SOUTH AND NORTH.

We thought that at least the non-political periodicals had done with invidious comparisons between the civilization and social character of the North and South. On the contrary we meet in the Scribner of June an article which with some thin disguise of fairness and friendly feeling discusses Southern outrages in the true spirit of Harper's Weekly two years ago. We extract one paragraph as a sample:

With this we do not quarrel. We expect it. It is the most natural thing in the world that we should have it; but certain events have occurred in the South of late with astounding frequency, which betray a condition of morals and society that makes every true friend of the South and every true American hang his head in shame. Murder after murder is perpetrated in high life with the coolest blood and nobody is arrested for it and nothing is done about it. Now, as we have said, we are perfectly aware that however much of a unit the South may be politically, there are socially two Souths. There is a law-loving and law-abiding South, and there is a South that is neither the one nor the other. We understand perfectly that to a great number of Southern people such a beastly murder as that of Judge Chisholm and his family is horrible. We understand that to these people such notable murders as have taken place all over the South during the last three months are a great shock and a great sorrow. The feeling finds expression in some of their best newspapers, but the trouble is that this South is utterly overawed by the other South, so that no man dares to move for the maintenance of the law and the punishment of crime. Murder is committed, and the murderer shakes his bloody hands at the law everywhere and walks the streets with entire freedom and impunity. Human life is accounted of no sacredness whatever, and law and the executors of law are held in perfect contempt. The judge upon his bench is not safe. Even the lawyer who tries a case that involves any serious personal relations takes his life in his hands when he does so. The most trivial causes seem sufficient to awaken the brutal instincts of men and to induce the extreme of violence. Fighting weapons seem to be in every man's pocket, as if he lived in a state of war, and he does not hesitate to use them on the smallest provocation.

He then goes on to warn the "better South," whose existence he admits of, what will happen if these things are not stopped.

Now we have never uttered a word in palliation of lawlessness in in the South, but have unsparingly condemned it whenever it has occurred. But we protest against such crimes and outrages being quoted against any special section when it is manifest that crime is increasing all over this country and that its prevalence is no more the characteristic of this section than of any other. On the same day on which we read the above article, we lighted upon another in the Louisville Courier-Journal in which two columns of that paper are occupied with a catalogue of a single week's outrages in the enlightened and moral State of Ohio. We can only give the headings of these outrages, some of which are of almost unparallelled atrocity. These are as follows:

"A Peculiarly Horrible Murder," "Ferocious Attack on an Editor," "Seduction and Attempt on the Life of the Seducer by his Victim," "Crim. Con. and Cowhiding," "Confession of a Former Horrible Murder," "Abortive Attempt to Arrest Two Young Murderers," "Riot in Wooster University by Sophomores and Seniors against Juniors and Freshmen, Revolvers and Cudgels Freely Used," "Carrying Concealed Weapons, Serious Wound Resulting," "Murder for Money," "Cutting," "Burglary," "Outrage," "Boy Shooting his Mother with a Shot-gun," "Incendiarism, Four Barns Burned," "Attempt to Burn the Town of Seville, Ohio," "More Barns Burned," "Outrage on an Insane Woman," "Robbery of Laborers," "Fracas with Revolvers," "Incendiarism Again," "Attempt at Rape," "Cowhiding," "More Incendiarism," "Murderous Attack on a Negro with a Sledghammer," "Infanticide," "Seduction in High Life," "Throat-Cutting," "Nose-Biting," "Incest."

In addition to all that, the Sheriffs in County Courts have their hands full with criminals of every class; magistrates discharge knifers unpunished, and gentlemen of the highest standing and large property throng the magistrates' offices to bail murderers.

Now like the writer in Scribner we do not question the existence of a better Ohio which condemns all this, as he makes the same admission on behalf of a better South, but would not that writer be better fulfilling the duties of editing a journal which circulates through the length and breadth of the land if he had tried to enlist men in a co-operative effort for the suppression of crime all over the United States, instead of pointing his censorious finger against one section alone. We will defy him to produce such a week's record throughout the Southern States as has been given in the case of the single State of Ohio.

CONSENT OF THE STATE CREDITORS.

Since the announcement of Gov. Marks that a sufficient number of bondholders had consented to the late compromise bill to justify him in offering that bill to the popular vote, persistent efforts have been made to show that such consent has not been obtained. Of course these efforts are made by men who desire that no settlement may be effected, and they are grounded upon a petulant letter written by Mr. Geddes, a large bondholder, refusing his consent and casting scorn upon the measure.

Our contemporary, the Nashville American, has done himself much credit by industriously and dispassionately inquiring into the matter, and finally disposes of all this croaking by a publication of the facts, which are so conclusive as to call for no argument in their support, either from him or from us. We are grateful to that excellent journal for the work that he has done in so workmanlike a manner, and print his statement exactly as he gives it:

We have examined the acceptances in the hands of the Governor upon which his action was based in ordering the election, and they are of the most satisfactory character. The written acceptances returned to the Governor by the Commissioners, the responses received in answer to the circular they sent out from New York, and the voluntary and unsolicited acceptances made directly to the Governor, aggregate an acceptance of a little less than five millions of dollars, probably more, as some of the parties do not state the amount of bonds held. The Governor has received assurances entirely satisfactory to him that a majority of the bondholders will promptly fund under the law. Among the acceptors are such men as F. D. Tappan, President of the Gallatin National Bank of New York, and President of the New York Clearing-house Association, the latter being the source from which the original sixty cents proposition originated; Charles M. Fry, President of the Bank of New York, one of the oldest and best banking houses in New York; Mr. Fry also presided over the last bondholders' convention in New York, by which the 60 cents proposition was renewed to the present Legislature; Gen. Roger A. Pryor, who came to Tennessee as the representative of the 60 cents proposition; John B. Manning, who represented $2,000,000 in the 60 cents proposition as reported in Gov. Porter's message to the extra session of 1877; Inman, Swann & Co., whose letter to Gov. Porter appears in his second message at the same session of the Legislature, Ex Norton, of Ex Norton & Co., bankers; J. L. McAuley, a large holder of bonds; H. L. Horton & Co., prominent bankers and brokers; Halligarten & Co., one of the most prominent firms among the brokers of New York; P. C. Calhoun, President of the Fourth National Bank of New York, one of the richest banking firms in the United States; W. H. Hays, President of the Bank of the State of New York, another of the celebrated banks of the city; A. Iselin & Co., bankers, who are very large holders of Tennessee bonds; L. D. Ajexander & Co., well known bankers; Amos Young, Pearl & Co., Stout & Thayer, Levy & Borg, prominent bankers and brokers; Stephen Crowell, President Phœnix Insurance Company; John S. Townsend, a large holder of Tennessee bonds of Poughkeepsie, New York; J. Green, Jr., of Wappinger's Falls, New York; John Sherwood, of New York; Henry Randall, of Newburg, New York; C. Langdon, of Elmira, New York; John Dogherty, Newburg, New York; Thomas Johnson, New York; John Jones, Poughkeepsie, New York; Frank Vincent, Tarrytown, New York; S. W. Kirkpatrick, Calleoka, Tenn.; Jacob D. Green, Pennsylvania; J. M. Haynes, Murfreesboro, Tenn.; John Palmer, Lebanon, Tenn; A. W. Crockaway, Cashier Brownsville Savings Bank of Brownsville, Tenn; J. C. M. Rankin, Belle Mina, Ala.; Z. A. Storrs, Connecticut; Col. W. B. Reese, Nashville, Tenn., and Judge Turley, Franklin, Tenn.; Benjamin W. Bedford, Horn Lake, Miss.; J. S. Barrett, Louisville, Ky.; Clay Stacker, Clarksville, Tenn, and others representing New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Massachusetts, Alabama, Connecticut, Tennessee and Mississippi. Acceptances are continually coming to the Governor. There is no room now to doubt that, as Mr. Manning says in his letter to the Governor, the settlement will be acceptable to a large majority of the bondholders.

There is now no doubt of the following three propositions:

That the bill will be subjected to the popular vote.

That it will be carried by an overwhelming majority.

That the people of Tennessee will gladly and faithfully carry out its provisions.

And thus the State will be relieved of the incubus which has so long paralyzed it politically, commercially and industrially.

THE COTTON MARKETS.

A little ripple in the cotton market which threatened to become a tempest has been creating no little stir both in New York and Memphis. It would appear that speculators had been making large contracts at ruling prices which called for delivery last week, and as the time approached the requisite supply failed to become visible in the market. Such a state of things is a grand opportunity for the bulls, who did not fail to use every device for increasing the demand. The counsel of wiser heads to consumers was to buy in small lots as they wanted it and wait the turn of the tide; and this advice was taken for a while, but one after another became alarmed, and soon all of them were in the market for all they could get. The inevitable result was a rapid advance, which last week amounted to five or six cents a pound increase on the prices of a month before. The only serious disaster will probably fall upon those who had contracted for large sales on future delivery, as a much larger supply has become visible to the naked eye than could be discerned by the keenest vision a week or two ago.

Moral—The present is a better time to sell than to buy.

JOHN SHERMAN and Senator Thurman seem to be put forward by their respective parties as candidates for the Governorship of Ohio, Sherman evidently seeking the nomination, Thurman doing his best to avoid it. Of course both gentlemen look at the matter with reference to their chances for nomination by their respective parties as Presidential candidates hereafter. We have no opinion to give as to Mr. Sherman's candidacy, but are satisfied that Mr. Thurman can serve both his party and his country best in the United States Senate.

In Chancery at Clarksville—State of Tennessee.

To the Front and in the Field.

New Goods and Low Prices.

DANIEL & JOHNSON

Have opened in the Mammoth Building, corner of Second and Strawberry streets, Clarksville, Tenn., a

Gen'l Agricultural House,

and can supply all parties who want anything in Machinery and Farming Implement line. We call attention to the

Aultman-Taylor Threshers & Engines,

the greatest grain-saving Thresher in the world, causing the endless apron Threshers to sink into significance. Wherever the engine has been used it gives entire satisfaction. It has ample power, is simple, easily managed (any farmer can run one), and not likely to get out of order. We also handle the

Champion Reapers and Mowers!

Self-Rakers, Droppers, single and combined, and their wide-spread reputation needs no comment. They give satisfaction in every field they enter.

BUGGIES and WAGONS

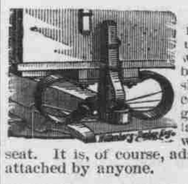
bought by the car load and for cash, which enables us to sell the same cheaper than those who sell on commission. We claim that we have THE BEST WAGON ON WHEELS, and give a written guarantee with each one for one year. We also handle in connection with our Wagons the celebrated

BOLSTER SPRINGS FOR FARM WAGONS.



PULLIAM'S PATENT. The attention of the trade is called to this new and valuable device as an attachment to the common farm and lumber wagons of any size. The springs are made of the best oil tempered steel and warranted. They are simply attached to the bed by four bolts, and of course, go with the bed when it is lifted off the gears. Its obvious advantages are that it saves largely from wear and tear of every part of the wagon, and removes all necessity for a spring seat. It is, of course, adapted to all makes of farm wagons, and can be attached by anyone.

PLOWS! PLOWS!

Avery's Plows, cast and steel. Clarksville Champion Plows, cast and steel. Gate City Plows, Furst & Bradley's Sulky Plows, Walking and Riding Cultivators, Steel Tooth Sulky Hay Rakes, Harrows, Wheelbarrows, Corn Shellers, Farm Bells as cheap as cow's horns, Mill Machinery, Cane Mills and Hay Presses.

SEED OATS and FIELD SEEDS of all kinds, fresh and genuine, always in store. We receive weekly from one to three car loads of CHOICE TIMOTHY HAY, the price of which we have knocked down to bottom figures.

Give us a trial and we will convince you that it is to your interest to trade with us. Respectfully,

DANIEL & JOHNSON.
