Communication came directed to the office this week, written in verse. We recognize from it that the author is a printer and wants a situation. He has been serving Uncle Sam now for nearly five years, and thinks he is well qualified to serve his devil. We are in no situation to adopt him, as one "Bat" is sufficient at present, consequently there is not a ghost of a chance for a second even versus the devil.

Anyone Knowing

Themselves indebted to the INDEPENDENT for subscription, job work or otherwise, are requested to pay up promptly. Private enterprise coupled with the assidious labors of Fountain & Crouch, with aid financially from the proprietors, gave it a start. Private means has mostly carried it to the third year with the present corps of editors. The proprietors in doing this had no other motive in that Southern New Mexico should have a reliable newspaper, pecuniary profit with them was nothing, in consideration of the improvement of the valley. The patronage in some quarters has been liberal, and to them with the proprietors accorded all praise. There are several hundred dollars due, and in order to maintain the paper it must be paid up. Private enterprise can no longer be looked to for aid, gentlemen and citizens the aid must come from you. To those that are indebted, remit and all will be well.

La Novia del Cochero.

El "Courier-Journal nos dijna asi un caso singular sucedido en la sociedad moderna. Algunas semanas pasadas aparecio repentinamente aqui entre la sociedad, un joven estranjero, pero buen mozo, bien vestido, vivo y agradable. Se representaba ser miembro de una de las companias mas grandes de mineros en la California, y era respectado aqui como un hombre de un gran capital y cultura, y asi poseia la mejor posicion en la sociedad. En Louisville las casas mas respectables abrieron sus puertas al joven, y el resplandor de la gloria de la gente de moda, fue por un tiempo eclipsado por esta luminaria nueva. Pero, no obstante, él como el sol brilló para todos, y pronto escejió la bella que le gustaba, en la cual concentro su entero amor. Ella era una de las mas amables bellas de Kentucky, y la hija de uno de los comerciantes mas ricos y mas respectables en Louisville. Otros jovenes con todo su esplendor, habian solicitado la mano de esta joven, y habia sido en vano, pero á él, con todo el amor de su corazon, le siguió legalmente al altar y como sobre si mismo las promesas [illegible] entonces, cuando el pan de boda habia sido revanado y su capuesta para el viage, se despidió de sus parientes y de los amigos de su [illegible] su esposo para seguirlo por [illegible] en caso que él [illegible] Cuando el carruaje iba por las calles iluminadas hacia el embarcadero del ferro-carril, ella reposaba sobre los hombros de su esposo, y la escena pintaba su casa nueva donde iba—retratando un lugar orgulloso situado al poniente del mar con sus ojos cristalinos, sus inmensos lagos, sus arboles hermosos, y suntuoso interior, su vista figuraba la espendida escena de las hermosas chosas en San Francisco, y el gusto que iba á tener en conocer á los representantes de las diferentes naciones—pero aqui se paró el carruage, y su esposo se apeó y la ayudo á ella á bajarse del carruage. Estaban en frente de una casita cerca del desembarcadero del ferro-carril en Nasliville, y que [illegible] la conducio á la puerta. ¿"Por algo excos aqui Federico?" pregunto el futura resio. "Esta es, mi corazon, nuestra riño pero triunfo" contestó con [illegible] y capuerta y entró [illegible] entonces abrió la estaba [illegible] [illegible] que apenas Que quiere decir Vd." [illegible]rico! ¡Federico! mi [illegible] abrazándola al [illegible] decir, [illegible] en tono bajo, "No soy [illegible] tiempo y [illegible] ni soy rico, ni soy un Calif[illegible] ¡Señor!" retirandose de él con una [illegible] "Pero soy un cochero." "Oh Federico mi delicioso amado," cayendose en sus brazos. Si mi estimada soy un cochero y siempre he sido. Hace mucho que estaba buscando una mujer que me tuviese un amor verdadero. Muchas señoras ricas pudieran haberme querido pero mi position es lo que no les gustava, y por eso me resolvi á disfrazarme como un rico, y fui en busca de una mujer que pudiera quererme á mi mismo, y que no me despreciara por ser un cochero. Y ahora mi vida, que ya la he hallado tiro mi disfraz y soy otra vez un cochero. Tu cochero y enteramente tuyo. "¡Oh Federico; querido Federico! ¡Que noble, que generoso eres! Nunca si quiera he pensado que habia de ser la esposa de un cochero, ni soñe una felicidad de tal clase para pobre chiquitita de mi."
