Want Ad Rhyme Contest

Here is the winner last week:

MISS A. WELSH,
308 Virginia Street, Seattle.

A visitor came to look over the city,
And became a Star convert next day;
There's welcome for all in Star Want Ads' call—
They're the "sunshine" that helps you "make hay."

If you did not win a prize last time, try again this week. Here is the first line:

"In the Spring a Young Man's Fancy"

Now take this line and write three more with it, using this line as the first line, and send in the completed Want Ad Rhyme to the Want Ad Rhyme Contest Manager. You may submit as many rhymes as you please. Write on one side of the paper only. Put your name and address at the top of the page. Your rhyme must be sent to The Star not later than Friday noon, March 12. The prize winners will be announced Saturday.

The Want Ad Rhymes you submit must consist of four lines only, and mention Want Ads.

First prize, $3. Clemmer Theatre tickets will be given to the 25 next best rhymesters.

All tickets will be mailed to the winners.

The Star reserves the right to use any rhyme submitted during or after the contest. Address all answers to the Want Ad Rhyme Contest Manager.
