SEATTLE MEETS THE NORTHWEST

Is Introduced to Vast Outdoor Playground

A little man named Riley delightfully introduced Seattle to the Northwest at Plymouth Congregational church Monday night.

His real monicker is Frank Branch Riley.

All dolled up in a dress suit, with oratory as smooth-flowing as the mighty Columbia, and with humor that revealed Riley's ancestry, he led the church full of Seattle folks romping thru their own dooryard.

BEAUTIES OF SCENES MAKE THEM GASP

With word pictures that thrilled and with stereopticon views, the beauty of which made them gasp, he gave them a close-up of the scenic grandeurs of their own Northwest which most of them had realized only in a vague way existed.

He was giving them his lecture, "The Lure of the Northwest," which he has delivered thruout the East on three tours, and with which he lures Eastern tourists into a Western out-of-doors which they had not known existed.

His gift of oratory, combined with marvelous photography displayed by a master operator, opened the eyes of the Seattle audience to the fact that here in their dooryard are things which wealthy Easterners, ignorant of the West, travel all over Europe seeking, leaving behind them a golden trail of American money.

HERE, THERE AND EVERYWHERE THEY GO

Mt. Rainier, standing out boldly and glistening in the sunshine, and fading to ghostly shape as twilight settled, and the lights twinkled in the city; pure-white Mt. Hood, Mt. Baker and the Canadian peaks came and went on the screen.

Seattle's bold skyline from the bay; Seattle flattened out as seen from high in the air; Tacoma, Portland, Everett, Bellingham, Victoria, Vancouver, Alaska with her sheer mountains and her fiords and bays—here, there and everywhere Riley darted, carrying the crowd breathlessly with him.

He took them on a typical climb up a typical Northwest mountain—or rather a composite Northwest mountain, for the scenes were taken from many of the big peaks—and let them slide down again.

And when it was all over, they still sat, hoping there would be more.

An attempt is being made in Seattle and Portland to raise funds with which to send Riley East again, to again preach the gospel of "See America—and Especially the Northwest—First."

SEATTLE MAN FOUND SHOT

Machinist Apparently Suicide in California

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 25.—Shot thru the heart, the body of a man believed to have been Harry A. Segner, 45, a machinist, formerly of Seattle, was found today on a bench in Exposition park here.

Absence of a revolver led the police to believe he had been murdered. A superficial search of the grass and shrubbery near by failed to reveal the weapon.

There were powder marks on the right hand, however, and the ground showed no evidence that a struggle had taken place.

Papers found in the clothing bore the name of Segner and indicated he came here from Seattle January 20, 1920.

MEETING OF THE BEACON HILL Car Extension club, originally scheduled for Tuesday, January 25, has been postponed one week.

SEATTLE WOMAN HAD SUFFERED 15 YEARS

Mrs. Christy Never Expected to Be Well Again—Tanlac Restored Her to Perfect Health

"I am enjoying good health for the first time in fifteen years, and it's no wonder that I want to be all the time telling others about Tanlac," declared Mrs. W. H. Christy, 2806 Yesler Way, Seattle, recently.

"I had suffered so long, I never expected to be well any more, and I saw little pleasure in life. I had dyspepsia so bad it just seemed that everything I ate caused distress. My appetite was so poor that I wasn't eating enough to keep my weight and strength, and, to tell the truth, I just dreaded to eat. Headaches—oh, my! I just hate to think of the fearful headaches I had, and at times dizzy spells came on me suddenly. My nerves were worn to a frazzle and I had rheumatic pains in my knees and legs. I slept poorly and just felt so weak and weary I didn't know but what I might break down any time.

"But I'm so glad I tried Tanlac. It has been one of the greatest joys of my life, because it has restored my health perfectly. I just feel like a different person and have gained a lot in weight. My friends all tell me I look better than I have in many years. My appetite is splendid and I haven't a pain of any kind. It just seems wonderful what Tanlac has done for me, and no matter how much I praise it, I can never say too much."

Tanlac is sold by the Bartell Drug Stores.—Advertisement.

Want U. W. Professor in Canton College

Proposal to place a University of Washington professor at Canton college for at least a year was indorsed at a meeting of the China advisory committee of the Chamber of Commerce Monday.

It was argued that this would result in great benefit to this city, as a result of the personal contact, and would assist in opening the way for more Chinese students to enter the University of Washington.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Common garden Sage and Sulphur makes streaked, faded or gray hair dark and youthful at once.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and luster to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is mussy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Advertisement.

Oregon Discussing Six-Year President

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 25.—A resolution which was introduced in the Oregon legislature today memorializes congress to submit to the people of the United States a proposition to extend the term of the presidency from four to six years.

The resolution cites the disturbance to business conditions during every presidential campaign, and declares that four years is not a sufficient length of time in which a president may establish and carry out definite lines of policies so as to determine their real value to the country at large.

A Brain Can't Work Right on Thin, Watery Blood

It takes iron to make strong, magnetic, forceful men with the power and energy to win

WITH PLENTY OF IRON AND RICH RED BLOOD YOUR BRAIN is the most wonderful thing in all creation—without this it is nothing. IRON CARRIES OXYGEN from your lungs to your brain. Without iron, your brain gets no oxygen; without plenty of blood and oxygen your brain becomes dull and heavy, YOUR INTELLECT POOR, your memory fails, YOU DO FOOLISH THINGS and make bad decisions.

With a "blood and iron" starved brain you may drive your automobile into a telegraph pole, because YOU DIDN'T THINK RIGHT; it may make you so "flighty" in thought and reckless in judgment that your money seems to take wings and fly away; everything seems to go wrong, to be upside down; you call it "BAD-LUCK" or misfortune. IRON STARVATION may turn the coolest man of the strongest will power into a nervous, irritable, careless being; it may make COWARDS of the bravest and FAILURES of the WISEST.

Many a capable man fails just SHORT OF SUCCESS—NEARLY "GETS THERE" BUT NOT QUITE—simply because he lacks sufficient iron in his blood to give him the physical strength and power to furnish the proper FORCE TO HIS BRAIN and the "STAY THERE" STRENGTH TO HIS "WILL."

THERE ARE 30,000,000,000,000 RED BLOOD CORPUSCLES in your blood and each one must have iron. Don't try to "fool" yourself into thinking you are a man of "red blood and iron" when you have good reason to suspect that you are not—consider the SIZE OF YOUR BANK BALANCE and what success you have had in life. A MAN IS ONLY PART OF A MAN WHEN HIS BLOOD LACKS IRON.

DISASTERS OF A "BLOOD AND IRON" STARVED BRAIN

When your blood is starving for iron no mere tonics nor stimulants can put you right. You must eat the husks of grains and the peels and skins of fruits and vegetables as our forefathers did to enrich your blood and fill it with strength-giving iron or take a little organic iron from time to time to make up for the loss caused by modern methods of living. But be sure that the iron you take is organic iron and not metallic or mineral iron, which people usually take. Metallic iron is iron just as it comes from the action of strong acids on small pieces of iron, and is therefore an entirely different thing from organic iron. Organic iron is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach lentils and apples. It may be had from your druggist, under the name of Nuxated Iron. Nuxated Iron represents organic iron in such highly condensed form that one dose of it is estimated to be approximately equivalent (in organic iron content) to eating one-half quart of spinach, one quart of green vegetables or half a dozen apples. It's like taking extract of beef instead of eating pounds of meat. Nuxated Iron also contains a product representing the principal chemical construction of ACTIVE LIVING NERVE FORCE for feeding the nerves, so that it may therefore be said to be both a BLOOD AND A NERVE FOOD.

Over 4,000,000 people anually are using Nuxated Iron. It will not injure the teeth nor disturb the stomach. A few doses will often commence to enrich your blood, give you new strength and energy and help revitalize your wornout, exhausted nerves, and thereby greatly strengthen your will power and aid in restoring your failing memory. If you are not strong and well you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary Nuxated Iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see how much you have gained. Numbers of nervous, run-down people, who were ailing all the while, have surprisingly increased their strength and endurance in two weeks' time in many instances. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturers if you do not obtain perfectly satisfactory results. Beware of substitutes. Always insist on having genuine organic iron—Nuxated Iron. Look for the letters N. I. on every tablet. At all druggists.
