BATTLE OF GETTYSBURG.

To be Shown Next Wednesday Night by St. Joseph Movies.

Mr. R. A. Bourgois and son, Mr. Clifton Bourgois, of New Roads, La., have opened a moving picture show at the Masonic Hall at St. Joseph and gave a most creditable performance Friday night. The pictures presented showed Western views and toyland scenes were enjoyed by the entire audience.

A much better and finer show will be presented next Wednesday night, when the Battle of Gettysburg, will be shown in five big reels consuming about two hours.

As is well known to our people, the Battle of Gettysburg was possibly the most stubbornly fought and most terrific engagements that occurred between Northern and Southern arms, and the turn of the tide on that field sounded the death knell of the Confederacy. The Battle of Gettysburg is included in the "Fifteen Decisive Battles of the World."

The pictures of this great conflict to be presented by the movies next Wednesday night were prepared especially for the Mutual Film Co., at great cost. Some eighteen hundred men, many of whom were veterans on either side, were assembled at Gettysburg Park, the site of the great battle, and the entire engagement, as far as Government records could determine, was re-enacted, all forces being clad in the blue and the gray uniforms of the two great armies. The commanders of the opposing forces are easily recognizable.

This film has passed the Board of Censorship with unanimous approval and is being shown in many of the largest moving picture shows in the United States and is everywhere received with favor.

Messrs Bourgois have located their plant here at great expense and are making every effort to give our people a real decent, respectable and high class show. The films will be changed for every performance and the pictures shown will be of educational value and instructive to all, regardless of age. They deserve encouragement and the shows should be patronized from all sections of the parish.

Mrs. W. M. Hunt and three children, of Mer Rouge, La., are visiting relatives in St. Joseph. This is Mrs. Hunt's first visit here since she left St. Joseph ten years ago. Her many friends are delighted to see her looking so well.

Rt. Rev. Davis Sessums, Bishop of the Diocese of Louisiana, is a visitor to St. Joseph to-day, as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Curry. Bishop Sessums will conduct services at Christ Church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, and at Newellton in the afternoon.

The sad and tragic death of Mr. Geo. W. Koontz, President of the Britton & Koontz Bank of Natchez, which occurred this week, was learned in Tensas parish with greatest regret. Mr. Koontz has been a prominent figure in the business affairs of Natchez for many years and has been the head of the Britton & Koontz Bank since the death of the late and lamented Mr. Audley C. Britton. Mr. Koontz had many friends in Tensas parish who will drop a tear to his memory.

Malaria or Chills & Fever

Prescription No. 666 is prepared especially for MALARIA or CHILLS & FEVER. Five or six doses will break any case, and if taken then as a tonic the Fever will not return. It acts on the liver better than Calomel and does not gripe or sicken. 25c

WATERPROOF NOTES.

The Little Girl's Sewing Class, instructed by Mrs. John Rucker, assisted by Miss Lilia Hunter, met with Miss Frances Turpin on Friday afternoon, and their first work being finished, the prize, a silver thimble, was awarded to Miss Marian White. The judges were Mrs. E. E. Graves and Mrs. H. P. Greaves.

The fortunate winner in the contest is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. White, and is a very bright and attractive little girl and very popular with a wide circle of friends. Her needle work reflects greatest credit on her training both at home and at the Club, and her friends are very proud of her accomplishment.

The regular semi-annual clearance sale of spring and summer goods, including all men's wearing apparel, from hat to socks, has been inaugurated by M. M. This sale is looked forward to with great anticipation every summer and winter by their large clientele, as the bargains offered are always attractive and afford quite a saving to buyer who makes a study of economy.

JEALOUS OF THE NEW CAMEL

Elephant in Jardin des Plantes Punished His Former Admirers for Their Fickleness.

At the Jardin des Plantes in Paris there occurred recently an incident that showed that animals are subject to feelings very like those which occasionally ruffle the bosoms of men.

A large elephant, formerly the center of attraction, found itself supplanted in public favor by a new arrival—a young camel. The camel was the latest acquisition, and very naturally engaged the attention of visitors.

The elephant for a long time showed signs of dissatisfaction, and at last its jealously reached a point where it must find expression. When the usual crowd gathered about the camel, the elephant prepared for action. It filled its trunk with water, and with deliberate aim discharged the water all over the people who stood looking at the baby camel.

This method of throwing cold water upon the admirers of a rival brought a laugh even from its victims.

In certain parts of India railroad engineers have many difficulties to encounter, some of them more amusing to read than to experience. The following is one such difficulty:

A freight train was lumbering along when a big elephant came out of the woods and undertook to butt the engine off the track. The engineer did not like to charge the beast, for fear of an upset, and several times reversed the engine, in the vain hope that the elephant would take that as a sign of surrender and retire.

Finally the elephant backed into the engine, and setting its forefeet firmly between the rails, endeavored to push the rtin backward with its hind quarters.

The engineer promptly put on all steam, toppled the elephant over a small embankment, and before it could recover its senses, the train passed on.

There was a cat that chose a peculiar spot for a bed. Comfort was the cat's object, and the chosen spot did not seem to be calculated to afford it. The cat was found fast asleep in a large ship-building yard, lying on what seemed to be a very muddy path.

It was found, however, that the spot chosen by the cat for its couch was the point at which a hot steam-pipe passed under the road, so that the mud was baked into a warm, dry clay.
