NEWS OF THE CITY.

Cairo Lodge No. 237, A. F. and A. M will hold a special communication this (Saturday) evening, June 18th, A. L. 5870. Visitors fraternally invited. By order of the W. M.

C. FORREST, Sec'y.

—A muscular individual, with a fist like a trip-hammer, and carrying a very heavy cargo of lightning firewater, promenaded the upper portion of Commercial avenue, a few nights ago giving frequent expression to a wish that somebody might tread on his coat tails. He declared that he was spoiling for a fight; that he felt wolfish; was half horse and half alligator, and could whip his weight in the fiercest assortment of wild cats that anybody ever heard of. He didn't find anybody willing to accomodate him to a fight while we saw him; but during the night he was more successful. About 10 o'clock next morning he was seen nursing a face that somebody had pounded full of cuts and bruises. It was badly swollen and about the color of liver—very pointedly suggesting the idea that he had attempted to "whip his weight in wild cats," and made a miserable failure.

Drawers and Undershirts, at a sacrifice at P. Neff's, No 79 Ohio Levee.

A new supply of Calf Boots and Gaiters just received at P. Neff's, No. 59 Ohio Levee.

—Among the volumes contributed to the Public School Library, none are so curious and valuable as those donated by Mr. Jno. Q. Harman, viz: Two large volumes, comprising a complete history of the Reformation, printed in the year 1724. On the inside of the cover of each volume Mr. H. has written: From J. Q. Harman to the Cairo Public School Library, on the express condition that they shall not be rebound." It would certainly rob them of much of their value as "relics of antiquity," to deprive them of their present well-worn and old-fashion binding.

—Remember the Rough and Ready hats in white and brown, at John Antrim's. They are nice—they are cool. See them. tf.

A HANDSOME variety of ladies' white goods, all strictly in style, have just been opened at the City Shoe Store, corner of Eighth and Commercial. ct

—There was a round at fisticuffs on Commercial avenue, yesterday afternoon, that created considerable excitement for the time. One of the combattants was a well known citizen, and the other a steamboatman. The fight was fast and furious for about a minute and a half; but by the interference of bystanders was brought to a close before any serious harm was done.

—Five or six of our citizens and citizenesses contemplate an early visit to Crittenden Sulphur Springs. Dr. Arter's family will be among the number.

FLORA GARDEN.

Sunday June 19th, 1870.

The Proprietor of the Flora Garden, which is known as the only popular place of resort in the vicinity of the city, invites all respectable citizens and strangers to visit him and make themselves perfectly at home. The Garden is now wearing its most alluring garb, and nowhere can an hour or two or three hours be spent more agreeably.

A fine string band, under the direction of Prof. Isenberg, will discourse music during the day, and various means for employing the time pleasantly have been provided for all. Cool beer, soda, lemonade, etc. subject to order.

je17-2t F. FISHER, Prop'r.

—The Free Benevolent Sons of America (an organization among our colored citizens) are arranging for "A grand Pleasure—taking Steamboat Excursion and Picnic" on the 4th of July. The grounds selected are five miles below Columbus, Kentucky.

—A certain popular physician of Cairo so changed his appearance by shaving off his whiskers, that, on attempting to enter his house, his dog bit him.

WELVE THOUSAND DOLLARS FOR FIVE

The grand prize in the enterprize set on foot by Mr. P. Rielly is the elegant two-story brick residence he at present occupies. It is one of the finest and most costly buildings in the city. The inside finish is of the finest character. The wood work is grained; the chimneys supplied with fine grates and marble mantles; iron balconies extend across the front of the building; the doors and window caps and sills are of stone, and a stone water-table extends around the entire building. This splendid property and elegant home, with the two valuable lots upon which it stands, will be drawn by one ticket, which somebody will buy for five dollars! The other prizes consist of town-lots, in the same vicinity, valued at, and worth, $500.

The drawing will take place on the first day of August. je18 2t

—Mr. C. C. Davidson, proprietor of the Ballard Tobacco warehouse, returned from St. Louis yesterday. The tobacco he entered there took the second prize, $100 in gold, and afterwards sold at $3 01 per pound.

—Louis Herbert's new restaurant will be opened at 10 o'clock on Monday morning next, with a grand opening free lunch. It is unnecessary to say anything further, than everybody is invited.

AROUND-ABOUT-CAIRO.

PADUCAH ITEMS.

The editor of the Paducah Kentuckian, who has narrowly watched affairs across the river, says "the way Creis will shuck Dan Munn out will be a caution to the nation. We feel like uttering the usual petition of the judge when condemning a criminal, in Munn's behalf, viz: "May the Lord have mercy on his soul."

The Kentuckian expresses the opinion that the people of Massac county are very much divided on the question of voting stock to the Belleville and Southern Illinois railroad. Metropolis and the northwestern part of the county are a unit in its favor but in the eastern and southern portions there is much opposition to it.

The swamps and lagoons in Illinois opposite Paducah furnish the people of that city splendid frog fishing. Parties go over from Paducah almost every day.

The figures furnished by the Paducah tobacco market indicate a decline in prices. At the sales on Thursday plebaid tobacco sold at $14; good leaf at $10; medium $9 75@9 80.

A few days ago the Paducah Herald commended the steamer Idlewild to the patronage of Paducah business men, speaking of her as a Paducah craft and entitled to their support. The editor of the Shawneetown Mercury could see nothing but "rebel sympathy" in the Herald's expressions, and unburdened himself as follows: "Col. Noble, the editor of that paper, has no sympathy in common with the people of the North, and hopes through his insane attack upon a public enterprize, owned and controlled mainly by Northern capital to prejudice those who favored the lost cause against it."

POPE COUNTY ITEMS.

The Golconda Herald says that a good many of the Pope county farmers have commenced harvesting their wheat, and that next week that kind of work will be general, throughout the county.

The oats crop of Pope county promises a splendid harvest. The Herald says that if nothing happens to injure it between this and harvest time the best crop will be cut that has been raised in the county in many years.

Golconda has a cotillion club that holds regular weekly meetings. Somewhat metropolitan, that.

A genuine, old fashioned celebration and barbecue is talked of in Golconda, as a suitable observance of the 94th anniversary. The Herald suggests that speakers from both political parties be chosen to address the people, and that the affair be made a grand and rousing old-time reunion.

A number of the German citizens of Golconda are in attendance on the Great Sangerfest at Cincinnati.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

Sam Hildebrand, the notorious Missouri desperado, visited the town of Clarkton, in Dunklin county, the other day, and purchased a supply of goods etc. The Missouri Democracy says that the notorious Sam is quietly engaged in farming on a slope of Crely's Ridge, a few miles from Oak Bluffs, or "Scatterville," just across the Arkansas border. He claims that he has been lied about and upon more than any man the century has produced. However that may be, there is no disputing the fact that he is now conducting himself in the most orderly and peacable manner.

Of the crops of Dunklin county, which will find market in Cairo, when we build our railroad out that way, the Democracy says:

We hear from all parts of the country the most cheering news in regard to the cotton and corn crops. A larger breadth of both has been planted than ever before. A large scope of prairie has been broken in by new comers.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES OF THE LORETTO ACADEMY.

The commencement exercises of the Loretto Academy will take place on Tuesday the 28th instant. The programme arranged for the occasion is an excellent one, providing for music, vocal and instrumental, essays, and a dramatic entertainment that will prove both interesting and appropriate.

The Sister Superior will issue invitations to the parents of the pupils and friends of the institution, thus guarding against unwelcome presences, and the discomforts of an over-crowded house.

—Tobacco is coming in rapidly for the fair next Wednesday. The market house, where the fair is to be held, is already nearly half full of tobacco.

NOTICE TO TAX-PAYERS OF ALEXANDER COUNTY.

Notice is hereby given that the sale of delinquent lands and town lots in Alexander county, will take place at the court-house, Monday, June 27th, 1870. Those who owe personal tax must pay immediately, as I am required to settle my account forthwith.

L. H. MYERS,
d10t Sheriff Alexander County.

POLICE BUSINESS.

Before F. Bross, P. M.

Business in police circles is reviving. The Summer fights, inaugurated yesterday at the corner of Thirteenth and Washington are being kept up with much spirit and determination.

A Levee business man laid his bunch of fives" against the person of an individual who "sassed him," and the act being construed into a violation of ordinance No. —, the business individual was fined $5 and costs of proceeding.

A Sixth street business man also paid $5 and costs for the privilege of exchanging a few blows with a steamboat man, being urged thereto by constable Arnold.

I. M. Rhene, in a moment of blind passion, hung up his maulies where a man he didn't like would be sure to run against them. Officer Higlin happened around about that time, and asked Mr. Rhene to call on a friend with him. His compliance cost him a ten dollar greenback.

About 10 o'clock a.m., the 'squire's office was visited by a delegation of African females. Maria Harris, a colored "lady," is the lawful wedded wife of one Harry Harris, a "colored gentleman." What business, then, had Mattie King, another colored "lady," to "sugar around" Harry Harris—to allure him from the paths of rectitude and virtue? Clearly, no business at all; and hence Maria Harris told Mattie King exactly what she thought of her. She thought her a —— well, she tongue-lashed her $5 worth; and constable Arnold showed her where she could pay over the money.

Mary Jane Irwine is a notorious vagrant and street-walker. At least that was the estimate placed on her character in the police court this morning. She was fined $15 and costs, and had choice of the alternatives: To serve out the fine and costs in the calaboose, or leave the city within two hours. She chose the latter, and commenced at once the arrangements for her departure. She didn't care, she said, for she was wanted at Paducah, anyhow.

William Stanton demeaned himself in a manner that was regarded highly objectionable by respectable citizens, and was brought to an account for it. He was unable to pay the fine of $15 and costs, that was assessed against him, and was committed, 20 days, to the calaboose.

A warrant is in the hands of the officers for the arrest of one Henry Woods, who gave the biceps flexor cubiti and the supinator radii longus muscles, rather violent exercise yesterday evening, in attempt to spoil a citizen's countenance, Mr. W. having left town, will avoid immediate service

If you want pure wines and liquors, or a nice fragrant cigar, go to the Washington Saloon, corner of Washington avenue, and Fourteenth street. The proprietor, Mr. F. Blankenburg, will treat you well and set out his "best," which can't be surpassed in Cairo. je16d1m

FESTIVAL AND SUPPER.

The ladies of the Methodist Church of this city, beg leave to announce a festival and supper in Phillis' Hall, corner of Levee and Tenth streets, on Wednesday evening the 22nd instant. They extend a cordial invitation to the public, promising to make all who attend, feel that they are welcome.

The supper and festival are for the benefit of the Methodist church of Cairo, and it is hoped that fact as well as the provision being made to gratify both the eye and appetite of patrons, will commend the affair warmly to public favor.

The Cairo Silver Cornet band has been hired for the occasion, and will signalize the affair with first-class music. Admittance free.

For the coolest and most palatable St. Louis larger beer, go to Meyer's saloon, corner of Washington avenue and Twelfth street. je15m

Quickstep, Evansville,	Bon Accord, Metropolis;

The weather is a mixture of shine and shade and a storm seems gathering.

The temperature this forenoon was nearly 80 in ordinary shade.

The river has risen eight inches since last report.

The Mississippi is about stationary at St. Louis and the rivers above reported falling.

The Ohio is again rising slowly at Pittsburg with six feet five inches Water. It is rising at Cincinnati at the rate of nearly five feet per 24 hours, and at Louisville it is rising half an inch per hour, with six feet in the chute and eight feet in the canal. It is also rising at the rate of fifteen inches per day at Evansville.

The Cumberland is nearly at flood hight, there being twenty two feet on Harpeth shoals and still rising.

Business here is moderate.

The Lumsden brought out 142 hhds tobacco for New Orleans; (?) ditto for Louisville, and a few tons sundries for various points.

The Quickstep has a fair trip for reshipment South.

The Continental cleared last night after adding about 200 tons here.

The Robt. E. Lee left New Orleans on Thursday last for Louisville, and if she intends to run through to Cairo without doing her regular way business, she may be expected here Sunday evening between sundown and midnight. If she does her regular way business, she will not be here before Monday afternoon.

The new Natchez and Dexter leave N. O. together this evening, but deny any attempt at racing. We do not well see how they can help it, unless the first 24 hours run show that one or the other is going to be hopelessly beaten. If they attempt any race, the foremost boat may be looked for here on Tuesday evening late.

The Evansville Courier says:

A Good story is told on Capt. Ben. Egan, clerk of the Mollie Ragon, by the lady passengers on that boat on her last trip out the Cumberland. The boat stopped at some way-landing, coming out, where a middle aged woman got on board, and took her place among the ladies in the cabin. Ben., who is ever courteous and clever, and thinking the woman might want to get off at some out-of-the-way place, soon afterward walked back into the ladies cabin, and politely addressing the new comer, said, "Well Madam, where do you want to go to?" The lady turned her vinegar looking countenance upon the polite clerk, not knowing who he was, said in a shrill, piercing voice, "well, that's a purty question for you to ask a strange woman, sir, and I'll just tell you that it's none of your business." Ben dropped his chin to his bosom—the ladies all snickered—Ben left and never asked that passenger any more questions, and the books don't show that she ever did get off, or that she paid any passage. Ben resigned the situation as soon as he reached Evansville

The Belle Memphis is the regular packet for Memphis, and the City of Evansville, for Evansville this evening.

The Idlewild is the regular packet for Evansville to-morrow.

The Thompson Dean leaves for New Orleans to-morrow morning.

The three Paducah packets leave every evening at 4 p.m.
