LOCAL NEWS.

Items of Interest and Business as Heard on the Streets.

—A sure cure—"X L N T."

—"X L N T" has no competition.

—Another light occurred at the Washington last night.

—Lily Gibson was admitted to bail this morning on a $500 bond.

—A card party takes place to-night at Captain Mott's residence, Second Ward.

—Mothers know the benefit of Red Star Cough Cure. It contains no opiates.

—Dr. Kirk will soon remove to Mrs. A. Robinson's restaurant on San Pedro Avenue.

—The Bachelors and Benedicts give a German to-morrow night at the Casino Hall.

—William Lemmon is joyful over the receipt of a beautiful gold watch chain from a lady friend.

—Turner Scrivener ball, Turner Hall December 31st. For members and their guests (strangers) only. 12-26-3d

—Professor Beck has been presented with a fine gold-headed cane by his Fourth Ward pupils.

—The largest and best selected stock of Clothing ever in this market.
10-21-3m Paschkes & Son.

—The police court for the last week has been unusually heavy, averaging nearly 40 cases per day.

—The Bexinap Rifles have invited the San Antonio Rifles to their ball Wednesday night at the Casino.

—Nine thousand seven hundred "X L N T" sold in 11 days. Try them, and you will say they have no equal.

—A runaway occurred on South Alamo street Saturday night. The team was frightened by the crackers.

—Dunlap Hats, Lyons Umbrellas, and very best makes in Fine Furnishing Goods, at Paschkes & Son. [10-21-3m]

—The bill of lading for the extra school desks for the new public schools has arrived and the goods will be shipped.

—Only 1,000 tickets left in our grand free drawing of 10 fine merchandise. Come early if you want one.
Sim Hart.

—Mr. W. L. Richter is happy over a Christmas present of a beautiful gold watch from his mother-in-law, Mrs. Sobeler.

—The masquerade ball given last night at Peal's Garden was well attended. Nearly all of the dancers were masked.

—Billiard cues were used in a fight between negroes at Zinsmeyer's corner Saturday night. Little damage was done, however.

—David Jones, a colored boy, has been arrested by Officer Bowen, charged with theft of a gold ring from Mr. Jesse Kellogan, a laborer on South Alamo street.

—Mayor Maverick took a breakdown this morning in a buggy on Commerce street, a defective axle causing the accident. No great damage was done.

—Do you smoke? Of course you do, and you want an honest smoke for little money. Hart's "X L N T" brand equal to any 15 cents cigar. For sale only by Sim Hart.

—The only place in this city where you can get the genuine W. L. Dougl s $3 shoe, the best in the world for the money, is at Joe Beckmann's, 221 West Commerce street. 12-22-1m —Fred Warde opens at Turner Hall to-night in "Othello." It is not necessary to say anything concerning this young tragedian's abilities, he is too popular in San Antonio to need anything of the kind.

—Kinahan says not to forget that the Alamo Ice Company's facilities are superb for the purposes of keeping surplus fish and oysters. That's where he keeps his choice and heavy stock at freezing point.

—Great J. Murray, aged 42 years, died Saturday last at Captain Rainey's residence in the Second Ward, from consumption, produced by a pistol shot wound through the lungs 16 years ago. The remains were interred yesterday.

—Four young Englishmen becoming somewhat hilarious last evening, visited Chihuahua and proceeded to paint that portion of the city scarlet. They tore a plank from the sidewalk on Dolorosa street, for which they were interviewed by the Recorder this morning. One pleaded guilty and was fined $5, the balance being dismissed.

—Grand raffle, for the elegant large doll and large toy piano on New Year's eve, at Gregory A. Co.'s Cities Hall. One hundred and sixty chances at 25 cents a chance. The first number drawn wins the doll. The second number drawn wins the piano and stool. 26-1w

—Joe Heilmann, the special police officer who is preventing a fight at the Washington saloon, was everywhere and only rescued from being severely injured by the timely arrival of the police. He had an affidavit made against him by a Mexican whom he struck over the head with a pistol while attempting to protect himself.

A Generous Baker.

Mr. L. Spahn, the baker at No. 228 East Commerce street, distributed something more than 300 large-sized fruit cakes to his customers on Christmas day, a "spalone," to the way, which was very generally admired and duly appreciated by the recipients of Mr. Spahn's generosity.

A Positive Refusal.

The two young men, Ed and Gus Danbury, who were wounded in the fracas at the Bexar Settlement, on Christmas eve, and who were brought here for surgical attention, were on Saturday asked to make affidavits against the men who had wounded them. This they refused to do, declaring they were as capable as the others were.

Concert at Krisch Hall.

The second and last entertainment given by the Austin Concert Troupe, at Krisch Hall on Saturday night, was not so fully attended as on the previous night, but yet there was a good house. The singing and acting were fine, and every one seemed well pleased. An effort will be made to have the Austin boys come down again soon. Why can't the colored people of this city organize a singing club and entertain the public? Their time would not be better employed.

The Northwest Road.

The Kerrville Eye says: "That civil engineer in the Express of Wednesday says there are no miniature Alps to bore through to reach Fredericksburg. Let's charts and preliminary survey records say they are! But perhaps Wentworth's skill as an engineer warrants him in exclaiming as did the great Napoleon when about to invade Italy, one of his generals ventured to remark, 'what about the Alps?' when the great warrior exclaimed: 'There shall be no Alps.' Get your people to take up $6000 of bonds per mile, gentle Wentworth, and there will be no Alps."

—The most popular cigarettes are the Opera Puffs at popular price. 1-7-1y

Careless Driving.

Jack Naylor, a hackman, was before His Honor, the Recorder, this morning, charged with careless driving. He was driving past a wagon and did not see a little boy, who ran directly under his horses, to avoid the wagon. The boy was not badly hurt, and as the lad was an accident, Naylor was dismissed.

Minnie Fined.

Minnie Hurtz, one of the charmers at the Washington dance hall, was arrested and tried before the Recorder this morning on a charge of being drunk and disorderly. She was fined $5. She claims that officer Fernando Garza arrested her because of a remark she made a few evenings before that "she would rather kiss a dog than a greaser."

Didn't Allow Kissing Him.

A row occurred Saturday, between Jane Hord and Fannie Jones, colored women, in which Jane did a great deal of cursing toward Fannie and picked up a rock or piece of wood and was about to annihilate her because the said Fannie had kissed her lover, Jess, and "she didn't 'low no woman to kiss her Jess."

Prize Rolling.

At the prize rolling, which took place at Mission Garden yesterday afternoon, the following gentlemen won prizes:

First prize, fine clock, August Zander.
Second prize, fine clock, William Neumann.
Third prize, oyster, George Icke.
Fourth prize, bronze cigar stand, Henry Gensler.
Fifth prize, cash, Fred Heilmann.
Sixth prize, pocket-book, Charles Gotzell.
Seventh prize, meerschaum cigar and cigarette holder combined, J. Lauschold.
Eighth prize, lowest roll, night glass, Casper Gensler.

That Murderous Mother.

Captain Hughes arrested Mrs. Mary E. Faues, the woman who murdered her children in Austin, as shown in a dispatch to the Light Saturday last. He found her Saturday night in a private boarding house west of the San Pedro, and she was taking things very comfortably and coolly. When arrested Captain Hughes asked her what she had done with her little boy. She stated she had given him to a gentleman in Lampasas for adoption, but she could not tell his name. Her girl, she also stated, she had given away to another family. She appeared to be rational and perfectly sane. She is a tall woman, rather slender, brown hair, fair complexion. She was taken to Austin Saturday night. This is very quick work, and Captain Hughes deserves great praise for his promptness.

Discharged.

New York, December 26.—Acting under instructions from Washington, Constructor Pook to-day discharged 600 men from the Brooklyn Navy Yard. He is understood to have overdrawn his account to the extent of $10,000 and the Government refused to make further advances.
