WANTED!

To find the man who did not purchase his Spring Suit of J. W. Phillips that don't want to kick himself now, after learning at what prices he has been, (and is still) selling goods, and as to the fitting and making of his garments, there is no one that has turned out better in the city. He always has prided himself in trimming his goods up better than any one in the trade for the money. And if you or your friends are still wanting a suit or an extra pair of pants, you would do well to call on him before you purchase elsewhere. Do not forget the place, the oldest establishment.

NEW LODGE ORGANIZED.

Hope Lodge No. ——, Knights and Ladies of Honor—Officers Elected.

A new lodge of the Knights and Ladies of Honor, was organized in this city last (Monday) evening and starts out with a charter membership of about fifty. The order was originally a part of the Knights of Honor, but became so large and powerful that it colonized from the mother order. It is similar, in most particulars, to the Knights of Honor, but differs in the respect that ladies are admitted into full membership, with equal fraternal privileges with the men.

The meeting was held at the hall of Moncrieffe Lodge, K. of P., on Market street, and was very harmonious and enthusiastic. Mr. F. K. Syman was temporary chairman and Ike Isaacs temporary secretary.

It was decided to call the new lodge Hope lodge No. —, Knights and Ladies of Honor, but the number cannot be known until the lodge is formally instituted by the grand officers, which ceremony will occur July 11. The following officers were elected:

Past Protector—F. K. Syman.
Protector—A. F. Foysell.
Vice Protector—Mrs. L. Christie.
Secretary—Ike Isaacs.
Financial Secretary—J. W. E. Cline.
Treasurer—W. H. Evans.
Chaplain—Mrs. H. Wiggins.
Guide—F. J. Whaley.
Guardian—Miss Rose Heglia.
Sentinel—A. Newman.
Medical Examiner—Dr. L. E. Russell.

Moncrieffe hall was decided upon as the regular place of meeting, and meetings will be held on the second and fourth Monday evening of each month. The next meeting before the institution of the lodge will be held on the evening of June 27.

Mr. Fields, of Pennsylvania, a prominent past officer, addressed the meeting on the welfare of the order, and made some very appropriate, eloquent remarks. Flourishing lodges of this order exist at Dayton, Hamilton, Cleveland and other Ohio cities.

SPRINGFIELD'S HOSPITAL.

Meeting of the Commissioners Last Night—The Question of a Superintendent.

The hospital commissioners met last night in the office of the secretary of the board, Mr. J. S. Elliot. All the members were present except Mr. Hagan. A general discussion of the plumbing, heating and sewerage was indulged in, but no definite action was taken by the board.

Finally Messrs. Kelly, Lisle and Elliot were appointed as a committee on heating, plumbing and sewerage.

Messrs. Phelps and Hagan were appointed as a committee on furniture and superintendent.

This morning at 10 o'clock these committees met at the hospital to view the building and to take measurements for the plumbing and to provide for the erection of a small boiler house, which is to be located between the two buildings.

The question of a superintendent is agitating the pulse of the board more than any other question just now. Several applications for the position have been made, but no action has yet been taken and it is not probable that the committee will make a recommendation for yet a few weeks.

Paying up the Dow Law Tax.

The following saloonists have thus far paid up their Dow law tax at the treasurer's office:

Thomas Henry	$100
Frank J. Miller	100
Timothy Liddy	100
John Thrir & Sons	100
John M. Kloepfer	100
Jacob Huben	100
John Lutbie	50
Patrick Griffis	100
W. J. Burns	100
Mary Collins	100
J. J. Betzold	100
M. C. Clark	50
Jacob Schafer	50
Michael Walsh	50
G. J. Bauer	100

Treasurer Parsons wishes special attention called to the fact that the time for the paying of this tax expires on June 20, after which the twenty per cent. additional will be added. All controversy upon the law has now been settled, and there is nothing to prevent the tax being promptly paid. So far the gin millers have been coming in slowly.

Station House Slate.

Charles Redden and John Frick, for loitering; Pat McCann and John Cavanaugh, for drunkenness; John Dillon, John Glenn and Tom Smith, for disorderly conduct; W. M. Preston, John Bowers and Henry Altschul, for being drunk and disorderly; Martin Burke, for abusing his family; Fred Zischler, for violating a sanitary ordinance; and Henry Follrath, for violating a market ordinance, were arrested yesterday or last night.

Refused a Beer Permit.

The S. & L. D. club applied to Chief of Police Ambrose for a permit to sell beer in Spence's grove next Saturday, and was promptly refused. The Knights of Labor picnic will be held on the fair grounds and as no liquor will be sold there, the chief decided not to permit any to be sold in the adjoining lot. His action is commended by all good citizens.

Marriage Announcement.

Had a Fainting Fit.

RADY USED UP.

Henry Altschul Gets the Worst of an Ugly Saloon Row.

Last night Henry Altschul entered Ruzzaw's saloon on Main street just west of Yellow Spring, and soon afterward became involved in a fight. Chairs and beer glasses filled the air for a minute, and when the affair had been quelled it was found that Altschul had been badly hurt. He had several heavy bruises and across his forehead there was an ugly cut. He was tired out of the saloon and soon afterward found himself down on Pinn street lying on the sidewalk. Happening to see a friend passing he called him and with his assistance reached the Electric Light works. The patrol wagon was telephoned for and soon afterward conveyed Altschul to the station house, where drunkenness and disorderly conduct was placed against him. His assailants have not yet been arrested.

A Hideous Beast.

It is a melancholy fact, but none the less true, that the walrus is one of the most disgusting looking objects known to man. It has a raw, naked hide, without hair or fur, covered with a multitude of pustular looking warts, boils and pimples, the skin wrinkled in deep, flabby folds, and marked by dark venous lines, which show clearly through the yellowish-brown cuticle, which seems to be peeling off with leprosy; altogether a most unwholesome looking brute, unpleasantly suggesting the appearance we know as "bloated."

They are of tremendous size, ten feet and a half to twelve feet long, and weighing fifteen or sixteen hundred pounds. In water their motions are not nearly so quiet or graceful as those of the seal or sea lion, and on land they are almost helpless, for which reason they rarely come outside the surf wash. They go about in large herds, which now and then emerge to sleep. First one lands and lays itself out, and then a second comes and gives its predecessor a shove, whereupon he moves a little farther up, then comes number three, who pokes up number two, who prods number one, and so on till the whole herd has got to land, each brute pillowed on the body of the one above him all without quarreling, but every movement displaying apathy and phlegm. Its most extraordinary feature is its hide, which over the shoulders and down the throat and chest is three inches thick, and is nowhere less than half an inch.—All the Year Round.

Dinners and Diplomacy.

A well spread and well served table has always proved a powerful adjunct to diplomatic negotiations. No doubt of it many wars, on the eve of breaking out, have been prevented by mutual concessions made by men who had well dined, and only two or three years ago Minister Morton gained the good will of a French cabinet minister, who all along had stoutly opposed the importation of American pork, by giving him an unexceptionably good dinner.

President Grevy has for chef a man named Verner, and he prepares menus that are excellent, but some of the cabinet officers have abandoned their kitchens to female cooks, and cordon bleus in petticoats are never the equal of those in pantaloons. I heard not long ago of a celebrated French cook gravely asserting that this fact was the reason why there has been so little stability among the ministers of the third republic. "It is all very well for M. le Ministre to hire cheap female cooks and live economically, but how can he expect to form any lasting combination over a bad dinner?" The foreign ambassadors and ministers here in Paris, all of them save one, and, alas! I haven't the heart to name him, have splendid cooks in their kitchens, and some of these are the most illustrious chefs to be found anywhere.—Paris Cor. San Francisco Chronicle.

Outrage by an Archduke.

Archduke Ferdinand, who inherited part of the vast fortune of the late duke of Modena, has just been disgraced and forbidden to appear at court in consequence of a most gross outrage on some peasants, which was brought to the notice of the emperor by the bishop of Linz. It is stated that the archduke and some of his equally harebrained brother officers were riding in the country when they met a peasant funeral. They compelled the procession to stop, insulted the mourners, and finally, incredible as it seems, they are accused of having opened the coffin, and then, after having taken the corpse out, of having leaped their horses over it. The archduke must be a brutal ruffian if he were guilty of this revolting outrage. The story, however, has been common talk at Vienna for weeks past, although no notice has been taken of it by the newspapers, as they are afraid to mention members of the imperial family except to eulogize them.—New York World.

Kanopolis Agler.

Special Dispatch to the Daily Wichita Eagle.

KANOPOLIS, Kas., June 10.—The railroad bonds were carried today in this county south of here, and the citizens of Kanopolis are having a grand jollification tonight, as this insures the building of the Missouri Pacific railroad inside of ninety days, from Wichita through Kanopolis and the center of the state to the Nebraska line, which will give Kanopolis a direct railway connection with Galveston, Tex., via Wichita, Kan., and Fort Worth, Texas, only fourteen miles of road being necessary to reach this thriving city. Bands are playing, cannons booming, flags are flying, bon-fires burning and a display of fireworks is now in progress.

The people of this city were never so happy as now, as in a short time Kanopolis will be the only town in central Kansas having a direct railroad running both north and south and east and west all the way across the state.

HEARTLESS CRUELTY

it is to delude a poor sufferer into the belief that some worthless liniment will cure rheumatism and neuralgia. Honesty is the best policy in the manufacture of proprietary articles as in all other matters, and the fact that the proprietors of Athlophoros have never claimed for it even all its merit would warrant has not a little to do with its wonderful popularity, and the thousands of grateful testimonials received by them show that their policy has been wise as well as right.

Experience has amply demonstrated that mere outward applications are worthless. The disease has its seat in the blood, and any remedy to be successful must deal with the obstructive acid which poisons and inflames it.

Athlophoros acts on the blood, muscles and joints directly. It takes the poison out of the blood and carries it out of the system; it invigorates the action of the muscles and limbers the stiffness of the joints. It reaches the liver and kidneys, cleansing them from irritating substances, and, if followed up after the rheumatic conditions cease, it will restore these organs to regularity and health.

Patrick Fagan, clerk for Sayres & Co., Wilmington, Ohio, says: "I was laid up with rheumatism for four weeks. It would be impossible for me to describe what I endured. Night and day I was a constant sufferer, trying every kind of a treatment and medicine until I was almost discouraged, as nothing gave me relief. As soon as I learned of Athlophoros and what it done for others right here in this city, I commenced using it. In two days time I was out of the house, free from rheumatism. That is over a year ago and I have never been troubled with the disease since."

Every druggist should keep Athlophoros and Athlophoros Pills, but where they cannot be bought of the druggist the Athlophoros Co., 112 Wall St., New York, will send either (carriage paid) on receipt of regular price, which is $1.00 per bottle for Athlophoros and 50c. for Pills.

For liver and kidney diseases, dyspepsia, indigestion, weakness, nervous debility, diseases of women, constipation, headache, impure blood, &c., Athlophoros Pills are unequaled.
