

Saint Mary's Beacon.

LEONARDTOWN, MD.

THURSDAY Morning, May 31st, 1888.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

Electors at Large

JAMES HODGES, HENRY PAGE

District Electors

1—W. S. ROBERTS, 4—L. G. MOALE,
2—J. G. BENNETT, 5—R. C. COOMBS,
3—W. N. SMITH, 6—H. W. TALBOTT

For Congress—5th District
HON. BARNES COMPTON.

Gen. Phil Sheridan, who for the past few days has been dangerously sick, has somewhat improved and hopes are now entertained for his recovery.

The Mississippi river last week attained a height that has not been equaled since the great flood of 1861. Two hundred and fifty thousand acres of land were submerged and crops, live stock and houses were destroyed, involving a loss estimated at $3,000,000. The flood is now slowly abating.

The Democratic National Convention will meet at St. Louis next Tuesday, June 5th. That Cleveland will be re-nominated is a foregone conclusion and the time of the delegates will be mainly occupied in selecting a candidate for the Vice-Presidency and in agreeing upon a platform.

Ex-Senator Thurman, of Ohio, is being urged as a candidate for Vice-President and he says the Morning Herald should, be an aspirant the Gray boom, and the Black boom, and all other booms might as well clear the track. There is nothing that can stand before the boom that sails under the flag of the red bandanna.

The farmers of the United States are obliged to sell two hundred millions of dollars' worth of their products in foreign countries every year. The articles that are taken in exchange for their products are taxed about ninety millions of dollars per annum by the tariff. What a wonderful blessing, therefore, is the tariff to the farmer!

If the republican protective tariff is such a good thing for the American farmer, why is he to-day the least prosperous of all American citizens? Why is it that in all the older States the farmer is the poorest? Why is it that the American farmer with the best facilities at his command, with all his energy and thrift and sobriety, is fighting a hard and oftentimes losing battle?

The Democratic Congressional Convention for the Fifth District met in Baltimore, May 24th instant. Mr. Fillmore Beall, of Prince George's, was the chairman. Mr. T. Edward Loker was the St. Mary's member of the Committee on Credentials and G. W. L. Buckler was one of the Vice-Presidents. Hon. Barnes Compton was unanimously nominated. Thomas C. Edwards was a member of the committee which notified the nominee of the action of the Convention.

There is much ado about protection of American labor in the shape of protection for its employers. But the high-tariff band sings mightily low when it comes to protecting American labor against imported "pauper" labor. Were such protection afforded, the handle would be on the labor side of the jug. That would be inconvenient for the big-hearted "barons," and would take money out their pockets when they send for shiploads of European workmen to take the places of discharged Americans.

The following gentlemen were nominated for Congress by the Democracy of Maryland on the 24th inst.
1st—CHARLES H. GIBSON, re-nominated.
3d—H. WELLS RISK, re-nominated.
4th—ISIDOR RAYNER, re-nominated.
5th—BARNES COMPTON, re-nominated.
6th—H. KYI DOUGLASS.
Up to the present writing no nomination has been made in the Second District.

The New York Herald, in a recent issue, in discussing some of the questions which are to be an element of weakness or strength to one or the other of the great political parties in the coming Presidential campaign, says in speaking of the tariff:

For ourselves we believe that the policy of protection after a fair trial has not stood the test of time. It is an enticing word, but a fallacious principle. It has a promising sound, but is weak in performance. A bird's-eye view of our great population shows that it is doing us at least one serious injury and that something must be quickly done to abate the evil. It has created a rich class, an aristocratic class, and protected that class in the acquisition of immense and undue wealth; but it has scarcely lifted its hand to protect the poor man.

You can find an illustration anywhere. There are plenty within reach. Take Andrew Carnegie—his name happens to occur to us—as an example. Your tariff has made him many times a millionaire. Do his workmen share in his phenomenal prosperity? Ask them and see what answer you will get. During the last ten years he has made a million a year. Your tariff has enabled him to do it. But his wage earners are no better off. They are not protected. When they want an extra ten cents per day they must strike for it. More than that, when the owner of the works wants to cut down their wages they have to strike to prevent it, and then, after weeks of enforced idleness, are compelled to succumb. Your protection is a sham. It piles up the rich man's plenty, but leaves the fellow in shirt sleeves just where he was, to shift for himself.

That is one of the great problems which this campaign brings to the front. The Republican policy protects a few at the expense of the many. The Democrat says, Now, give us fair play all around.

Who is Your Best Friend?
Your stomach, of course. Why? Because it is out of order you are one of the most miserable creatures living. Give it a fair, honorable chance and see if it is not the best friend you have in the end. Don't smoke in the morning. Don't drink in the morning. If you must smoke and drink wait until your stomach is through with breakfast. You can drink more and smoke more in the evening and it will tell on you less. If you eat fermented and does not digest right—if you are troubled with heartburn, diarrhea, or the head coming up of the food after eating, biliousness, indigestion, or any other trouble of the stomach, you had just use Green's August Flower, as no person can use it without immediate relief.

DIED.
In the 3rd district, on the 28th instant, Mrs. ANN H. TENNISON, aged 72 years. In the 7th district, on the 27th instant, at 4:10 p. m., Mr. GRASON THOMPSON, aged about 57 years. On the same day, at 11 p. m., Mrs. GRASON THOMPSON, aged about 19 years. May they rest in peace.
