Architect Chas. A. Cregar was in Cincinnati yesterday.

Mr. J. S. Crowell left today for Indianapolis on a brief visit.

Dr. O. L. Cole and wife will spend Sunday at South Charleston.

The new time card on the Pan Handle goes into effect tomorrow at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. St. John, of Springfield, attended the funeral of W. A. Purtlebaugh yesterday.—Urbana Citizen.

Agent George H. Knight left this morning at 2:25 o'clock for the Mammoth Cave in Kentucky. He will return on Monday.

Mr. George Elphinstone, of Memphis, Tenn., who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Andrew Watt, left today for home.

Being about to leave for the old country Mr. Anzinger will give his friends tonight a free concert, by the Big Six band, in his summer garden, No. 41 west Main street. All his friends are invited.

Robert Stradling, the man who killed himself near St. Paris, used a 38-caliber bull-dog revolver. The bullet went in one side of the head and came out the other. His father suicided some years ago, and it is believed to be hereditary with the family.

The services by Pastor Collett, in St. Paul M. E. church on Yellow Springs street tomorrow (Sunday) evening, will be in anticipation of Memorial day. The music, discourse and all, will be especially appropriate. Everybody invited.

Unknown persons broke into car 1,423 on the Bee Line and stole six pairs of brogans and twelve pairs of congress shoes. The robbery was committed between Dayton and Miamisburg, but was not discovered until the train had reached Dayton yesterday, when it was reported to the police.

A NEW INDUSTRY.

The Springfield Machine Tool Company Established in This City.

A new industry has just been organized in Springfield, and gotten down to business. It is known as the Springfield Tool Machine company, and is comprised of W. H. Owen, formerly superintendent of the knotter department of Whiteley, Fassler & Kelly, a very fine machinist and mechanic; Mr. P. E. Montanus, who will take charge of the office and general business; and another fine machinist, whose name cannot be used at present, owing to the fact that he is employed elsewhere. The company has procured a lease on the buildings at the corner of Main street and Western avenue, owned by George Simpson. They will manufacture a line of machine tools, such as lathes, planers, drills, etc.—an entirely new feature in this city, and requiring the employment of thoroughly skilled labor. The firm starts out with an established business, having contracts already for $20,000 of work, requiring the constant employment of twenty hands for a year to fulfill orders already received. The company has had brilliant offers to locate elsewhere, propositions having been received from several gas towns for land, free gas and water, no taxes for five years, etc., but preferred Springfield. The REPUBLIC wishes the company success in its new enterprise.

Had His Thumb Amputated.

Joseph Fassler, a foreman at the East street shops, had his right hand caught in the cogs Thursday afternoon. The thumb was so badly mangled that it had to be amputated at the first joint. Dr. Russell performed the amputation.

Horse Stolen.

The police were notified last night by the Dayton police authorities to be on the lookout for a brown horse, 8 years old and 15½ hands high. It was stolen yesterday and the thief is supposed to be a colored man. $100 reward is offered for the thief and horse.

GOES TO THE JURY.

Daisy Carroll's Fate in the Hands of Twelve American Citizens—The Arguments.

The case of Jessie D. Carroll, charged with embezzlement and larceny, went to the jury about 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Prosecutor Weaver, for the state, and Judge Blandin for the defense, spoke an hour and a quarter each yesterday afternoon, occupying the entire time until court adjourned. Counsel for both sides came down hard on Frank B. Jones. Prosecutor Weaver, in his argument, said that any man who would sit in the presence of his wife and tell of how he had kept and promised to marry a low woman, would lie on the stand and his testimony was entitled to no credence. Judge Blandin also denounced Jones in unmeasured language, and spoke of the great conspiracy of the Whiteleys to "down" a poor girl. He claimed that the testimony against her was entirely circumstantial and her relation to the crime pure theory and sophistry.

Court adjourned at 6 o'clock.

Judge Blandin resumed his argument this morning, and again arraigned the Whiteleys most severely. He called attention to the significant liberty enjoyed by Jones at Columbus, as shown by the testimony. He spoke of the attempt of a gigantic corporation controlling the livelihood of 5,000 people to crush a woman; and to do this or give to a state convict a degree of liberty and license, not exceeded by anyone of the 5,000 mentioned.

Judge Blandin spoke until 11 o'clock with the utmost vigor and power. Prosecutor Weaver then closed for the state in one of the best appeals he ever made at this bar, stoutly and ably combatting Judge Blandin's position. He had twenty minutes more after dinner, which he ably employed.

Judge White then delivered his charge to the jury a sound, succinct and lucid one, almost identical with the charge at the first trial. It pointed out clearly that the real question, the gist of the whole matter, was purely a question of fact, and it was for the jury to decide as to Miss Carroll's knowledge of, and complicity with, Jones's crime. The jury is now out, with a prospect of a long, weary wait ahead.

Ahead of All Competitors.

The attention of REPUBLIC readers is called to the advertisement of R. F. Brandom & Co., which appears in another column of today's paper. It goes without saying here in Springfield that this is the leading music house in Southern Ohio, and their large and every day increasing trade is ample evidence that the goods they sell are just what they represent them to be.

An Awning on Fire.

At 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon somebody threw a lighted cigar butt on the awning in front of the New York Hat Co.'s store, on south Market street. It blazed up merrily and burnt a hole about a yard square. It was extinguished with little trouble.

Divorce Doings.

Hamill C. Franceway asks a divorce from Annie Estella Franceway, for willful absence. The parties were married in Delaware, O., in November, 1877.

Julia Ashley asks for a divorce from James Ashley, for extreme cruelty. He at one time tried to kill her with a knife.

Smith Earsom's Remains.

Smith Earsom, a former resident of the burg, died in Springfield last Tuesday morning about 6:30. His death was somewhat of a surprise to his many friends here who did not know he was sick, and resulted from some disease of the bowels, after three days' illness. The remains were brought here at eleven o'clock Thursday. The Grand Army escorted the remains to the cemetery, where they were placed in the vault.—Mechanicsburg News.

Quaker Service.

David Tatum, the Quaker evangelist, of Cleveland, will speak in Temperance hall Sabbath afternoon, the 29th inst., at 3:30 o'clock, on intemperance and the liquor traffic, its evils and remedies, and its relations to capital and labor, and other interesting features, from gospel, legal and business standpoints. The public are cordially invited.

K. of L. Picnic.

"Kansas Excursion."

The Bee Line is on deck with the best one yet. On account of the German Baptist meeting at Ottawa, Kan., the Bee Line will sell tickets to Girard, Cherryvale, Fredonia, Winfield, Wichita and Ottawa, Kansas. The route from St. Louis will be the St. Louis & San Francisco, which is absolutely the shortest line to all the above points, except Ottawa, and with one less change than any other line can offer. If any other line is desired from St. Louis, we will sell you a round trip ticket to St. Louis for one fare for the round trip. You can purchase from there at the same rate tickets to all the above points. Tickets will be sold from May 24th to 29th, inclusive, at one fare for the round trip, good returning for thirty days. Take the popular Bee Line route and you will not be deceived, either in information or in accommodations provided. G. H. KNIGHT, Agent.

PROF. SMITH, of Wittenberg College,

Recommends Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder, and condemns the use of Ammonia in Baking Powder.

This is to certify that I have examined Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder, samples of which I purchased in open market, and that I can recommend it as a good, wholesome, and unadulterated article. It does not contain ammonia, an ingredient of many baking powders, and one which I regard as highly objectionable, since it seriously impairs digestion. I have examined biscuits baked with an ammoniated powder, and have found, as has been repeatedly declared, that the ammonia was still there. Cleveland's powder gave the amount of pure carbonic acid claimed for it by the manufacturers.
