There will be about $7000 00 paid into the State Treasurer's office within the next thirty days, proceeds of land sales and taxes collected but not yet transferred. About $6000 00 of 1890 taxes remain to be collected in the parishes of Avoyelles and St. Landry. Land sales amounting to $20,000 00 or $30,000 00 are being negotiated and will probably be consummated within the next sixty days. The levee tax rolls for 1891 are not yet completed, but from the best information obtainable from the various assessors in the District, I estimate the revenue for 1891 from taxation at $40,000 00.

The following levees have been let out since last statement.
