Evangeline Theatre

Tuesday, Sept. 19th, 1916

Where are my Children?

Asks the D[illegible] of the d[illegible] Wh[illegible] shoudered a [illegible] This g[illegible] mance beg[illegible] under sixteen [illegible]

[illegible] wife. She shudders and remains silent. Later her name is found in the books [illegible] for criminal operations.

[illegible] only as the fashionable physician of depriving him from the little ones he loved—he [illegible] until his last days.

[illegible] Evangeline Theatre in Morgan City on Tuesday September 19th. The first perfor[illegible] Every man, woman and child should try to see this performance. Children [illegible] unless accompanied by parents.

25c ADMISSION TO EVERYONE

SPEC[illegible] NOTICE

On Tue[illegible] and Friday nights. The Evange[illegible] [illegible]tures the famous Fox and Triangle Pictures. Every Tue[illegible] night a Fox picture; every Friday night a Triangle feature. Of course, on this coming Tuesday, September 19th, the Fox film will give way to the great photoplay, Where Are My Children. On all other Tuesday nights the Fox plays will be shown. Picture how patrons should remember that Fox and Triangle nights are unusally entertaining and make a special effort to see them.

The Law Spoke;

and the fashionable doctor to New York's "400" was consigned to a convict's garb in the state prison. This man who a month before treasured in his breast the family secrets of New York's best families—who hobnobbed with the husband of the woman, who became a weakling in order to evade the responsibilities of motherhood—crumpled under the gaze of the presiding judge.

His retort to the district attorney: "Before sitting in judgement of others, you should investigate the affairs of your own home" brings a new grief to the man who should have been the father of his children.

Tuesday Sept. 19th. Admission To Everyone. 25c.

WHERE ARE MY CHILDREN?

—a current release of the Universal [illegible] on this sal Company, written by Dr. [illegible] of Fran[illegible] and Lucy Ban[illegible] been [illegible] been [illegible] ed by Lois Weber, has for its [illegible] professional [illegible] the subject of [illegible] man [illegible] on the [illegible] dare and Sanger. [illegible] the [illegible] Curious in [illegible] of an willful [illegible] impressively [illegible] proves that [illegible] generations [illegible] appeal pos[illegible] [illegible] ignited souls" [illegible] heart-fis[illegible] dominant, [illegible] Children?" [illegible] the cold and blind in [illegible] and it [illegible] for the better[illegible] the situations are handled most of shallow society and calls with a due sense of delicacy and con[illegible] attention to the cancerous sin that sideration for the sensibilities of the [illegible] undermining the foundation of audience. public welfare.

The story opens with the trial of a fanatic on the subject of birth con[illegible] trol who is found guilty of circulat[illegible] This great masterpiece will open at the Evangeline Theatre on Tuesday, September 19th.

Evangeline Theatre

MORGAN CITY, LOUISIANA

A Classy Programme for the Week

TO-NIGHT!

Monday 18th—No. 14, Two Reels

Peg O' The Ring

Nestor—A Comedy Big Comedy, in One Reel

Harom Scarom Deacon

All bets off; you can put your money on it as a safe bet, that its a good laugh.

Univ. Animated Weekly,

All the latest happenings in motion pictures. Price 10c.

Remember the date for that Wonderful Feature Photo Play

Where Are My Children?

TUESDAY, SEPT. 19. Prices 25c everybody

Wednesday, Sept. 20—Gold Seal Feature, 3 Reels

Onda of The Orient

Laemmle Drama—A good show, 1 reel

A Social Slave

Thursday, Sept. 21—Red Feather Feature, in Five Big Acts

From Broadway To a Throne

A facinating story of a Broadway Boxer who became a King

Evangeline - - Theatre

MORGAN CITY, LA.

Where Are My Children?

Featuring Tyrone Power, Marie Walcamp and others

First Show at 3:30 p. m.

Children under sixteen years will not be admitted unless accompanied by parents.

25c admission

To Everyone