THE ONE PRICE STORE. Main stock special attention to a fine and large stock of Fall and Winter Goods just received, embracing every variety known to be kept in a first class general store. Wonders have been great how I could sell goods at such a sacrifice—hence prognostications pertaining to its future. However, the past has given mutual satisfaction, and shall continue to do so. I shall endeavor to deal with quick, popular prices. Then you will realize the fact how your hard and well made earnings have gone to make up the deficit of those who are overpaid. The goods sold and sold at such a sacrifice—facts that have been haunting you all these many years. It forces the man who pays to pay for the goods he receives. It holds a man up through Summer and takes off his hat in mid Winter. No money—his produce consumed to meet those heavy exactions of that barbarian, credit—the black line across his credit—his family left destitute of the necessities of life. I deal in good goods and good prices, and believe the masses will patronize the house that sells the best goods for the least money.

Among our articles we shall place before you some handmade goods that are positively beyond the whisper of competition or comparison. My prices are fixed and need no complaint for reduction, and it is none of your business. I shall endeavor to sell you in the shortest space of truth the difference between dealing with live and dealing with dead men—between the right and the wrong way. Thus we are fighting against the old rotten system, for money, for money, for reputation, and for the people. I invite an early and repeated visit to our store. We will strive to treat you with all the courtesy that is in our power. We give you 100 ounces to the pound and 36 inches to the yard. Not by favor, but by merit alone, shall we strive to maintain and increase the confidence of all. Respectfully,

J. W. JOHNSON, LEONARDTOWN, MD. May 1, 87.
