The Fifth series is now open for subscription. Parties desiring stock can obtain same by applying to the Secretary. We respectfully invite the attention of those contemplating building, or those desiring to borrow money on City Real Estate to this admirable system of borrowing money. You can obtain the money from this association to buy or build a home, and your monthly payments on same, including principal and interest, will be very little more than you now pay for rent. Make the effort while building material and labor is still cheap. Take stock in the Fifth series and build yourself a home with the aid of the Merchants' and Mechanics' Building and Loan Association. For further particulars, etc., apply to W. A. BOEYNGE, Secretary, Room 9, Soledad block, corner Houston and Soledad streets.

Editor San Antonio Light:

The paragraph in yesterday's Light respecting the Texas Figaro and myself does both a great injustice, that I am sure you will be willing to correct, and therefore I ask your permission to state that while, as publicly announced, the dramatic department of the Texas Figaro is controlled by me as responsible editor of the paper, it is edited by a gentleman of repute who has, since the review was established, paid for admission to Turner Opera House and was present through the whole of the performance on Wednesday. As the accredited representative of the New York Dramatic News in the discharge of my duty to that paper, and not as editor of the Texas Figaro, I also attended and presented my credentials. For the past three years I have been admitted on those credentials, and until that night no objection was raised, but the lessee objecting to the Texas Figaro's censorship articles, declined further to recognize the Dramatic News, and I refused, waiving the inter paper to write the matter as it thinks best. I most emphatically and distinctly say, and prove if necessary, that the Texas Figaro has not asked nor received any favors of Mr. Hasche, and will not do so under any consideration. Respectfully,

HENRY RUDOLPHTALTON.

The report was approved.

The report of the jury of view in the matter of the Malmberger road was adopted.

The contract for building a bridge over the San Antonio river at the Pour crossing, near the San Jose Mission, was awarded to Messrs. Freeman & Co., representing the Campbell Bridge Company. The amount to be paid by the county for the bridge is $290.

A number of accounts were audited, approved and ordered paid.

The Secret of Vigor.

The most important step in this process is the restoration of the functions of digestion and assimilation to full and uninterrupted exercise, since it is upon their activity alone, that the system can depend to replenish its dwindling store of energy. Among tonics which the voice of the people and high professional indorsement approve as reliable, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has long been recognized as the best. Its properties as a medicated stimulant commend it to all persons suffering from the effects of fatigue, mental or bodily, as an immediate means of counteracting their effects; and in cases where loss of vigor is attributable to such weakening chronic causes as dyspepsia, affections of the kidneys and bladder, and the infirmities peculiar to age, it produces permanently beneficial results. Those twin obstacles to health and vigor, liver complaint and constipation, and also removed by it. It also prevents and cures malarial disease.

Business Change.

I desire to announce to the public that I have this day sold my entire interest in the Olsmith Arms company to Ed. Steves, Jr., who succeeds me in the business and will collect all outstanding indebtedness, and assume all liabilities.

T. H. MCCLAUGHRY.

November 1, 1885.

In connection with the above I would respectfully announce to my friends and the public, that I have this day taken charge of the business of the Olsmith Arms company, which will hereafter be known as the Steves Arms company, 240 Commerce street. Frank Olsmith, so favorably known to the public, still retains his connection with the house, and together with myself will endeavor to continue the former patronage and extend it as far as possible.

Very respectfully,

STEVES ARMS CO.
ED. STEVES, JR.
