Idea of Ancient Origin.

All peoples in all times have seen an intimate connection between the moon and fruitfulness, both animal and vegetable. "Even now," says the New York Medical Journal, "the onions which come to our city market owe their excellence to the farmer's careful conjunction of planting time with the phases of the moon." Such ideas have been so universal that man's unconscious mind still preserves them, though his judgment may scorn them as absurd.

All His Work Wasted.

A musketry instructor in the north of England had spent a patient hour with a squad of recruits, explaining all about a rifle. He had impressed upon them the names of all the parts and their uses, the magazine, the bolt, the stock, the barrel, and so on. Then, flashing round on one recruit, he asked him how many cartridges he had in his rifle. Quick as thought came the reply: "Seven in t' tin can and one up t' spout."

First Eight-Hour Day Demand.

The demand that the day be divided into three equal parts, a part for labor, a part for sleep and a part for recreation, resulted in a big strike in London in 1858. The strikers lost. The next year in far-away Australia workers in Melbourne united to secure the eight-hour day and won. So far as the records go this was the first time the principle had been enforced either by statute or through the efforts of organized workers.

Singing Prevents Consumption.

A well-known tenor who was in danger of losing his voice once took on a job in one of the petroleum refining rooms as an ordinary employee, with the result that he was soon able to resume his work on the concert platform. Which reminds us that singing is excellent for consumption. Sometimes it assists as a cure, but it is nearly always effective as a preventive.

Free Medical Advice.

"Don't keep your hands in your pockets," says Dr. C. E. Page of Boston. "Keep swinging them as you walk. This is necessary to obtain needed and essential exercise when walking. Don't simply walk on your hind legs, but keep all four in some sort of motion as nature intended you should do."

CHARTER

OF PLAQUEMINE SUGAR COMPANY, INC.

Article III.—The domicile of this corporation shall be in the city of New Orleans, Louisiana. Citations of all legal process and other legal notices shall be served upon the president of the corporation, and in his absence on the vice-president.

Article IV.—The capital stock of this corporation is hereby fixed at the sum of eighty thousand dollars ($80,000.00), divided into one hundred (100) shares of the par value of one hundred dollars ($100.00) each. But the corporation shall be a going concern as soon as fifty per cent of the capital has been subscribed and twenty-five per cent of the said capital has been paid in.

The capital stock may be increased to not [illegible] hundred thousand ($250,000.00) dollars, and the increase of the capital stock may be by preferred stock or common stock, or partly one and partly the other and the terms of the preferred stock shall be fixed by the board of directors which may be in existence at the time of the proposed increase in the capital stock.

Article V.—All the powers of this corporation shall be vested in a board of directors composed of not less than five stockholders; and power and authority is hereby vested in the said board of directors to increase the number of directors to any number not exceeding seven (7) and the said board of directors may fill vacancies in their number, however caused by election from among the stockholders.

The said board of directors shall be elected annually on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in the month of July, of each year, except the first board of directors which is provided in this charter.

At the annual meeting held for the election of directors, each share of stock shall be entitled to one vote which may be cast in person or by written proxy.

The failure to hold such meetings shall not terminate the corporation, but the officers then in office shall hold over until their successors are elected and qualified.

The first board of directors shall consist of Charles S. McFarland, 1509 Chestnut St., New Orleans, La.; Wm. T. Hardie, 915 Gravier St., New Orleans, La.; Ernest M. Loeb, 717 Magazine St., New Orleans, La.; Chas. F. Borah, 819 Whitney Central Bldg., New Orleans, La.; Joseph Maumus, Arabi P. O., La.; Alexander P. Perrin, Arabi P. O., La.

Each board of directors shall elect annually from their number a president, vice-president, treasurer and secretary, and it may combine the office of treasurer with that of the president, vice-president or the secretary, and it may elect a secretary who need not be a director or stockholder, but such secretary cannot be treasurer.

The first officers shall be the following: Charles S. McFarland, president; Wm. T. Hardie, vice-president; and Joseph Maumus, secretary and also treasurer, which said officers shall hold their offices until their successors are elected and qualified.

Article VI.—Not less than fifteen (15) days notice shall be given for all regular stockholders' meetings, and not less than five (5) days notice for special meetings. The board of directors shall hold regular and special meetings at such times and upon such notice as it may, which the board may fix. All notices of stockholders' meetings of all kinds shall be by written notice through the post office, addressed to the respective stockholders at the address given to the secretary by each stockholder, or the notice may be delivered by messenger.

Article VII.—This act of incorporation may be changed, altered or amended, or this corporation may be dissolved with the assent of two-thirds of the stock present or represented at a meeting convened for that purpose.

Article VIII.—No stockholder shall ever be held liable or responsible for the contracts or faults of the said corporation in any further sum than the unpaid balance due on the shares of stock owned by him, nor shall any mere informality in organization have the effect of rendering this charter null or of exposing the stockholders to any liability beyond the amount of his unpaid stock.

Article IX.—When ever this corporation is dissolved whether by limitation of time or by the determination of the stockholders, its affairs shall be liquidated under the supervision of two liquidators to be appointed for that purpose at a general meeting of the stockholders convened after ten days' notice. At such meeting to consider the liquidation of the corporation, the result shall be determined by the consent of two-thirds of the stock present or represented at such meeting. In case of the death or inability to act of one of the liquidators, the survivor shall act alone.

Thus done and passed in my office, in the City of New Orleans, on the day, month and year herein first above written in the presence of Gertrude Cowan and May Lorio, competent witnesses, residents of New Orleans, Louisiana, who have hereunto signed their names with said appearers and me, notary, after due reading of the whole.
