THE excavation for the foundation of Vanderbilt University has been completed, and the stone work is progressing rapidly.

OUR friend, Christian Kropp, is having some work done upon his residence, which will add greatly to its appearance.

WORK on Dr. McReynolds' house is progressing rapidly. It will be a stylish, convenient and comfortable residence.

THE law card of B. D. Johnson, Esq., will be found in our advertising columns to-day. He will attend faithfully to the collection of all claims placed in his hands.

Now that the city is building a culvert in front of the Female Academy, would it not be advisable to arrange the drain opposite Mr. Glenn's, so that vehicles could pass over it without being jostled to pieces?

CLARKSVILLE is one of the best points for manufacturing establishments to be found in this country. We invite men of capital to come and examine the situation and surroundings.

NEW and rich coal fields have been discovered on the lands of G. M. Smartt, thirteen miles east of McMinnville, Tennessee.

THE CHRONICLE AND COURIER-JOURNAL FOR $3 25.

To Old and New Subscribers.

Any subscriber, new or old, who will pay $3 25 in advance, between now and January 1st, 1874, will receive the CHRONICLE and WEEKLY COURIER-JOURNAL for twelve months from date of payment. This arrangement, if made between now and January 1st, will entitle each subscriber to a ticket and an opportunity to secure one of the $5,000 worth of handsome presents the COURIER-JOURNAL proposes to distribute at that time. Send in your names and secure the CHRONICLE, your home paper, and COURIER-JOURNAL for $3 25, also a chance for a handsome present. See COURIER-JOURNAL advertisement in another column.

MRS. MOONEY, owing to circumstances beyond her control, has given up her school, and arrangements have been made for it to be continued under the control of Mrs. B. S. Gunn, a most deserving, competent lady, who has been a teacher for some time in the Female Academy. She will, for the present, teach in a room situated on the premises of Mrs. A. G. Munford. All who wish to continue sending their children, according to contract with Mrs. Mooney, will find Mrs. Gunn, at Mrs. Munford's, ready to do a good part by them. We sincerely hope she may receive a liberal patronage.

Since the above was put in type, Mrs. Gunn has got possession of the school room on her own premises, on Main street, and will open her school there next Monday morning.

WE are reliably informed that the St. Louis and South-Eastern Railroad Company agreed to take clerical and lay delegates to and from the Tennessee Conference for little over one-half fare, by their showing a certificate from the Conference that they had been in attendance. If this be so, and we do not doubt it, then the conductor upon said road treated those who went from this city in a very shabby manner. He refused flatly to extend the courtesy promised, although they showed him the proper certificate. If the conductor was not aware of this order, it does not excuse the officials of the road. One thing is certain, the Company acted badly towards our people, and their littleness in this matter will redound to their injury.

If this Company fails to refund to these gentlemen—not on account of the amount, but the principle involved—we would advise all to go by way of Louisville to St. Louis.

THE Nashville Banner says, "steps are being taken by the officers of the State Teachers' Association, to hold a grand mass meeting of teachers and County Superintendents on the 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th of December. Nothing will be left undone to insure the success of the gathering. The various railroads of the State have already promised half rates to delegates; the usual reduction of fare at the hotels of the city has been secured, and the Masonic Hall has been engaged for the meetings. Dr. Sears, of the Peabody fund, has signified his intention to be present, and will deliver a lecture during one of the nights of the session. A programme is being made up, which will present attractions enough to insure a large attendance. This programme will be published in a few days, and every effort will be made to have such a gathering of educational men as perhaps Tennessee never witnessed before. The State Superintendent, Col. J. M. Fleming, has entered heartily into the work, and will add his influence to induce County Superintendents and teachers throughout the State to attend."

The New York Observer for 1874.

This large and ably edited paper was established over fifty years ago, and still maintains its character for being one of the best newspapers in the land. It furnishes a vast amount of the best reading matter for $3 00 per annum. The proprietors say, "we pledge ourselves to expend upon the New York Observer every dollar that we can profitably use to realize our ideal of the best family newspaper, and, to make it, by its unrivalled foreign and domestic correspondence, a perfect mirror of Evangelical Christendom.

With a view to increasing our circulation we shall be glad to make liberal arrangements with suitable persons to act as agents for us. We will allow a commission amounting to more than all the profits on the first year's subscription.

Clergymen without charge, students and ladies can make this a pleasant and lucrative employment. We promise for next year a paper that will be even more acceptable in the family than anything we have heretofore published. Concentrating all our energies on the New York Observer, we flatter ourselves that those who subscribe for 1874 will get the worth of their money."

THE LARGEST POTATO OF THE SEASON.—The largest sweet potato we have seen this year, was shown us last Saturday, by a colored woman, named Martha Clark, who lives in this city, near the residence of Judge Humphreys. It weighed full ten and a half pounds. She states that her entire crop was well worked and yielded very large potatos. We are glad to make this notice, and hope it may prove an incentive to others of her race to strive to be producers and not idle consumers.

J. F. COUTS & SON have removed their stock of furniture to the Hillman building, on Franklin street, and have added to it the stock lately purchased of Mr. G. W. Hillman. This gives this old, reliable firm, a large and complete stock. Mr. Couts has been in the business for many years, and has built upan enviable reputation. Mr. Poston Couts, his son, has also an established reputation for strict integrity and good business qualifications. See their new advertisement for particulars concerning their stock.

GENTLEMEN can be well supplied at Pitman & Lewis' with comfortable UNDERWEAR, fine DRESS SUITS, substantial BUSINESS SUITS, beautiful OVERCOATS and many other necessary articles for winter use. Cash buyers can do well at this house.

WE return our thanks to our friend McCormac for a beautiful landscape view of the home of Col. T. D. Leonard, and its surroundings. It is a splendid picture, such as this excellent artist always makes. He is now doing some of the finest work to be found in the country, and can furnish any kind of picture desired. He has some specimens of porcelain pictures in his gallery which any artist would be proud of, and will guarantee to furnish all his customers pictures which will give entire satisfaction.

ST. NICHOLAS: Scribner's Illustrated Magazine for Girls and Boys.—The first number of St. Nicholas has just been issued. Pictorially, it is one of the most beautiful magazines in the country, being enriched by designs from the pencils of Miss Hallock, Sol Eytinge, Miss Ledyard, Sheppard, Stephens, Bolles, Beard, and others.

The reading matter is varied and bright. There are thirty-three articles, some for the very little ones, some for the oldest of young people, and some for every age between, and all from the pens of gifted authors.

Subscription, $3.00 per year. Address Scribner & Co., 654 Broadway, New York.

AN OLD MULE GONE.—Died on the 28th ult., "Old Suke," a mule aged 33 years, owned by Mr. C. D. Roberts. She was bought by Mr. Roberts' father when she was two years old, at Dr. Josiah Neblett's sale, in 1842. Suke has been a faithful mule, doing good work until within the last two or three years, during which she has been allowed to rest, and has now gone where the good mules go.

SOME of our subscribers at Guthrie City, Ky., write us word that they do not receive their paper regularly. We mail the CHRONICLE every Friday evening, and our accommodating Express Agent, Mr. Poppe, sends it out promptly. We hope the postmaster at Guthrie will look into this matter for us, and see to it that our paper is given out to the persons who are subscribers.

"HEART SEARCHINGS."—This poem in answer to "Lovest Thou Me," is from the pen of Dr. L. L. Lurton, of this city. A vein of Christian feeling runs through the entire piece, and after a close search, the author lays all at the feet of Him who searches all hearts. Let all look to our first page for this production, and give it a careful reading.

WE have received a pamphlet, neatly printed by the Tobacco Leaf office, containing rules, regulations and charter of Greenwood Cemetery, also dedication ceremonies and addresses. Those wishing information concerning our new and beautiful cemetery can get a copy by application to D. N. Kennedy, Secretary and Treasurer.

MR. R. B. PENICK, of Kentucky, has taken a position as salesman in the popular dry goods house of Rice, Broaddus & Co. The customers of this house will find this worthy young gentleman at his post at all times, ready to wait upon them in the most courteous manner.

I. O. O. F.—The proceedings of the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F., at Nashville, show that there are now 132 lodges in this State, and that the past year has been one of unprecedented growth and prosperity to the order. Thirteen subordinate lodges were instituted the past year.

MESSRS. Winfield Roach and A. G. Dick, two of our most enterprising citizens, are having a large livery stable erected in Louisville, where they will soon go into business. They are worthy business men, and we wish them great prosperity.

THE Bowling Green Democrat looks decidedly neat with its Sunday suit on, which it recently purchased from Allison, Smith & Johnson, of Cincinnati. It is one of the best papers in Kentucky.

WE publish a report from Tarsus Grange, No. 149. We will take pleasure in publishing the proceedings of the different Granges, in this county, if the Secretaries will furnish the reports.

DISPATCHES report the assassination of Geo. Wolfe, on the 23d ult., near Hopkinsville, Ky. He was shot and killed in bed. A man named Sands, with whom Wolfe had a difficulty, is suspicioned of committing the murder. No arrest has yet been made.

FINE TOBACCO. — Mr. James E. Thompson, of the South side, brought us a specimen of his tobacco crop last week. The sample is a bright wrapper of good length, and shows much care in handling.

THE colored people of Robertson county will hold their first Annual Fair at the grounds of the Robertson County Agricultural and Mechanical Association, at Springfield, beginning Wednesday, Nov. 5, 1873, and continuing four days.

REV. W. M. GREEN, pastor of the M. E. Church, preached his first sermon last Sunday morning. On account of inclement weather, the congregation was small, but all were well pleased with the preacher and sermon.

MONTGOMERY GRANGE will meet at St. Bethlehem Wednesday, November 5th, at ten o'clock A. M., instead of Saturday the 8th, as heretofore published.

FINIS EWING, Secretary.

IN WOOD'S HOUSEHOLD MAGAZINE for November, the table of contents seems spread for a Thanksgiving feast, and gives evidence that no efforts have been spared that could add to its excellence. A new feature of the magazine is the introduction of pictures, and the illustration, "Past, Present and Future," here given, is exceedingly pretty.

Price of magazine, one dollar per year—with the chromo "Yosemite," one dollar and a half. Address
