Democratic County Convention.

The Democrats of Wood County will hold their Convention for the nomination of County Officers, and the transaction of other business, at ROUSHOLDER'S CORNER, on Saturday, August 29, 1868, at 10 o'clock A. M.

By order of the Democratic Central Executive Committee.

J. G. KNOLL, Chairman.

The Premium List of the approaching Wood County Fair, to be held at Tontogany, is published in full in this issue. The indications are that the Fair will be the largest ever held in the county.

Musical Instruments.—L. LEPPELMAN, of Fremont, Ohio, has one of the finest assortments of Musical Instruments in Northwestern Ohio, and at prices that can not fail to prove satisfactory to the most economical purchaser. Pianos, Organs and Melodeons, in variety, and from the very best manufacturers in the world. He deals in none but the best, and every instrument that goes from his establishment is warranted to be as perfect as mechanical genius and artistic skill can make it. A superior instrument in this establishment can be seen at the residence of L. M. HUNT, Esq., of this place. It is admired by all who have seen it.

A QUICK RESULT.

Thousands suffer needlessly from Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, &c., and it is only because they neglect to avail themselves of that wonderful Household Remedy, Mishler's Herb Bitters—a preparation that excels any other ever discovered for complaints of this nature. Sufferers from that scourge of our race, Dyspepsia, why will you endure the agony it produces, when by the use of Mishler's Herb Bitters you can drive it from you forever? This is a sovereign remedy and will effect a positive and permanent cure in your case. The public is made acquainted with all the ingredients used in the preparation of these Bitters, and the highest medical authorities in the land recommend it, and it has never been known to fail when taken according to the directions accompanying each bottle. Sold by all druggists and dealers. Dr. S. B. Hartman & Co., Proprietors, Lancaster, Pa.

Entries can be made on the Secretary's books at any time, ten days previous to the Fair, in person or by letter, and the Secretary requests all exhibitors to make entries in advance.

2. In order that every article entered may be displayed in the proper place, and examined by the Awarding Committees, it is desirable that such articles be on the grounds the first day. The Halls will be in order and their Superintendents on the ground to receive articles and consign them to their proper places. No stall or pen for stock, or place for any article, can be secured except according to the direction of the Superintendent of the proper department.

3. All entries must be made before 10 o'clock A. M. OF THE SECOND DAY OF THE FAIR, and should be on or before the first.

4. All stock must be on the ground by 9 A. M. of the second day. No animal or article can be removed before the close of the exhibition, except by permission of the Board of Directors. Necessary feed for all stock, except horses, will be provided on the grounds, free of charge.

5. The owners of all cattle designed for exhibition will come prepared with ropes or halters to tie them in their stalls, as no provision will be made to secure cattle without hitching.

6. The Judges will meet at the Secretary's office on the Fair grounds, at 10 o'clock A. M. on the second day, when their names will be called, vacancies filled, and they will enter upon their duties. It is hoped all persons appointed on the Awarding Committees will be present at that hour.

7. Should the Awarding Committees in any of the different departments discover irregularity or wrong entries, they will at once apply to the Secretary to have errors corrected, and should any doubt arise in regard to any question, they will report the fact to the President of the Society, that he may bring it before the Board of Managers, if necessary.

8. Awarding Committees must comply with the rules requiring competitors for premiums to furnish full and accurate statements.

9. The Judges on animals will have regard to the symmetry, early maturity, size and general characteristics of the kind which they judge. They will make proper allowance for age and other circumstances, as to the character and condition of the animals. They will not give encouragement to overfed animals.

10. No Awarding Committee can award any discretionary premium on any animal or article, but only recommend the same, subject to the decision of the Board.

11. The Awarding Committees will be furnished with cards designating first and second premiums, which they will affix to the animal or article according to their award.

12. The Judges are requested to make their reports in writing, and be ready to report on the third day of the Fair, at 12 M.

13. Superintendents of the different departments will have all animals and articles systematically arranged. The officers of the Society and Superintendents will be known by their official badges.

14. No animal shall compete in more than one class or department of the same Fair, excepting in display and sweepstakes.

15. All manufactured articles competing for premiums must have been made within two years next preceding the Fair.

16. No article or animal shall be entitled to a premium unless owned by the person or persons offering the same, or a member of his or her family; and all farm products, including grains, vegetables, fruits and flowers, must be grown by the exhibitor.

17. No exhibitor will be allowed to act as a judge on articles exhibited by himself.

18. No horses or wagons will be allowed to remain within the Park unless entered for exhibition.

19. No premiums will be awarded to worthless articles.

Any person who shall in any way impose upon the Society by offering any animal or article for competition at any Fair in violation of any rules of the Society, shall not be entitled to any premium at such Fair.

THE DINING HALL will be in charge of a responsible party, with whom arrangements will be made to furnish meals upon reasonable terms. (No meals furnished by the Society.)
