HONORABLE W. J. CHAMBERS.

The Sentiment of Sumter Her People Knowing Him to be their Choice and Also of Marion Will Give Him Almost a Solid Vote on August 12.

[illegible]

Please allow me a [illegible] space to speak a few well-merited and true statements in your worthy paper in behalf of this people's candidate and leader.

[illegible] I don't [illegible] at all be well, and [illegible] take it like a man and go on, while others backed by corrupt money will raise lots of noise.

What seems to puzzle the voters of Sumter mostly just at this stage of the game, is nothing else than the racket issued of Ocala, Mr. [illegible] Brown. Won't she in rag [illegible] and also to think that he will not [illegible] for a second term after having been so completely [illegible] by the man he helped to build. The people of Sumter was not in a small [illegible] that Mr. Chambers would get two-thirds of our votes [illegible].

Well, I reckon poor C. M. was very much surprised when he found that the letter, W. J. Chambers, polled 184 votes in Sumter against him.

Another thing took in, how can we rely on C. M., for he told our people both in private and public that he wanted Sumter county to give the man who led in Marion county a solid vote, and that whoever led would be the only candidate.

At the Summerville barbecue, just three days before the primary, in their speeches at that place, it was agreed by all three senatorial candidates, that the one who led in Marion county the other two would support. Now, this was Brown's main hold, as he was confident of leading in Marion.

Now he has been to Marion and gone as Tallahassee and come back with threats of spending [illegible] for the Democrats.

Well, Mr. Brown, you can spend three thousand or ten thousand, but as you please about that, but I am not counting on Sumter voting [illegible] this year, you will be [illegible] when Zetzerdell was on the ticket with only 18 votes, for I just [illegible] you wasn't got 12 votes in the county.

You are only making bad matters worse when you attack Chambers, for the people want to know more of it, since you have so publically gone back on your promise of July 12th over at Summerville.

It seems that you have quite a list of pages which you are trying to let down, but as the old saying is, a drowning man will grab at a straw, and so it is with C. M. B. He will get one, maybe.

Messrs. Brown, Blount and Brane, I'll wager, would have a fine time during their own salaries on that campaign as recorded. The State Capitol. No doubt that is why Mr. Brown is working so hard and spending so much money. And no wonder he calls the governor his governor.

A VETERAN OF SUMTER COUNTY.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portions of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Mr. H. P. Bitting, son of Mr. C. L. Bitting of this city, graduated recently in pharmacy at Sherman, Tex., after taking a two year's course and has already secured a position at $85 per month. His examination is said to have been very fine.

Dunnellon.

Dunnellon is becoming [illegible] to become the most flourishing town on the West Coast, with several new phosphate plants in course of construction, and J. E. Cosgwith's big new saw mill right in town, we feel that we are bound to have a great business centre.

There will be a mammoth dry goods and clothing store opened in a few days with Gamble Brothers as managers. We can predict nothing but a grand success for this enterprise, as the managers are men of sterling business qualities.

Mrs. Andrew Johnson and her children, accompanied by her accomplished and attractive sister, Miss Pauline Drew, departed to visit relatives in Clearwater a few days ago.

The family of S. Feinburg has just returned from Savannah, Ga., where they have been visiting relatives. Miss Annie reports a most delightful time and a big stock of new caught beaux.

The hot weather we have been having for the past few weeks, is broken with refreshing showers and fearful thunder storms. Considerable hail fell here last Sunday.

T. F. Byrd, the popular and successful naval stores operator of Lebanon, is on our streets today, and reports things booming out his way.—H. in High Springs Hornet.

Phil Sheridan, while once doing military duty in Texas years ago, said to a friend when asked his opinion of the country: "If I owned Texas and hell, I would rent out Texas and live in hell."

The Texas papers say that even Phil Sheridan would not say that now if he were living, and tell the following story with a great deal of pride:

"A Texas editor dreamed that he had died and, of course, went to heaven and knocked at the golden gate and was promptly admitted. After spending several hours taking in the sights of the city, he suddenly came upon a man in chains. This greatly surprised him, so he inquired of Saint Peter if they had to punish men in heaven. 'Oh,' said the good saint, 'that man is just from Texas; we always have to chain Texans to keep them from going back.'"

Honor to Whom Honor is Due.

The baseball write-ups, that have appeared in this paper during the present season, and which have elicited so much praise for their exactness and familiarity of technical expressions, are the work of Mr. Stephen Jewett, and to him belongs the credit.

We are pleased to announce to our readers that during the remainder of the baseball season Mr. Jewett will delight them with a continuance of these splendid write-ups.

We make the filling of prescriptions our special business and with care, promptness, and with low prices, have built up a good business, we want your trade and will be pleased to have you ask your physician to leave your prescription with us. Tydings & Co.

Ocala's Contribution.

The best player on the nine yesterday was Sanford Jewett of Ocala. Jewett's work at third base was neat and accurate. He brought cheers from the spectators several times. He is a clean, snappy ball player who has helped Gainesville on several occasions and the Oak Halls appreciate his excellent work.—Gainesville News.

This is a pretty compliment and is certainly deserved by Mr. Jewett.
