Local Dottings.

Parties interested will bear in mind that on Monday, the 26th instant, the September Term of our Circuit Court commences. This will occasion trips to Leonardtown, and we extend a polite invitation to all comers having unsettled accounts with us to give us a call and pay respects, if nothing else.

Railroad News.

The repairs to the line between Brandywine and Mechanicsville have been completed and hand-barrows and other implements have been forwarded to the latter place. It is stated that, to-day, hands will begin repairing the roadbed below Mechanicsville preparatory to laying the ties and rails.

Jubilee.

The Jubilee Exercises, under the direction of Rev. J. M. Giraud, will begin at St. Inigo's on Sunday, Sept. 26th; St. Nicholas, Thursday, 30th; St. George's, Sunday, Oct. 3rd; St. Michaels, Thursday, Oct. 7th. The exercises will continue for three days at each church and there will be two sermons a day.

Wife.

A handsome crayon portrait of the Rev. Father Neal, painted by Miss Aggie Armstrong, of Washington, and donated to St. George's church, will be raffled for 25 cents a chance. Persons desiring a chance can obtain the same by calling at the church or forwarding the money to Mrs. J. B. ARMSTRONG, Piney Point, Md.

Tournament and Supper.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather, the tournament and supper recently held at Mechanicsville for the benefit of All Faith Parish was only a partial success, the amount realized being inadequate to the needs thereof. It will be repeated on Monday, the 26th instant. The public are kindly invited to attend. Captors for the day, Danl. C. HAMMETT and Capt. R. W. SILVESTER. The titling will commence at 3 o'clock, P. M.

Tin Wedding.

On Wednesday, the 8th instant, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Moore celebrated the 10th anniversary of their wedding. Quite a number of friends from all sections of the county were in attendance, and paid their respects by hearty congratulations and the present of a piece of tin. A dance rounded off the night. Those of this popular couple's friends who were not present and consequently did not join in the festivities, do join in the many compliments and well wishes showered up Mr. Moore and lady.

Commitments to Jail.

On the 10th instant, John Tyler, colored, on warrant of Justice Slye, was lodged in jail to await the action of the Grand Jury, charged with "having stolen $6 from the money drawer of H. D. Burroughs." On the 11th instant, Chapman Green, colored, on warrant of Justice John Shadrick, was committed to jail, charged with an assault with intent to kill upon George Tarlton. On the 14th instant, on warrant of Justice James Routh, Frank Johnstone, colored, was committed to jail for 30 days, for stealing a chicken and attempting to set fire to straw around S. E. Burch's barn.

St. Ignace's Items.

Refreshments have visited the district recently benefiting turnips, cabbage and latter sweet potatoes. The sound of the woodman's axe is heard in the land, and walnut trees are disappearing rapidly. Various prices per tree are being paid by the party who is having them cut and shipped.

Ladies are busily engaged making preserves, fruit butter, &c. Very little wine has been made this season, owing, we presume to the scarcity of grapes. A great deal of sickness, and we do not hear of any persons about to exchange their vows at the altar of Hymen. Hard times are assigned as the principal cause of the continued enjoyment of "maiden meditation, fancy free."

Migratory birds are beginning to depart. Their beautiful notes in the distance make our very heart-strings vibrate to the core. Ah, they bring back memories of former days! Very little oystering is being done. They are said to be very scarce in Smith's Creek and adjacent waters. Our roads are being worked again. Thanks. There was Divine Service at St. Ignatius, Friendship M. E. church, and the Ridge Chapel, on the 12th. The colored, with the exception of Catholics, have a place of worship exclusively for their spiritual benefit.

Wm. R. Penbrooke is the champion cider maker of the district. His cider is of excellent quality and is used to a considerable extent for making vinegar which retails at 40 cents per gallon. Mr. Joseph Tension, brother of ex-Commissioner Tension, whilst getting out tobacco sticks a few days ago, cut his knee and fractured the patella. It was feared that tetanus would ensue, but proper attention dissipated the symptoms. Mr. T. is a farmer at P. Lookout, and is a staunch disciple of Jackson democracy.

Drowned.

Thursday last, William Gaines, alias "Junio", of Virginia, was drowned near Powder's wharf, in the Wicomico river. The body, was recovered the next morning and Justice Z. D. Blackstone summoned a jury of inquest which rendered a verdict of "accidental drowning."

Bischoe Again Confesses.

Last Monday, interest in the murder case was again renewed by a remark ascribed to Justice Morgan to the effect that it was no use to bother further after Bradshaw; "we have the right man." From this, the popular inference was that Bischoe had made another confession and acknowledged that he alone was the murderer. We have endeavored but failed to assure ourselves of the truth of this rumor, the Magistrate declaring that he had no confession of Bischoe, and the prisoner when called upon declining to talk and saying he had "already said more than was good for himself." The general opinion, however, is, that Bischoe confessed to some one that he murdered Dixon, that the crime was committed on the waters of the Potomac, and that the reason he killed the Captain was to protect himself. Tuesday's Sun publishes a special from Leonardtown, stating positively the fact of a new confession, and has apparently succeeded in obtaining information we have been unable to secure. Witnesses will, we hear, be produced who will testify that Bischoe came ashore alone and was not brought as he had been in the confession published in the Star.

Personal.

Olie Travers, Bolivar, Greene Co., Missouri, formerly of Porto Bello, this county, came within one vote of receiving the democratic nomination for Congress, after having written to his friends saying he could not be a candidate and make a campaign in justice to his many clients. His talents were known here when quite a boy, and are fully recognized now in his new home.

R. A. Fisher, Special Agent, of the Old New York Life Insurance Company is visiting this county. This purely mutual company is very well and favorably known here since a long number of years and can refer to prominent citizens who are insured or have had claims paid to them. If a man, looking out for the good of his family and his own, wants a strong and solid insurance, he should certainly prefer this old line company to newly started schemes where promises are splendid, but more than doubtful execution. The New York Life Insurance Company promises only what it is able to keep and has proof that that it ever did do so. The Tontine System of the Company reduces the actual cost of insurance to very low figures. This system gives a man the privilege of readjusting his policy at the end of its Tontine period—10, 15, 20 years—to suit his own circumstances, when he may confine his insurance if he needs insurance, taking out his profits—or take the cash value of his policy if he needs money—or take an annuity for himself. All kind of policies are non-forfeitable after 3 years; should a man then be unable to pay his premium he would get a paid up policy and lose nothing. The Company's Special Agent, Mr. Fisher, will be at Moore's Hotel, Leonardtown, for one week, commencing September 20th. He will give all desired information, also estimates. See advertisement in another column.

Republican County Convention.

The County Convention of the St. Mary's republicans assembled in the Society's Hall, Tuesday, was called to order by E. B. Abell, chairman of the Central Committee and organized by electing John N. Graves, chairman and Fred. A. Moran, Secretary. A committee on credentials and organization was appointed as follows: 1st district, Capt. Randolph Jones; 2nd, Jos. B. Davis; 3rd, D. E. Graves; 4th, Frederick Whalen; 5th, Jas. H. Handy; 6th, Cox Lee; 7th, Legard Maddox; 8th, J. W. Jones. They reported the Temporary Officers permanent and the following gentlemen as entitled to seats. 1st district—Jas. A. Tension, Capt. R. Jones, Sam. Carroll, Ralph Butler, Washington Hawkins. 2nd—Jos. B. Davis, Jas. T. Cecil, Frank Price, J. R. Whalen, George Thompson. 3rd—Philip D. Love, Henry A. Butler, Wm. Boardman, Alfred Carberry, Daniel E. Graves. 4th—Fred Wheeler, Joseph Young, Wm. Carter, Chas. H. Barnes, O. Plater. 5th—James H. Moran, Daniel Coats, James Dyson, Fred. A. Handy, Wheatley Reed. 6th—John N. Graves, James Jones, Cox Lee, Henry Gray, Wash. Wilkinson. 7th—Legard Maddox, Ignis Fenwick, James P. Jameson, Luke Clarke, Miley Carter. 8th—James E. Kirby, Jno. W. Jones, George A. Thomas, James H. Butler, Jas. E. Jackson. John F. Cecil, John N. Graves and Randolph Whalen were selected as delegates to Laurel and J. Willie Johnson, W. F. Ford and George Thompson, alternates, by acclamation. Capt. Randolph Jones submitted the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, the ensuing Congressional contest is one of great importance to the republican party, not only of this district, but throughout the country; and whereas, honesty, capacity, youth, energy, pluck, industry in republican success and constant devotion to party principles, are essential characteristics of the representative of a great national party, therefore Resolved, That we, the republicans of St. Mary's county in convention assembled, do most heartily recommend to the Laurel Convention the nomination of Hon. Frank N. Holmes as a gentleman possessed of all the requisite qualifications, a profound thinker, close reasoner, influential, fluent and easy speaker. His nomination would be hailed with universal joy by all who know him, and especially by the people of Southern Maryland.

Resolved, That it is the sense and wish of this convention that the delegates this day selected to the Laurel Convention use their best endeavors to secure the nomination of the Honorable Frank N. Holmes.

Messrs. Washington Wilkinson, Jas. H. Handy and Capt. Randolph Jones, were selected to inform Mr. Holmes of the action of the convention. Mr. Holmes appeared before the Convention, thanked it for the honor done him and made a brief address.

A Target Shooting.

We notice from the Charles and Calvert county papers that military companies have been organized in both of these counties. We have a company here and suggest to our brethren that teams from their respective companies be selected and that Southern Maryland have a target shooting. We see no reason why Charlotte Hall Academy should not also join in the contest. We think that a suitable prize could be obtained and we hope that our suggestion will be acted upon. If our editorial brethren will take an interest in the matter it will soon be determined who are the champion rifle shots in Southern Maryland.

Fishes.

Court will begin next Monday. Seven prisoners are in our county jail. Local news still continues very scarce. All the Tobacco crop has not yet been cut.

Squirrel shooting is, at present, the popular amusement. The Dixon murder is still the main topic of conversation. The number of newly registered voters is unusually small.

Up to the time of going to press 241 oyster licenses had been issued. Both the Orphans' and Commissioners' Courts were in session Tuesday.

The ninth district sent to representatives to the recent republican convention. The fishing in Brittan's Bay is better, at present, than it has been for years.

The Republican primaries, we are informed, were but sparsely attended. A handful of moistened tobacco "rump" is recommended as a cure for hog cholera. Mrs. Daniel C. Hammett and daughter are sojourning at the Webster Springs, West Va.

Miss Katie Leach, who has been spending the Summer at Moore's Hotel, returned home yesterday.

We are again compelled, for want of space, to hold over the favors of Baltimore correspondents.

Report has it that St. Mary's is the only Southern Maryland county that has even a fair prospect for a tobacco crop.

We acknowledge our indebtedness to a kind 5th district friend for the report of the recent Republican Convention.

The Baltimore Herald reports that Fred Maddox was one of the races at the Timonium, (Baltimore county), Fair.

Dr. S. E. Payne will be in Leonardtown during the whole of the coming term of Court. Give him a call and have your teeth well attended to.

Miss Lollie Blanford whose recitations were a source of so much pleasure to this season's visitors at Moore's Hotel has returned to Washington.

The Public Schools open to-day. At the Leonardtown Graded School it is thought that there will be a considerable falling off in the number of pupils attending.

Dr. Page Edmunds will visit our county about the 18th instant, and remain during the term. He will bring complete dental outfit and will be found at Fenwick's Hotel.

The Leonardtown Rifles have been ordered to report at their Armory at 5 p. m., this evening, to be detailed for guard duty at the County Jail. Each man is expected to bring a blanket.

That Western Virginians appreciate true merit is proven by their selection of our former fellow-townsmen, Mr. Jos. S. Matthews, as a delegate to the Hedgesville Convention.

Since "Mike" has been a member of her crew, the Katie Hines, Captain Haislip has made frequent visits to our bay. Captain and crew are all clever gentlemen and we are ever pleased to see them.

We are indebted to some unknown friend for their kind remembrance. It was impossible to send us the dinner but the next best thing was done and we have to acknowledge the receipt of the bill of fare of the White Sulphur Springs Hotel.

The Clerk of our Circuit Court is in receipt of a letter from the U. S. Consul at Dresden, Saxony, making inquiries of the heirs of Benedict Eagan, formerly of this county, who "died recently in Dresden possessed of Mark 254.000."

CALIFORNIA, Sept. 13, 1888. Messrs. Editors—It is with pleasure that your correspondent acknowledges the call of a party of the Washington and Potomac R. R. officials on their little fishing tour to the Patuxent terminus of said road, Esperanza, and while their game was not so large as President Cleveland's in his deer shooting, I have every reason to believe they enjoyed it as much, for they caught large fish and large quantities of them. One of them said he had come 300 miles to fish in the waters of the noted Patuxent and I know if they got a bite at some of those fine cove oysters they will use the greatest energy to complete the road to this point Fall to be able to add to the shipping facilities this Winter. His noble manager, Capt. Ridgeway, headed the party in size if not in good looks. My thanks are gratefully extended for his kindness in forwarding my letters for the early train, which gave me goods landed per Weems line the same day they were ordered. If some of your Leonardtown people could experience such convenience, surely you would feel like moving either the town or R. R. for since this event I feel that the earthquake surely shook California nearer to Baltimore. Time forbids more at present.

[COMMUNICATED.]

Dear BEACON—There was an account of a tournament in one of your late issues by a very graceful writer who stated that it was under the direction of Father Neale. I am sorry to have to correct this unintentional error. The entertainment was gotten up under a kind of contract between myself and the gentleman on whose premises it took place. He was to supply provisions, erect arches, stages, &c., while it was expected that public announcements on my part and the fact that the church was to receive one-half the proceeds, would draw a crowd and make people spend freely. The fruit of my efforts was that quite a number came and spent their money liberally under the impression that they were helping the church. I claim no credit for the arrangements beyond having induced Mr. Daniel C. Hammett to give one of his characteristic displays of verbal pyrotechnics. The church received $16.25, and by the "ex parte Hercules" method you can judge of the success of the whole festival.

As this was in the opinion of most persons a church affair, I was very much grieved that the direction of the Council of Baltimore that no intoxicant be sold on picnic grounds could not be carried out, and was surprised that the pledged word of the chief-magister to that effect was violated. The store, I was told, was open till 12 o'clock at night though it should, according to promise, have been closed 12 hours earlier. Being in company with a sick gentleman I arrived late and had to leave early, but saw several things that I would have preferred not to see.

Several expressed regret that the shooting for the champion medal was not conducted as intended by the gentleman who gave the challenge and the friend who gave the medal. Some dozen or more gentlemen were unable to get a chance to be beaten and even one of the challengers was not aware that any shooting had taken place till next day. It was expected that the shooting should be by individual marksmen and not by "teams." At some future day, Messrs. Cecil, Allstair, Coad, Lillburn and our Dr. will meet your two sweet Williams and make their targets all unscathed. Jack expects to get a Remington.

P. NEALE, S. J.

I took a sunflower to Leonardtown lately that measured 12 1/2 inches in diameter. Stick a pin in that and beat it. Your print is unusually fine this week. Have you a new set?

A friend of mine gives colored for hog cholera followed by quinine and with some success.

[Correspondence of the Beacon.] MECHANICVILLE, Sept. 13, 1888. Messrs. Editors—The tournament and ball at Mechanicsville on Thursday, the 9th, notwithstanding the unfavorable day, was quite a success. The knights were marshaled in front of the stand about 1 o'clock and Dr. Z. R. Morgan, in his usual pleasant manner, delivered the address to the knights, after which the contest began, which resulted as follows:

J. Frazier, crowned Miss Amy Adams Queen of Love and Beauty; Adams Express, R. C. Koch, Miss Nellie Adams, Sweet Violet, F. Barnes, Miss Minnie Adams, Starry Night, Theo. O. Smoot, Miss May Ballenger; Unknown, F. Parran, Miss Ida Ballenger; No Show, Daniel Wood, Miss Lalah Mattingly; Earthquake, L. Keech, Miss Anna Turner, of Prince George's county. After the riding was over, the knights, with the Queen and her Maids, returned to the room which had been prepared with all the delicacies that could be asked for, which all seemed to enjoy. After supper and refreshments were served, the chief marshal, Mr. O. G. Hayden, gave the command for the successful knights to walk over to the Hall, where Mr. Walter I. Dawkins delivered a most eloquent oration address, after which the dancing began and was kept up until 1 o'clock, when all returned to their homes. The amount realized, clear of expenses, was about $40.

[Correspondence of the Beacon.] GREAT MILLS. Messrs. Editors—The Tournament and Dinner given by the ladies of Poplar Hill church, the 9th inst., was not as successful, financially, as it would have been, owing to the inclemency of the weather, as it rained most all day and night. But, notwithstanding the disadvantages, the turnout was pretty good. The ladies realized about $60.00. The Knights would not be deterred from riding by the rain, but as the regular officers were not present, selected, Dr. Billopp and Mr. James Watts to act as Judges and proceeded with the titling as follows:

R. H. Cole, Knight of Rob Roy. R. Marshall, " " Disappointment. W. J. Dent, " " Golden Cross. J. H. Duke, " " Will It Can, 4. Ollie Turner, " " No Chance. W. Ingram, " " Mt. Olive. Jos. Saxton, " " Piney Point. Knight of Disappointment and Knight of Piney Point rode off their tie which resulted in favor of the Knight of Piney Point. Mr. Turner, Knight of No Chance, crowned Miss Mary B. Bacon, Queen of Love and Beauty; Mr. Saxton, the next in order, crowned Miss Nannie Cole, first Maid; Mr. Marshall and Mr. Duke crowned Miss Blanche Shadrick and Miss Lullie Shadrick, respectively 2nd and 3rd Maids of Honor. The dance was a success and kept up all night, and we went home in the early morning—met. D. D. S.
