CHARTER

C. S. JACKSON & CO., LTD.

United States of America, States of Louisiana, Parish of Iberia.

Be it known that on this 2nd day of the month of January of the year 1914, before me, Ventress J. Smith, Notary Public, duly commissioned and qualified; in and for the Parish of Iberia, State of Louisiana, personally, came and appeared the persons whose names are hereunto subscribed, who declared that, availing themselves of the provisions of the laws of the State of Louisiana relative to the organization of corporations, they have covenanted and agreed, and do by these presents, covenant, agree bind, form and constitute themselves, as well as such other persons who may hereafter join or become associated with them, into a corporation and body politic in law, for the objects and purposes and under the agreements and stipulations following, to-wit:

ARTICLE I.

The name and style of this corporation shall be C. S. Jackson & Company, Limited, and under that name it shall have and enjoy all the rights and privileges granted by law to corporations; it shall exist for a period of twenty five years from this date, and shall have power to contract, sue and be sued in its corporate name, to make and use a corporate seal, and to alter or amend the same at pleasure, to hold receive, purchase, convey, mortgage, hypothecate or pledge property, both real and personal; to issue bonds, notes and other obligations; to have and employ such managers directors, officers, agents or other employees as the interest and convenience of the corporation may require; to make and establish such by-laws, rules and regulations for the proper management and control of the affairs of said corporation, through its Board of Directors, as may be necessary or expedient.

ARTICLE II.

The domicile of this corporation shall be in the City of New Iberia, Parish of Iberia, State of Louisiana, and all citation and other legal process shall be served upon the President, or, in his absence, on the Vice-President, and in the absence of both on the Secretary-Treasurer of said corporation.

ARTICLE III.

The purpose for which this corporation is established and the nature of the business to be carried on by it are hereby declared and specified to be as follows: To engage in general construction and contract work, and to undertake all contracts germaine or incidental thereto from any individual, person or corporation, or for municipalities, parishes, counties, or from any State or any subdivision thereof.

ARTICLE IV.

The capital stock of this corporation is hereby fixed at the sum of fifty thousand dollars, to be divided into five hundred shares of a par value of one hundred dollars each, which shall be paid for in cash or in exchange for property or rights actually received or purchased by said corporation or for the services rendered to said company.

This corporation shall commence doing business as soon as three thousand dollars of the capital stock have been subscribed for.

ARTICLE V.

All the corporate powers of this corporation and the management and control of its affairs shall be vested in and exercised by a Board of Directors composed of three (3) stockholders, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of its business.

The said Board shall be elected on the first Monday of February of each year, and shall, immediately after their election, elect from among their number a President, a Vice-President and a Secretary-Treasurer. Each stockholder shall be entitled in person, or by proxy, to one vote for every share owned by him, and said election shall be held under such rules and regulations as shall be provided for by the Board of Directors.

The said Board of Directors shall continue in office until the first Monday of February of each year, or until their successors shall have been duly elected and qualified, and any failure to elect shall not be regarded as a forfeiture of this Charter. Any vacancy occurring on said Board shall be filled by the remaining Directors for the unexpired term. The said Board shall have the right to appoint any Clerk or other employee of the corporation as it may deem fit and expedient for the proper management and control of its business.

ARTICLE VI.

This act of incorporation may be changed, modified or altered, or this corporation may be dissolved with the assent of three-fourths of the stock represented, at a general meeting convened for that purpose, and after at least ten days written notice shall have been given through mail addressed to each stockholder at his last known place of residence.

ARTICLE VII.

No stockholder shall ever be held liable or responsible for the contracts, faults or debts of said corporation, nor shall any mere informality in its organization have the effect of rendering this Charter null, or exposing any stockholder to any liability beyond the unpaid balance due on the shares of stock owned by him.

ARTICLE VIII.

In case of dissolution of this corporation by the expiration of this Charter or otherwise, the stockholders shall elect three liquidators who shall have full authority to wind up the affairs of this Company. In the event of the death or disability of any one of said liquidators to act, the remaining liquidators shall appoint a successor.

Until the election to be held in February, 1914, the following named persons shall constitute the first Board of Directors. C. S. Jackson shall be President, H. M. Bone shall be Vice-President, and W. P. Jackson Secretary-Treasurer.

Thus done and passed in my office in the City of New Iberia, Parish of Iberia, State of Louisiana, on the day, month and year first above written, in the presence of Portous R. Burke and Emile Gajan, competent witnesses, who have signed with appearers and me, Notary, after due reading of the whole. (Originaly signed)
