PERSONAL and LOCAL

—Irish potatoes are selling at retail for five cents a gallon, and Santiago chips, French fried, and other delicious dishes made from the potato, are more popular than ever.

—The many friends of Miss Vivian Brown are delighted at her complete recovery, from an illness of several months.

—Miss Louise Bienvenue is visiting relatives and friends in St. Martinville.

—Mrs. W. D. Lewis and children are at Cooper's Wells, where they will spend several weeks.

—Mr. Walter Powers, of the Clarion force, spent last week in New Orleans, where he went to attend the graduating exercises of the McDonough High Schools, where his sister, Miss Ethel Powers, was one of the graduates.

—The cementing of the gutters of the city, which has been going on for some time, is a great improvement as well as a necessary sanitary movement. The council and citizens engaged in this work are deserving of universal commendation.

—Mr. Chas. F. Bailey, former clerk of the Board of Aldermen of Opelousas, but now holding a clerkship in the Legislature, was here greeting old friends Saturday and Sunday.

—The city has been crowded all week, incident upon the meeting of of the police jury and the criminal session of the District Court.

—Hon E. O. Bruner, Representative in the Lower House from Acadia parish, and Senator Homer Barrouse, spent several hours in Opelousas Monday, on their way to Baton Rouge. Mr. Bruner is a candidate for Commissioner of Agriculture, it being understood that the present Commissioner, Hon. Chas Schuler, will not be in the race on account of ill health. Mr. Bruner is a life-long resident of Acadia, and a citizen highly esteemed and he will doubtless be "heard from" in the race for this important office.

—"Thiugs are dry (I mean weatherwise, of course) in our section of the parish," remarked ex-Police Juror Evariste Vidrine, who was here attending court Wednesday. Mr. Vidrine lives in Mamou, in the rice section of St. Landry. Rice needs water, and unless they get a rain in the next week or so, there might be considerable damage done to that crop there. The drought has not yet reached a serious stage.

—The family of Dr. Estorge, of New Iberia, came to Opelousas Sunday last, in the Doctor's automobile.

—Lawrence Pitre has gone to Hot Springs, Ark.

—Mr. H. D. Larcade, Jr., assistant cashier of the St. Landry State Bank, left this week for New York, on his annual vacation. The efficient young banker generally enjoys himself on these trips.

—Miss Alma Joseph, of Woodville, is here, the guest of Miss Elise Roos.

—Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Roos, and family, have gone to spend the summer at Belle Cheney Springs.

—Mr. W. H. Stakelum, of New Iberia, was here this week in the interest of the Sunset Route.

—Mr. Jos. Frielander, of St. Landry station, was a business visitor here this week.

—Mr. Ed. T. Miller, of Macland, spent several hours in St. Landry's capital this week, on business.

—Mr. Earl Heilbron, of Birmingham, Ala., was a visitor in Opelousas this week, the guest of the Jacobs family.

—Mr. L. B. Van Voorhies, erstwhile a valued employe of the Clarion, but who is now connected with a job printing plant in New Orleans, was here last Sunday, visiting relatives and friends.

—Mr. C. Brand has returned from Cooper's Wells, Miss., looking much improved in health.

—Hon. Robert Roberts, one of the leading members of the Legislature, and one of North Louisiana's prominent men, spent several hours in Opelousas last Friday, on his way to Crowley to attend Flag Day.

—Mr. O. E. Guillory, of Ville Platte, mentioned as a candidate for Clerk of Court of Evangeline, was in Opelousas Tuesday.

—Hon. Wm. Clark, member of the Legislature from this parish, was an Opelousas visitor Friday last, on his way home. "Uncle Billy," as he is popularily known in Baton Rouge as well as on his native heath, numbers friends by the score in the old and the new parish, and among the Representatives in both Houses of the Legislature. He bought a new pipe while here, which fact will doubtless prove a source of satisfaction to those sitting around him in the House. He is an announced candidate for Sheriff of Evangeline—and they say he's "running some."

—It has been suggested that the courthouse be treated to a coat of fresh paint, which is not a bad idea by any means.

—Mrs. Mason McBride and son Raymond are visitors to relatives and friends in Alexandria.

—Mrs. R. E. Bodemuller and neice, Miss Rita Desmarais, left for New Orleans Wednesday, where they will spend several weeks visiting relatives and friends.

—Mrs. L. S. Hyner, of Angola, is here on a visit to her parents and friends.

—Prof. Lewis, of Moreauville, is here for a few days, the guest of Mr. W. A. Sandoz's home.

—Mrs. Mary Mayer and Mrs. J. W. Jordon, left for New Orleans Wednesday, where they will join Mrs. Annie Todd and daughter, who are going to Arkansas to spend the summer. Mrs. Mayer and Mrs. Jordon will go with them to Arkansas for a few weeks.

—Messrs. James P. Cordill, Geo. Henry Clinton, —— Williamson and Wm. Polk, were here Saturday night and Sunday, the guests of Speaker of the House H. Garland Dupre at the palatial residence of Mr. Dupre's mother.

—Dr. C. J. Edwards, coroner of Vermilion parish and editor of the Abbeville Meridional, stopped over in Opelousas Wednesday on his way to Baton Rouge. Dr. Edwards was formerly State Senator from the Vermilion-St. Mary district.

—Mrs, John Powell left Tuesday for her home in Memphis, Tenn., after a few weeks' visit to her brother, Col. J. W. Jordan, Freight and Passenger Agent of the O. Gee railroad. Mrs. Powell was accompanied by her two most charming and interesting daughters, Misses Grace C. and Rica A., who were so pleased with the country that they promised, if Mama would let them, to return next summer. The visit of Mrs. Powell and daughters was most pleasant to those who were so fortunate as to meet them.

—Mr. A. J. Frejean has returned to his Denver, Colorado, home, after spending a few weeks with his friend, Mr. Josie Sandoz, here and in New Orleans. Mr. Sandoz will return to his studies in New Orleans in a few days.

—Mr. Lefebre Sandoz, who has been attending school at Moreauville the past session, is home to spend his vacation.

—Elias Phillips got his naturalization papers this week. He is a good citizen.

—Miss Lena Marine is in Welsh visiting relatives and friends.

—Mrs. Rosa H. Poulet and daughter are visitors to Rayne.

—J. Raoul Pavy, Esq., has moved his law office into the building formerly occupied by his brother, Judge B. H. Pavy, in the Boagni Building, on Court street—at one time the office occupied by the late lamented Kenneth Baillio.

—Hon. Horace White and son, Frank, of Alexandria, were business visitors to Opelousas Thursday.

—Mrs. Jno. M. Mornhinveg and daughter, Miss Ethel, returned Wednesday from Crowley, where they had been spending several days with relatives and friends.

—Miss Lucille Castille is visiting relatives and friends in Grand Coteau.

Woodmen of the World.

Lone Pine, La., June 20.—Bascom Stewart W. O. W., Camp No. 149, will have an unveiling and decoration July 2nd, when it will unveil the monument of Soveriegn D. W. Bass and decorate the grave of Sovereign Randolph at the Griffin cemetery.

There will be a basket dinner at the hall, as there is delightful shade trees and water convenient. We want every camp that can to attend and assist in the unveiling and decoration and those who are not W. O. W's. to attend and enjoy themselves.

Expressions of Appreciation.

Grand Prairie, June 19.—At a meeting of the patrons of the Grand Prairie High School, resolutions of thanks and appreciation were extended to Prof. and Mrs. P. H. Griffith, who have been teaching the school here for the past four years, and expressing regrets at their departure:

"They took our Creole children under very unfavorable conditions, having to contend with the influences of the home in language and education; they have been father and mother, as well as teachers, to our children, winning by kindness what others could not have gained," say the resolutions. "We regret to see them leave us, and sincerely hope that they will always remember the people of Grand Praire, whose best wishes will follow them forever."

CHARTER OF THE

FRISCO OIL, GAS & MINERAL COMPANY, LIMITED.

State of Louisiana,
Parish of St. Landry.

Be it known, That on this thirteenth day of the month of June, A. D., One Thousand Nine Hundred and Ten (1910), before me, Geo. T. Edwards, a Notary Public, in and for the Parish of St. Landry, State of Louisiana, duly commissioned and qualified, and in the presence of the witnesses hereinafter named and undersigned, personally came and appeared the several persons whose names are hereunto subscribed, who severally declared that, availing themselves of the laws of the State of Louisiana, in such cases made and provided, they have covenanted and agreed and do by these presents covenant, agree and bind themselves, as well as all such persons as may hereafter become associated with them, to form a corporation for the objects and purposes and under the articles and stipulations following, to-wit:

ARTICLE I.

The name of this corporation shall be the Frisco Oil, Gas & Mineral Co., Ltd., and under its corporate name it shall have power and authority to have and enjoy corporate existence and succession for the full term and period of ninety-nine (99) years from and after the date hereof; to contract, sue and be sued; to make and use a corporate seal, and the same to alter and break at pleasnre; to hold, receive, lease, purchase and convey, as well as mortgage and hypothecate property, real, personal and mixed, corporeal and incorporeal; to name and appoint such managers, agents, directors and officers as its business, interest, and convenience may require; and to make and establish, as well as alter and amend, from time to time, such by-laws, rules and regulations for the proper government of the affairs of said corporation as may be necessary and proper.

ARTICLE II.

The domicile of this corporation to be in the city of Opelousas, Parish of St. Landry, State of Louisiana, and all citations or other legal process shall be served upon the President of said corporation, or in the event of his absence, upon the vice-president, and in the absence of both of said officers, upon the secretary of this corporation.

ARTICLE III.

The objects and purposes for which this corporation is established and the nature of the business to be carried on by it is hereby declared to be: To prospect for, locate, acquire by discovery, lease, license, option, purchase, franchise, grant, gift, devise, or otherwise hold, possess, enjoy, develop, mine, work, bore for, operate, and exploit mines, lands, and claims, mining rights, metalliferous lands, and rights.

To locate, purchase, lease or otherwise acquire lands, mines, mineral claims, water rights, and franchises, mill sites, lands and particularly lands containing, or believed to contain gas, petroleum and other oil or mineral springs, or deposits; to carry on the business of searching for, prospecting, preparing, refining, piping, storing, transporting, supplying, buying, selling, manufacturing and distributing gas, petroleum, and other oils, and their products and by-products, and to erect, maintain, and operate refineries, mills works, laboratories, work shops, and dwellings for workmen and others.

To purchase, construct, lease or otherwise acquire, operate, and maintain electric lighting and power plants, buildings, machinery, appliances and equipment appertaining thereto for the use and purposes of its business. To purchase, construct, lease or otherwise acquire, operate and maintain telegraph and telephone lines for the transmission of messages and sound by electricity for the uses and purposes of its own business.

To construct, own and operate pipe lines with appropriate stations and storage tanks for the transportation, distribution and storage of petroleum, or gas, but not as a common carrier; to store petroleum for hire; to charter, or to own, and operate ships, tugs, barges and other vessels for the transportation of petroleum, and to lease or to own and operate wharves and docks for the use of such water transportation; to lease or to own, hold and operate, tanks, tank cars and other works, and proper appliances that may be incidental, or auxiliary to such business; to lease or to own and operate trams, tramways or railways, for the transportation of petroleum, but not as a common carrier.

And generally to hold and exercise all such incidental powers and privileges as relate to the objects and purposes hereinabove set forth.

ARTICLE IV.

The capital stock of this corporation is hereby fixed at the sum of fifty thousand ($50,000.00) dollars, divided into and represented by one thousand shares of the par value of fifty ($50.00) dollars each.

The Board of Directors of this corporation shall have the right to determine when and how much stock shall be issued. The stock shall be evidenced by certificates issued and signed by the president and secretary, and shall be transferable only on the books of the company. No transfer of stock shall be valid and binding against the company unless and until the same shall have been entered on the books of the company.

A list of the original subscribers of the capital stock of this corporation showing the number of shares and the amount by each subscribed is recorded with this act of incorporation, and this corporation shall commence business upon the capital shown to be subscribed in said list.

ARTICLE V.

All the corporate powers of this corporation shall be vested in and exercised by a board of directors to be composed of not less than five (5) nor more than seven (7) stockholders. The said board of directors shall be chosen at the annual meeting of the stockholders of this corporation, which annual meeting shall be held on the first Monday of July of each year, beginning on the Monday of July, 1911. The first board of directors to serve from the date of this charter up to the first election as above fixed shall be composed of the following named stockholders:

Thomas H. Lewis, Sr., John A. Haas, G. H. Cretin, B. Bennett, L. J. Dossmann, J. J. Lewis and Gus. Fuselier.

The officers to serve for the same period shall be the following:

Thomas H. Lewis, Sr., President; G. H. Cretin, vice-president; John A. Haas, Treasurer, who shall hold said offices until their successors shall have been elected and accept office; the board of directors being authorized to provide for a secretary and fix his compensation.

Notice of the annual meeting shall be given by the secretary to each stockholder by written notice, sent by mail addressed to the stockholder at his last place of residence, as shown by the company's books, at least ten (10) days previous to the date of meeting. At all elections of this corporation a majority of the votes cast shall elect; each stockholder shall be entitled to cast, in person, or by proxy, one vote for each share of stock standing in his name on the books of the company, but shall not vote on any share of stock transferred to him within twenty (20) days prior to an election. All directors, both those appointed in this charter, and those hereafter elected, either by the stockholders, or by the board of directors, as hereinafter provided, shall continue in office until their successors shall have been elected and accept offices.

And vacancy occurring among the board of directors, by death, resignation, or otherwise, shall be filled by election for the remainder of the term by the remaining directors.

ARTICLE VI.

The board of directors shall elect from among their number a president and a vice-president. They shall also elect a secretary and treasurer, or one person who shall be both, either of whom may, or may not, be members of the board (or stockholders).

They may, from time to time, name and appoint all such other officers and agents as may be deemed necessary for the purposes and business of the corporation. They also shall have the power to fix and define the duties of every officer and employee, and all officers and employees shall hold office and employment at the pleasure of the board. The board may make and establish, as well as alter and amend any and all by-laws, rules and regulations necessary and proper in its judgment for the conduct, support, and management of the business and affairs of this corporation.

Special meetings of the stockholders may be called at any time by the president, or a majority of the directors, to be held at the office at the company upon giving reasonable notice to each stockholder at his last place of residence, in person or by mail, addressed to the stockholder, as shown by the company's books.

ARTICLE VII.

Whenever this corporation is dissolved, either by limitation or for any other cause, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated and the debts and liabilities paid, and the balance of its funds, if any, shall be divided pro rata among the stockholders under the charge and superintendence of three commissioners, to be appointed for that purpose, at a general meeting of the stockholders, convened after fifteen days prior notice shall have been given in a newspaper published in the City of Opelousas, Louisiana. Said commissioners shall remain in office until the affairs of the corporation shall have been fully liquidated; and in case of the death of one or moro of said commissioners, or other vacancy occurring in their number, those who remain shall continue to act. Such vacancies may be filled at a general meeting held for that purpose after notice, all as hereinabove provided.

ARTICLE VIII.

No stockholder of said corporation shall ever be held liable or responsible for its contracts or faults, in any further sum than the unpaid balance due on the shares of stock owned by him, nor shall any informality in organization have the effect of rendering this charter null, or exposing a stockholder to any liability beyond the amount of his stock.

ARTICLE IX.

The provisions of this charter, or any of them, may be changed, modified, or altered, or said corporation may be dissolved with the assent of two-thirds in amount of the capital stock at a meeting of the stockholders called for such purpose upon reasonable purpose upon reasonable notice given to the stockholders by mail, or after thirty days notice of such meeting by advertisements in a newspaper published in the City of Opelousas, Louisiana, such changes as be made in reference to an increase of its capital stock shall require forty days prior notice by mail to each stockholder in addition to such advertisement.

Thus done and passed at my office, at Opelousas, Louisiana, in the presence of Thos. H. Lewis, Jr. and H. B. Edwards competent witnesses, both of this city, who hereunto sign their names with said parties and me, Notary, on the day and year aforesaid.

Parish of St. Landry.

Having examined the foregoing Act of Incorporation of the Frisco Oil, Gas & Mineral Company, and being of the opinion that the purposes and objects of the corporation, as specified in said Act, are legal, and that none of the provisions therein contained are contrary to law, I approve the same.

Given officially at Opelousas, Louisiana, this 13th day of June, A. D., One Thousand Nine Hundred and Ten (1910).

R. LEE GARLAND,
District Attorney, Sixteenth Judicial District of Louisiana. june18-6t.

Mr. W. P. Fontenot offered the following ordinance and upon being duly read was adopted unanimously, to-wit:

AN ORDINANCE

To repeal the ordinance adopted by this body on October 10th, 1899, taking away certain territory from the Seventh Police Jury Ward of this parish as it then existed and assigning it to the Sixth Police Jury Ward; to restore to the Seventh Police Jury Ward of this parish all territory taken away from it by said ordinance or ortherwise since its boundaries were defined by the ordinance of this body adopted on the 10th day of September, 1896, so as to make the boundary line between the Sixth and Seventh Wards run as hereinafter set forth, and to assign the territory hereinafter described and taken from the Sixth Ward and restored to the Seventh Ward to a Road District, Justice of the Peace Ward, and to voting Precincts.

Section 1. Be it ordained by the Police Jury of the Parish of St. Landry in regular session convened, That the ordinance of this body adopted at its meeting held on October 10th, 1899, changing or attempting to change the boundaries of the Sixth Police Jury Ward so as to embrace in said ward certain territory then belonging to the Seventh Ward, comprising a portion or all of that portion of St. Landry parish which lies South of the Township Line dividing Townships Three (3) and Four (4) South, and to the West by Bayou Nezpique, be and the same is hereby repealed; That all the territory taken away from the Seventh Police Jury Ward and annexed to the Sixth Police Jury Ward by said ordinance or otherwise since the boundaries of said wards were defined by the ordinance of this body adopted on the 10th day of September, 1896, be and the same is hereby restored to said Seventh Police Jury Ward, so as to make the boundary line between said Sixth and Seventh Police Jury Wards begin at a point on the line between the parishes of Calcasieu and St. Landry where it crosses the Township Line between Townships Three (3) and Four (4) South, Range Two (2) West, and extend thence East along said Township Line between Townships Three (3) and Four (4) to its intersection with the Western boundary of the Fifth Police Jury Ward in Tate's Cove;

Section 2. Be it further ordained, etc., That the territory hereby restored to the Seventh Police Jury Ward shall become and is hereby made a part of the Seventh Road District, except that for the remaining part of the year 1910 only it shall be considered as attached to the Sixth Police Jury Ward and Sixth Road District for the purposes of assessment and taxation only; that said territory shall be and is hereby attached to the Sixteenth or Upper Mamou Justice of the Peace Ward; and that all voters residing in that portion of said territory lying in Township Four (4) South, Range One (1) West, and in Township Four (4) South, Range Two (2) West, shall be and are hereby assigned to the Point Grand Louis polling precinct, being Precinct No. Four (4) of the Seventh Police Jury Ward, and all voters residing in that portion of said territory lying in Township Five (5) South, Range Two (2) West shall be and are hereby assigned to the Valcourt Ardoin polling precinct, being Precinct No. Five (5) of the Seventh Police Jury Ward.

Adopted June 7th, 1910.
