DEFENSE LEAGUE HAS PUT STOP TO PRO-GERMAN TALK

Report Made by President Nugent Shows the League Had 23 German Sympathizers on Carpet.

"Sedition must be made impotent and disloyalty dumb."

This slogan of the Idaho Defense league of Ada county, now numbering more than 300 members, has been carried out effectively. As the result pro-German talk has ceased in this section of Ada county, according to statements made Friday night at a meeting of the league held in the federal courtroom.

John F. Nugent, president of the league reported that the executive committee had held numerous busy sessions, investigated some 40 cases where disloyal statements had been reported and had 23 men before the committee for examination, all of whom had promised to be good citizens in the future.

The committee found, he stated, that some of these men had been but thoughtless in their statements and when talked to and handled with tact and kindness, had been made to see their error, willingly apologized and promised to direct their remarks in behalf of the government. In most of such cases, he stated, but mild remarks had been made, but which were nevertheless dangerous at a time when the country was at war.

PATRIOTIC ADDRESSES.

Karl Paine, Jess Hawley, Charles M. Kahn and A. C. Hindman all spoke along patriotic lines, expressing the belief that the executive committee had done an efficient work and had been able to accomplish results for the reason that it was backed up by 300 prominent, loyal American citizens who demanded that disloyal statements and pro-German talk stop absolutely in this county.

R. C. Pennington, Dick Donovan and others spoke briefly upon the effectiveness of the organization.

More names were added to the membership roll and a further campaign in the interests of the government war program was outlined and will be carried on by the executive committee.

Prefers Chamberlain's.

"In the course of a conversation with Chamberlain Medicine Co.'s representative today, we had occasion to discuss in a general way, the merits of their different preparations. At his suggestion I take pleasure in expressing my estimation of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I have a family of six children and have used this remedy in my home for years. I consider it the only cough remedy on the market, as I have tried nearly all kinds."—Earl C. Ross, Publisher Hamilton County Republican-News, Syracuse, Kan.—Adv. T-Th & S

AMALGAMATION OF LEAGUES PROPOSED

New York, Jan. 12.—The proposal to amalgamate certain cities of the International league and the American association was directly responsible for Ed Barrow's retirement as president of the international, according to reports here today.

Four clubs, which would have been dropped from the eastern organization —Richmond, Montreal, Baltimore and Rochester—put across a plan to slash Barrow's salary, a direct hint to him to quit and he took it.

EXHIBITION GAMES.

San Francisco, Jan. 12.—Henry Berry, owner of the Seals, announced today that he had completed arrangements with the Chicago Cubs to play exhibition games in San Francisco and Oakland March 27 to 31.

WILLARD SUED BY HIS FORMER TRAINER

Chicago, Jan. 12.—Jess Willard today was defendant in a suit for $25,000 damages, brought by Tex Dowd, former trainer of the champion.

Dowd alleges that while employed in Willard's circus and substituting for an opponent of Steve Savage he received a broken shoulder blade and internal injuries.

FIGHT ENDED QUICKLY.

San Francisco, Jan. 12.—Ko Kruvosky disposed of John Tholmer, the ancient boxer, in the first few seconds of their scheduled four-round bout at Dreamland rink last night. A punch in the stomach did the work. Of the seven fights scheduled, four ended in the first stanza.

ARMY FOOTBALL SCHEDULE.

Westpoint, N. Y., Jan. 12.—The army's football schedule for the 1918 season leaves an open date for a probable game with the navy on Nov. 23. West Virginia, Tufts and Notre Dame are included in the list.

GIANTS CAPTAIN NAMED.

New York, Jan. 12.—Arthur Fletcher, Giant shortstop, will be captain of the team for the 1918 season, it is announced. Fletcher succeeds Charley Herzog, who has been traded to Boston.

Are Your Sewers Clogged?

The bowels are the sewerage system of the body. You can well imagine the result when they are stopped up as is the case in constipation. As a purgative you will find Chamberlain's Tablets excellent. They are mild and gentle in their action. They also improve the digestion.—Adv. T-Th & S

WAS FEELING ALL RUN DOWN.

Symptoms of on-coming kidney trouble deserve prompt attention, for neglect invites serious illness. Louis Buckner, Somerset, Va., writes: I was feeling all run down; tired, with pains in my back. After taking Foley Kidney Pills I felt like a new man." Backache, rheumatic pains, stiff joints, sore muscles, swollen ankles, puffiness under eyes, and sleep-disturbing bladder ailments yield quickly to this time-tried remedy. A boon to middle-aged men and women. Whitehead's Drug Store. Adv-T-TH-S

Screenland by Ogden Lawrence

VIVIAN REED was born in Chicago in 1893 and received her education in public and private schools in that city. After a short career in musical comedy she went to the Coast and joined the Oz Film Company where she was featured as Trade Mark Girl.

She later played in support of Mrs. Leslie Carter in "The Heart of Maryland," and played the lead in "The Last Egyptian."

She is at present a member of the Universal forces and plays the part of "Cora Clayton" in the latest serial, "The Bull's Eye."

Miss Reed is very much at home with horses, she loves them and would rather be galloping across the rough country in which "The Bull's Eye" was filmed than be sitting quietly at home serving tea.

She is forced to do lot of dangerous riding in the new serial. When Eddie Polo sets the pace it is always a furious one. Miss Reed, however, is equal to the task, and when you see the dare-devil riders of the plains sweep down a steep hill, or over broken ground, you will notice that she is never far from Polo's side.

RIVOLI OPENS

On Friday evening, December 28, the eyes of the amusement community centered with keen interest at Broadway and Forty-ninth street, where the Rivoli, the latest and greatest of picture play theatres, opened in all its stately splendor. The building of this superb structure proves beyond need for further discussion that the motion picture, artistically presented in conjunction with a program of high-class music, has become the most popular form of entertainment now being offered to the American public. In other words, the Rivolia marks the triumph of what has come to be known as "the Rothapfel idea," for it goes almost without saying that S. L. Rothapfel, originator of that type of amusement associated with his name, will direct the destinies of the new institution.

To say that the general scheme of decoration is Italian Renaissance, that the dominant colors are dull gold, ivory and black, that the carpet is gray and the seats upholstered in tapestry conveys but an indifferent idea of what the architect and the decorator have accomplished. There always remains to be considered the enchantment which Mr. Rothapfel can weave over the place with his flexible system of illumination in color.

The whole structure is built with an idea of spaciousness. The lobby holds three hundred people comfortably; the foyer is wide enough to give easy access to the orchestra seats; while an extensive promenade on the mezzanine, flanked by capacious lounging, smoking, and retiring rooms; and the auditorium itself will seat approximately 2,500 persons.
