The last will and testament of the late Frederick Erb of near Sumner is admitted to probate on the testimony of J. W. Loveless, and L. B. Post as subscribing witnesses. The testator first wills that his funeral be conbucted without unnecessary expense or parade, and that the expense thereof, with all just debts, be fully paid. By the terms of chances 2 and 3 his sons, Fred and Wm. H., are devised and bepueathed the sum of $10 each. All the rest of his goods, chattels, moneys and effects, real and personal, are devised and bequeathed to his beloved wife, Elizabeth J. Erb. The senior Mrs Erb is named in the will as executrix thereof without bond and she is appointed by the couft. The will was made March 17, 1906. J. D. Stoner and Thos. Waugh are the witnesses to make inventory. Mr. Frb was rsported to be 106 years old at the time of his death and was a native of Berne, Switzerland.

The Laclede Blade says: In the probate court at Linneus last Friday Joe H. Preston was adjudged insane and sent to the county infirmary. Through dissipation and old age he had become a physical and mental wreck, and his wife having recently left him and instituted divorce proceedings, he was left with no one to care for him. For more than 35 years Joe Preston has been a fameliar character about Laclede and at one time owned one of the best farms and was counted one of the largest and most successful farmers in that township, but continued family troubles, brought on by dissipation, have reduced him almost to a county charge. F. W. Powers has been appointed guardian and has taken charge of what property there is left.

At a meeting held in the Linneus opera-house Monday afternoon the preliminary plans were made for the sixth annual old settlers re-nnion of Linn county to be held at Linneus this summer. The dates have been fixed for August 2 and 3.
