A Writ of Error has been granted by the Supreme Court of Ohio, in the case of the State against Ebenezer Smith of Green Springs.

A Lecture will be delivered at the Universalist Church in Republic, on Sunday evening, Jan 1st.

Subject, PREDESTINATION.

Thanks to Judge Carey for copies of the Daily Congressional Globe; also to Dr. Jas. Williams, of the Auditor's office, Columbus, for an abstract of the valuation of real property in Ohio.

We are indebted to Mr. J. H. Klippart, Secretary, for a copy of the Thirteenth Annual Report of the Ohio State Board of Agriculture to the General Assembly, containing valuable information.

The Cincinnati Gazette is now about to enter upon its 68th year. It is one of the most valuable papers in the United States and we recommend it to all, next after their own county paper. See Prospectus.

Penmanship—Mrs. M. Merrill is now engaged in instructing a class in Penmanship, at the Shawhan House. Those desirous of improving in this useful art should call on her at once. Specimens may be seen at the Shawhan House.

Editors, when they come to the Editorial Convention, on the 19th of Jan., are expected to halt outside the corporate limits and "cross" themselves three times, before entering the city of "magnificent distances." All, who cannot bring along a certificate of good moral character, in the shape of a "wife and baby," or, if a bachelor, a receipt from his washerwoman, will be put under arrest. We hope Bro. Saxten will make a note of this for the benefit of the fraternity. No "reference to allusions."

Sad Accident—Boy Drowned.—On Monday evening, Jac. Watmiller, a lad aged about 14, son of a German saloon keeper of this place, while skating on the river, just below the railroad bridge, slipped into an air-hole and disappeared under the ice. His comrades gave the alarm and search was made for his body, but without avail. On Tuesday and Wednesday a large number of our citizens were engaged in cutting the ice and searching the river, but at this writing, the body has not been recovered.

P. S. The body was recovered to-day (Thursday) noon.

Bad Omen.—Last Saturday as the 'eliqua,' preceded by the Band, started for the depot, with that monstrous piece of BLUE MUSLIN, to be presented to the Germans of Big Spring, just as they had hoisted it aloft to be kissed by the passing breeze, when the word "forward, march" had been given and the Band struck up a lively air, "ye mighty rag" came loose from the staff, fell to the ground and TRAILED IN THE DUST. This is regarded as a bad omen and prognostic of the entire defeat of the Democracy in this county, next fall.

Hail! to the New Year!—The old year 1859 is now in the last throes of approaching dissolution and young 1860 approaches, with joyous, youthful tread. We welcome the advent of the little stranger, with a round "three times three" and a "tiger." Peace to the departing, hail to the incoming year! The old year had its virtues and its follies, its joys and its sorrows. "REQUIESCAT IN PACE." We will not disturb the last moments of the departing sire, by ungrateful reflections. Let his faults be buried with him and let his virtues live in perennial beauty. The advent of young 1860 is looked for with interest. May it dawn upon us, like the "star of Bethlehem," fraught with the auguries of "peace and good will to men!" May it mark a shining circle in the cycles of advancing years. May a happy New Year and earth's richest blessings be the portion of all our readers.

The Trial of Hon. Wm. H. Gibson, on the charge of embezzling the Seneca Co. Bank Bonds, while Treasurer of State, terminated on Thursday last, in a verdict of "GUILTY." This sad news came to our people, like a clap of thunder from a clear sky, so unexpected was it. The deep, heartfelt sympathy manifested for the accused and his family, by our citizens of all parties, showed the respect still entertained in this community for the unfortunate man. Whatever may have been Mr. Gibson's public faults, he is known here as a most estimable citizen and a man of irreproachable character in private life. Hence the earnest sympathy manifested in his behalf, which has audible expression from almost every mouth. The subsequent news, that he had been admitted to bail in the sum of $10,000, until the 26th of Jan., when the argument for a new trial would be heard, made our people breathe easier and entertain a hope for his final acquittal. On his arrival home, on Saturday, he was met at the depot by a large number of sympathizing friends, whose feelings can better be imagined than described. He is now with his family.

It must be borne in mind that the trial, on which Mr. Gibson has just been convicted, had no connection with the alleged defalcation. It was an indictment merely for appropriating, to the uses of the State in order to meet pressing liabilities, Bonds held in trust by him, as security for the circulation of Banks. The State did not lose a cent by the operation, for these Bonds were all released and returned. The charge of embezzling the State's money is a separate action to be tried hereafter and which Mr. Gibson will meet like a man.

A Trip South.—We (the junior) availed ourselves of a few leisure hours, during the week past, to pay a visit to the Southern border of the State, in order to "take Christmas" on a large scale. At Dayton we called upon our worthy cotemporary of the JOURNAL, whom we found, as usual, ready to take in his friends and do for them. Our Republican friends of Montgomery seem to be of good cheer, and have much confidence in the success of the cause, of white labor and laborers, the "mud sills of society." From Dayton we proceeded on to the Queen City, where we met with a "warm reception" (for we were almost forced to eat oysters) by several members of the corpse repertorial. The aforesaid oysters were accompanied with all the accompaniments, and every one present did justice to the luxuries set before him. Several entertained fears, at times, of "overdoing the mark," but then they remembered it was Christmas and as soon discarded them.

On our way down we had the pleasure of taking by the hand our old friend, Wm. H. Martin, conductor of the C. H. & D. R. R.—Mr. M. represents the road in a flourishing condition, and, from our own private knowledge of the management, we feel a safety in endorsing all he said.

But we have neither time nor space to particularize, suffice to say we had a "glorious time," generally.

Sheidley's Invalid Bedstead.—Mr. H. O. Sheidley of Republic has recently obtained a patent for an Improved Invalid Bedstead, a likeness and description of which will be found elsewhere. It is an ingenious piece of mechanism and is so arranged that the invalid can, at pleasure, accommodate it to any position desired, either sitting, recumbent or horizontal, as suits his convenience or bodily comfort. In case of physical prostration, disease or any bodily infirmity, it is better than any nurse and prevents a great deal of suffering. We recommend it to all who are, in any way, afflicted.

Its merits are attested by all the best physicians of this county, who have seen it.

Mr. Sheidley is desirous of disposing of territory on reasonable terms and also of employing agents in selling the same.

The Firemen's Fair opened at Loesser's Hall, on Friday evening last, and has been in full blast every evening since (Sunday excepted.) It has been remarkably well attended, thus far, and promises even better than last year, the total receipts being some $200 a night. The Hall is splendidly decorated by numerous engravings and festoons of evergreen, tastefully arranged. Music too, by the American Brass Band and German "Bruder-Bund," has lent its charms to the occasion. Several gift enterprises have taken place and the "lucky ones" have borne off the prizes in triumph. The Fair will last until after New Years. Great attractions are offered for Friday and Saturday nights.

NEIGHBORING COUNTY NEWS.

But three fourths of a mile of track remain to be laid on the F. & I. R. R., to complete it to Findlay.

A friend, writing us from Findlay, who has himself been a sufferer, says the Scarlet Fever is prevailing in that place, with great fatality, and that no less than 100 children have been interred in the Cemetery in the past twelve months.

The late democratic Treasurer of Putnam Co. has proved a defaulter to the tune of from $5,000 to $20,000.

A train on the D. & M. Road, when crossing the Ottawa river, near Lima, last week, was thrown from the track and demolished. Several persons were injured, one it is thought fatally.

John Buskin of Wood Co., while returning home from Maumee, a few days ago, in company with his son, was frozen to death. He was intoxicated.

A young man named Wash Gammell has been sentenced to the Penitentiary, from Wyandot Co., for three years, for horse-stealing.

The editor of the Wyandot PIONEER has seen the "Indian Captive" and pronounces him the youngest looking, forty-two-year-old man he has ever seen. He says he speaks the English language as fluently as he does. Astonishing! ain't it?

Two prisoners attempted to burn out of the Mansfield jail, a few nights ago, but the fire got beyond their control and they had to raise the alarm.

The Gas works in Bucyrus are nearly completed and the JOURNAL thinks their citizens will enjoy the luxury of Gas by the first of May.

BOOK NOTICES.

The Old Stone Mansion.—"Mr. Charles J. Peterson has written some very excellent works, and as a romance writer, stands very high in the community of letters. The 'Old Stone Mansion' is a story of most profound interest, it is written carefully, and with an eye to effect. Startling as some of the scenes are, blending as it does, the school of Radcliffe with that of Walter Scott, he never loses sight of Nature, or leaves his readers in a bewildered state as regards the distribution of his characters. Indeed the work reflects the highest credit on his talents as a writer, and equally so to the literature of our country.—We most cordially endorse all that has been said in praise of "The Old Stone Mansion."

It is issued complete in two volumes, paper cover; Price $1; or, bound in one volume, Cloth, for $1.25. Published and for sale by T. B. Peterson & Bros., Publishers and Booksellers, No. 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

The Atlantic Monthly for January is at hand. This number commences the fifth volume of this popular periodical and affords an excellent opportunity for new subscribers to begin. A new romance by O. W. Holmes, entitled "The Professor's Story," commences with this number. The articles are all of the highest literary merit and we take pleasure in recommending the ATLANTIC to our readers—Price $3 a year or $2 taken with the TRIBUNE. Address: Ticknor & Fields, Boston.

Blackwood for Dec., has been received from the American publishers, Leonard Scott & Co., New York. It is the repository of the cream of English literature and lose none of its interest or vivacity by age. Price $3 a year—taken with any one of the Reviews, $5

Thoughts for Reflection.—As we take up the newspaper of a morning, and turning our eyes to that portion of it that records the deaths, we read one has died of Erysipelas, another of Scrofula, and a third from the effects of a Canker, and these all in the prime of life, we cannot but think that, in many of these instances, their names would not have appeared there before old age had selled them to their rest, if their friends had administered proper remedies. In view of this subject, permit us to suggest that "Kennedy's Medical Discovery" has become justly celebrated for the cures of the above diseases, and all of a similar nature. We, therefore, cordially recommend it to those whose blood is now flowing corrupt through their veins.

Inflammation of the Liver.

Boston, March 24, 1854.

I have been afflicted for many years with a morbid state of the Liver, with Constipation, Indigestion, cold extremities, shooting pains in the side, etc. I was about submitting to the usual mercurial course of treatment when, by I hoped to gain relief, but not a cure. I could not lie upon either side when I began with the PERUVIAN SYRUP, and after using it for only one week, I consider myself cured. T. H. KENDALL, M. D.
