgan (Dem., Ala.) being relieved from the chairmanship of the committee on inter-oceanic canals, Mr. Hanna succeeding him. Before the order went into effect Mr. Morgan took the floor and his speech proved to be a discussion of the entire canal question, with liberal criticisms of the president for his course.

Mr. Morgan said he did not regret his retirement as chairman of the inter-oceanic canal committee and declared he would not reverse his position on the canal question at the instance of any party caucus.

Mr. Morgan charged that the president has made the canal question a party question and added: "I think that the president's appeal to party discipline to force his opinions on the country and his measure of aggression on foreign countries, in addition to his power as commander-in-chief of the army and navy, when he uses with a dreadful intensity of construction, is so strong a proof of heart failure in the present wild moments, that I am encouraged to hope that there are still some branches that we may rely upon to protect the peace and save the commerce of the country. I regret that party discipline is to be used as a domestic police force to protect the transit in Panama, and to guard the interests of the new canal company. That we will get a canal if one can be built in Panama I have no doubt, for the president has said so. Yet this result is not nearly so certain or so safe as if he should obey the Spooner law."

Mr. Morgan said he had only consented to the enactment of the Spooner bill because of his confidence in the good faith of the president in enforcing the law, and now that the president had not seen fit to keep that faith it remained to be seen whether the senate would support him in that position. The president, he said, had completed his campaign against the Spooner act by hoeing Mr. Hay plan a treaty with "somebody from Panama," who had no authority except that conveyed in a cablegram from a junta at Panama.

He read the correspondence bearing upon the revolution to show, as he said, that "the president had known of the uprising in the Isthmus before it began and had stood ready with armed ships to protect those engaged in it." The pretense in Assistant Secretary Loomis' despatch that it was our desire for peace, Mr. Morgan declared, was the grimmest piece of irony that had ever graced diplomatic channels.

Mr. Morgan expressed the hope that Mr. Hay had been asleep when some of the messages of his subordinates had been flying over the wire. "As for the president," he said, "he never sleeps on his post of duty or desire, although he sometimes closes his eyes to what is going on about him."

He contended that Colombia had a perfect right to suppress an uprising on the Isthmus, and declared that the United States had failed utterly to observe its treaty obligations in pursuing the course it hd taken. Indeed, he said, our course there had been such that it would bring down the censure of future generations upon us, and he predicted that the immediate result would be disastrous and cause the loss of both men and treasure. The consequences would be such, said he, that the president would have no time for dreams of diplomatic triumphs.

Mr. Hay had not been in his (Mr. Morgan's) opinion a free agent in negotiating either of the canal treaties. Mr. Morgan charged that the president had resolved when the Hay-Herran treaty was under consideration to push the canal through and, if authority did not exist, had made up his mind to create it.

THE OLD RELIABLE

Absolutely Pure

THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

A woman would almost rather have a scandal in the family than a cold that makes her nose red.

When you catch a woman in a fib she explains that she never could understand business.

Your money back

If you are not satisfied

DO YOU SUPPOSE that a company with a capital of $500,000.00, paid in full, and the proud reputation of 36 years of continuous success, would make such an offer and not carry it out to the letter?

DO YOU SUPPOSE we would jeopardize our standing with the public and our chances of still greater success by failing to fulfil any promise we make?

DO YOU SUPPOSE we would make such an offer if we did not have the utmost confidence in the satisfying quality of our goods?

WE KNOW we can please you and save you money, for HAYNER WHISKEY goes direct from our distillery to you, with all its original richness and flavor, carrying a UNITED STATES REGISTERED DISTILLER'S GUARANTEE of PURITY and AGE and saving you the big profits of the dealers. That's why it's best for medicinal purposes. That's why it's preferred for other uses. That's why we are regularly supplying over a quarter of a million satisfied customers. That's why YOU should try it.
