SUMMER COMIC OPERA AT THE CRESCENT.

The Southern Amusement Company, incorporated, will present the New Orleans Comic Opera Company, in a twelve weeks' season of light operas at popular prices in the Crescent Theatre, beginning Sunday night, May 3. Two matinees will be given each week, on Saturday and Sunday. The first matinee day being Saturday, May 9.

Manager Robert Lawrence has selected "Wang" for the first offering, believing that opera to be the best vehicle for displaying the full strength of his splendid company of artists.

When asked as to the result of his recent trip to Chicago and New York for the purpose of securing singers, Mr. Lawrence said: "When I left New Orleans in company with Mr. J. P. Simmons, secretary-treasurer of the Southern Amusement Company, I was determined to engage a first-class company, or none. I first visited Chicago, but found nothing that suited me. From there I made a short trip to Rock Island, Ill., to see the work of some people playing there in musical comedy. Again I was disappointed. After returning to Chicago I decided to go to Canton, Ohio, for the same purpose. After witnessing a performance in that city Mr. Simmons and I agreed that none of the performers was good enough for New Orleans.

"We then went to New York to keep engagements I had made with the Grau and Whitmark Booking Agencies. While I had expected to find many good performers available in New York, I must confess that I was astonished at the number of artists seeking engagements. Both booking offices were filled with performers waiting to see me, and I selected my people from about 200 applicants."

Prominent among the principal singers engaged for the coming season are Miss Gladys Caldwell, prima donna soubrette, and Miss Sarah Edwards, contralto, now with the De Wolfe Hopper all-star cast presenting Gilbert and Sullivan operas.

The barytone is Mr. George Poultney, who for five seasons was with the Tivoli Opera Company, of San Francisco, and of the "Madame Sherry" and "Balkan Princess" companies.

Mr. Charles Tingle, who replaced Mr. Carl Haydn in the Aborn Opera Company, will be the tenor. Both as to voice and art this young tenor has received most favorable criticism wherever he has appeared. Mr. Tingle is at present with the "Madcap Duchess" company, which has just completed a run in New York.

Mr. Lawrence has secured two comedians with unusually fine singing voices in Mr. Edwin Beck and Mr. Sol Solomon. Mr. Beck's most important engagements of the past few years were with the New York Hippodrome, Oscar Hammerstein's production of "Naughty Marietta," "Queen of the Moulin Rouge," and the Manhattan Opera Company, of New York.

TRACK MEET AT THE PLAYGROUNDS.

Next Saturday the first track meet will be had at our local playgrounds at 3 o'clock in the evening.

The events for boys will be the 44-inch class, 10-yard dash, 54-inch class potato race, five potatoes; 60-inch class potatoe race, eight potatoes, unlimited. There will be goal throwing ten feet foul line and bar chinning.

For the girls in the 44-inch class 10-yard dash; 54-inch class potatoe race, five potatoes; 60-inch class potatoe race, eight potatoes.

One of the most interesting features of the event will be the taking of the moving pictures of the boys and girls while going through the exercises. These pictures will be shown later, and no doubt will attract quite a good deal of attention. Prizes also will be awarded to all the winners.

NEMO CHANGES HANDS

Mr. Bodenger Leases Theatre to Mr. Philip Foto for Five Years—Will Be Known as Avenue Theatre.

MR. TANSEY TO HAVE CHARGE

Old Market Theatre To Be Demolished—New $25,000.00 Theatre To Be Built.

One day last week the lease of the Nemo Theatre from Mr. Jules Bodenger to Mr. Philip Foto was closed for a five-year term, the lease being for the sum of $3,000.00. This price does not include the physical property which was under the ownership of the Nemo Amusement Company, of which Mr. Bodenger was a stockholder associated with Mr. R. A. Tansey and Mr. E. W. Burgis.

Beginning next Sunday night the present theatre will be operated under its new name, which is to be the Avenue Theatre, and will be one of the five theatres now owned by Mr. Philip Foto, namely: The Cozy, the Napoleon Avenue, the Market and the Majestic. His last addition, namely, the Nemo, which is to be known as the Avenue Theatre, will be under the personal management of the former manager, Mr. R. Tansey, who has been engaged by Mr. Foto to look after his interests at the Avenue.

New Theatre To Be Built.

In speaking to Mr. Foto about the transaction of the purchase of the Nemo, he stated that he had taken a five-year lease on the place and it would be conducted along the same lines as his other four theatres in the city, and that his control of the Nemo here would not effect his former plans of erecting shortly his $25,000.00 theatre. The only change that has been made is that it will not be built on Teche, between Opelousas and Slidell, as was first intended, but the present Market Theatre will be demolished within the next three weeks and on this site will rise the first genuine theatre on this side of the river. It will be built on the lot measuring 64x159 feet, will be entirely fireproof and will have a seating capacity of 1500 people. The intention of Mr. Foto is to run this theatre identically like the Lafayette is being conducted. High-class vaudeville and motion pictures, while the Avenue Theatre on Opelousas avenue will be conducted along the same lines as it is at present. Contractor A. Roupbrich now has the plans and specifications in hand and they will be ready for the beginning of the work within a very short time.

Mr. Foto stated that he has now made arrangement for a vaudeville circuit of his theatres, which is being furnished through the agency of B. S. Brennen. It will be known as the Foto Circuit, and the vaudeville players will be booked from one theatre to the other. The fact that Mr. Foto is able to control his own circuit of players will enable him, of course, to get much better talent on account of being able to give each player from five to eight weeks' work.

We congratulate Mr. Foto on his confidence in the future of the Fifth District, and he and his associates will no doubt be recompensed for their undertaking.

HANCOCK TO STAY.

"Department has no present intention of ordering the Hancock from New Orleans."

The preceding telegram was received Thursday from Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels, in response to the following from the New Orleans Association of Commerce:

"It is reported that United States transport Hancock is ordered to leave New Orleans for repairs at Philadelphia. She is now lying alongside wharf at Naval Station at the immediate entrance of the dry dock, with eighteen thousand tons lifting capacity, and if the report is correct we urge that she be ordered repaired at New Orleans station. Appreciate advice."

BASEBALL AT McDONOGHVILLE PARK.

H. N. G. C., 5—U. S. S. Hancock, 4—Same Teams Clash Again Easter Sunday.

And thereby hangs the tale. The Holy Name Gymnastic Club journeyed to McDonoghville Park last Sunday afternoon with the expectation of a good walloping on their first appearance of the season. But fate and good baseball saved the day, a big surprise being sprung on the soldier boys by their remarkable playing.

The pitching of N. Nolan of the Holy Names, who held the Hancock team hitless and runless for six innings, with the faultless fielding of the Gymnasts' infield proved the features of the game. The boys from the Hancock put up a great game also, a fine exhibition of their gameness being shown by their last inning batting rally, which netted them three runs.

The same teams will cross bats again next Sunday at the same park. The game will be called at 3 p. m. sharp. Both sides will be materially strengthened and another great game is expected.

The uniforms of the H. N. G. C.'s have arrived and will be worn in Sunday's game. Then, their natty appearance will surely gain a lot of followers, especially among the fair sex.

In addition to the main event, the second team of the club, captained by "Ike" Rainey, will tackle a picked team of Algiers ball-tossers, immediately before the Hancock game. Other features of the afternoon will be announced in the daily papers.

All ye fans and fanettes on this side of the river are notified to have your voices in good condition to root loud and long for your favorites, and don't forget—

The time—Easter Sunday, at 3 p. m. sharp.

The place—McDonoghville Park (McDonoghville and Gretna cars take you there).

The game—U. S. S. Hancock vs. H. N. G. C. Nine innings.

The score of Sunday's game by innings:

H. N. G. C	0	0	0	1	2	1	0	1	0—5
Hancock	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	3—4

AT BELLEVILLE.

A pleasant field lesson in geography was enjoyed April 30 by the Eighth Grade. Miss Averill, assisted by Miss Duvic and Miss Rees. It is hoped to carry out the suggestion made by Mr. Behrman—that New Orleans children should know New Orleans and be able to speak of its many interesting points as well as the many advantages it offers for trade, domestic and foreign, and for residences.

April 1st many pupils of the Fifth and Sixth Grades accepted Mr. Gill's invitation to visit the main library during the "Story Hour," which marks the first Wednesday of each month. The children were escorted by Miss Shook, Miss Averill, Miss Seiler, Miss Stenhouse, who enjoyed the beautiful stories told by Miss Gertrude Byron and Miss Eleanor Payne, as did the children.

The children are practicing every Tuesday and Wednesday for May pole dance for May Day at the Tulane Stadium. Should any of the patrons and friends of the school care to donate cakes, candy, lemons, sugar, etc., to any of the booths for the festival the Belleville folks would be glad to forward them, acknowledging them not only by thanks but also by this column.

The monthly chapter meetings of the Junior Civic League were held in the several classrooms. Reports of these meetings were made at the following morning's exercises.

The Holy Carpet of Turkey.

The holy carpet of Turkey is a gorgeous piece of red velvet embroidered with gold. It takes a year to make the carpet, and the sultan of Turkey then intrusts it to the Egyptian pilgrims to place on the tomb of the prophet at Mecca. At the end of that time it is replaced by another carpet and is returned to Cairo with great ceremony. The right to carry the carpet has been handed down from camel to camel in the male line for hundreds of years.—London Globe.

HIGH CLASS STOCK COMPANY COMING TO THE GREENWALL

Stegner and Muehlman, new lessees of the Greenwall Theatre, will give New Orleans Theatregoers an opportunity to see the highest class of stock company production at prices within the reach of all, commencing Saturday matinee, April 11, with David Belasco's successful drama, "The Woman."

Because they believe New Orleans will support a company of players of superior merit Messrs. Stegner and Muehlman have assembled the highest priced stock company ever brought to this city. Eleanor Gordon, the leading woman, has many years of experience both in stock and road companies. Charles Balser, who will play opposite leading roles, is also a player of merit. They will be supported by a strong cast. A. O. Warburg, a stage director direct from New York, will have charge of the productions. "Overnight," a delightful comedy, will be the second week's attraction.

The Herald welcomes Stegner and Muehlman and wishes the new undertaking much success. The residents of the Fifth District will find pleasure in attending the Greenwall Theatre under the new regime.

WHEN LOVE'S ON THE WIRE.

Until a few months ago, the telephone operator in the New York offices of David Belasco was known as "Lillie." One Sunday, without as much as taking Jack, the office boy, into her confidence, she married the head electrician. Now she prefixes her name with the title of "Mrs." and Jack is disconsolate. It wasn't nice of "Lillie," but she is happy, and that is the main thing. Just where this fair bride of a month figures in a Belasco story may not at first be clear, but as a matter of fact, she had an important part in the staging of the new Belasco production of "The Woman," which will be seen here at the Greenwall Theatre next Saturday afternoon.

The part of the telephone girl in the play which scored the season's record for long runs in both New York and Chicago last season is to be acted here by Eleanor Gordon, one of our cleverest young leading women. When she met Lillie in the theatre lobby one day, just after the latter had resigned her position in the Belasco offices, she thought this a good opportunity to acquire some technical information first-hand.

"I presume you used to hear lots of private conversation, didn't you," asked the actress.

"When I worked for the telephone company, I did," replied Mrs. Newlywed.

"Men calling up other men's wives?"

"Oh, lots of them."

"Married men."

"They usually were."

"All married men are that way?" observed Miss Nash.

"I should worry!" said Mrs. Newlywed testily. "I know one who isn't. He'd never do such a thing."

JUVENILE BASEBALL.

Pelican Stars.

The Pelican Stars baseball team will play any team not over sixteen years of age. The line-up is as follows: S. Talbot, p.; E. Lefevre, extra c.; S. Brodtmann, 1 b.; J. Finley, 2 b.; J. Meyers, 3 b.; S. Tranchina, s. s.; C. Bourgeois, r. f.; Laigast, c. f.; J. McCord, l. f.; J. Donner, extra. Send all challenges to 209 Pelican avenue, Algiers. J. Finley, manager.

The Cub Juniors would like to get a game from any team in the city playing at the age of 13 years; the Zu-Zus and the Pacific Stars preferred. To get a game with the Cubs call up Algiers 74, or see J. McCord, manager. The line-up is as follows: E. Lauman, r. f.; D. Salathe, c. f.; James Conrad, l. f.; Roy Niklaus, p.; J. McCord, c.; H. Klink, s. s.; G. Casey, 2 b.; W. Jones, 3 b.; R. Gallinghouse, 1 b.

CARE OF TREES.

On several occasions The Herald has called attention to the care of the few shade trees that have been allotted to us by the Parking Commission. Up to the present time only two streets in our district have received trees. Last spring the elm tree, which loses its foliage at the end of every season was planted on Teche street, while this year we were fortunate enough to secure ligustrums for Pelican avenue, and while we are very thankful for what we have received from the commission, we are not getting the number of trees for our district in comparison with the number that are being planted in other districts of the city.

Mr. Mathewes, the commissioner for this district, states that in order for any special street to get trees, a requisition must be made for them either by a committee or a commission from that street which will be acted upon by the commission after the application has been filed.

Beautifying a town does not end with the planting of the trees, but it is the care of these trees that requires the greatest amount of attention. Two principal things should be adopted to make Pelican avenue one of the most beautiful streets, and they are: The trees should be boxed and they should be watered regularly. On account of ligustrums being a rapidly growing tree, Pelican avenue will have quite a different appearance this summer, and there will be a big change during the next year. We will see our great mistake in not having planted trees earlier, when later on we will notice the beauty of the foliage and the comfort that is afforded during the hot summer days. If every property holder will take care of the trees in front of his or her place they will be rewarded many times.

OF THE IWANTA REALTY COMPANY.

United States of America, State of Louisiana, Parish of Orleans.

Be it known, That on this thirty-first day of the month of March, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen (1914) before me, James Boyd Grinage, a notary public, duly commissioned and qualified in and for the parish of Orleans, and in the presence of the witnesses hereinafter named and undersigned, personally came and appeared, the persons whose names are hereunto subscribed, who declared, that availing themselves of the provisions of the laws of this State relative to the organization of corporations and particularly of Act No. 78 of the General Assembly of this State for the year 1904, they have covenanted and agreed and by these presents do covenant and agree and bind themselves as well as such other persons as may hereafter become associated with them, to form and constitute a corporation and body politic in law for the objects and purposes and under the stipulations and agreements following, which they adopt as their charter.

Ten days prior notice of each election shall be given in writing to all stockholders. Each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for every share of stock owned by him either in person or by proxy and a majority of votes shall elect; a failure to elect directors on the day fixed shall not dissolve the corporation but the directors then in office shall continue to act and another election shall be called as soon as practicable after ten days' notice in writing to each stockholder. Vacancies occurring on the board of directors shall be filled by the remaining directors and two directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary-treasurer, and it shall appoint such other officers, clerks, agents and employees as it may deem necessary and proper and dismiss the same at its pleasure.

Article VII. This corporation shall be authorized to commence business at once. Whenever this corporation is dissolved either by liquidation or from any cause its affairs shall be liquidated by three commissioners to be elected from among the stockholders at a general meeting convened for that purpose after thirty days prior notice in writing to each stockholder and by publication in one of the daily newspapers in New Orleans. The said commissioners shall remain in office until the business and affairs of the corporation shall have been fully liquidated. In case of vacancy in the number of said commissioners the stockholders shall fill the vacancy.

Article VIII. This act of incorporation may be changed, modified or amended or this corporation may be dissolved with the consent of three-fourths of all stock, present or represented by proxy at a general meeting of the stockholders convened for that purpose after thirty days prior notice, to each stockholder in writing and by publication in one of the daily newspapers in New Orleans.

Article IX. No stockholder shall ever be held liable or responsible for contracts of this corporation or for the faults thereof in any further sum than the unpaid balance due on shares of stock subscribed for by him, nor shall any mere informality in organizing have the effect of rendering this charter null or of exposing a stockholder to any liability beyond said unpaid balance due on stock.

Article X. CHARTER

OF NEW YORK-LOUISIANA FARMS COMPANY.

United States of America, State of Louisiana, Parish of Orleans, City of New Orleans.

Be it known, that on this twenty-fifth day of the month of March, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, before me, John Marshall Quintero, a notary public, duly commissioned and qualified, in and for this city and the parish of Orleans, therein residing, and in the presence of the witnesses hereinafter named and undersigned, personally came and appeared the several persons whose names are hereunto subscribed, who severally declared, that, availing themselves of the provisions of Act No. 78 of the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, of the session of 1904, and the laws of this State in such cases made and provided, they do, by these presents, form themselves into a corporation and body politic in law for the objects and purposes which are hereby declared to be to deal in, acquire, purchase, hold, lease, sell and mortgage, real estate, improved and unimproved, and all manner of land in the State of Louisiana or elsewhere, to develop, improve, as well as to sell, transfer, convey, hypothecate, mortgage and pledge the same, either in bulk or in plot or other subdivision; to plot, lay out in subdivision any of its lands; to erect, build, construct and to contract for the building of dwellings, and to operate, lease, mortgage or sell the same; to deal in mortgage notes, and generally to do a real estate business in all of its details.

All stock of the corporation shall be paid for as called for by the board of directors, and no stock of this corporation shall be disposed of by any of the holders or owners thereof without first offering same to this corporation at its book value, allowing said corporation ten days within which to accept or reject said offer.

All meetings of stockholders or of the board of directors shall require a fifteen days notice, addressed to the last known residence of each director and stockholder, except where the entire directorate or subscribed capital stock is represented at the said meeting, in which event said notice shall be waived.
