Dr. W. R. O. Veal, the Nestor of the faculty of physicians of Marion county, was among the visitors to Ocala Monday. The doctor has been a regular practitioner in this county for upwards of forty years, and is still youthful.

Mr. E. G. Simmons, agent of the Seaboard Railway at Rincon, Ga., is among the visitors in the city. He is the guest of Mr. C. E. Foy. Mr. Simmons has never visited Florida before, and is very much impressed with what he has seen here. He made the Ocala Banner office a pleasant call yesterday.

Capt J. B. Johnson of the Dade City Democrat, has been substituted for Mr. Frank Harris of the Ocala Banner for an address on advertising before the Bankers' Association, which meets in St. Petersburg Thursday. Editor Johnston, like so many Georgians, is a born orator, and we know that his address will be most interesting.

Mr. Christian Ax came down from the Meadows Monday for Dr. Smith, took him back with him and returned to Ocala in time for dinner. When it is remembered that the Meadoows is 18 miles away, it will be seen how serviceable the autos are becoming. Their possiibilities are almost limitless and Mr Edison says that they will in time become cheaper than horses.

Mrs Charles R. Rogers of Lexington, Ky., formerly Miss Effie Simms of this city, passed through Ocala Monday afternoon en route to Tampa, to visit her brother, Mr. Claude Simms. She was accompanied by her young son, Master Stewart Rogers. They will visit friends for several weeks at Terra Ceia, and will then come to Ocala to visit Mrs. S. T. Sistrunk.

The little one has been given the beautiful name of Margaret Lord Jewett; Margaret for the only sister of Mrs. Jewett and Lord in compliment to Mr. Jewett's father, Mr. William Lord Jewett.

DEATH OF MRS M. F. PEDRICK

Mrs. M. F. Pedrick died at her home February, 1908. After 85 years of waiting beside the shadowy portals, a sweet voice called through the gloom, "Come. Well done thou good and faithful servant; enter thou into the joys of thy Lord."

She came a fair bride to Brooks county, Georgia, living happily with her husband till he died during the late Confederate war, and now, after years of waiting, she joins her loved ones where "God shall wipe away all ters from their eyes and there shall be no more death; neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain, for the former things are passed away."

She lived in deeds the beautiful lesson of temperance. She weighed 175 pounds, was active and fair as a girl at her death from measles, believing and teaching through her long life that it was through God she owed her regular temperate living. She attended to her pet horse and drove to church until a few days before she went home, crossing at high water, even when the water reached up to the buggy seat, believing His Word. "All things are possible to him that believeth. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever."

She leaves 7 children, 36 grandchildren and 63 great grandchildren, all living. None knew her but to love her, and she was sought for far and near by the sorrowful and sick, all finding comfort in her—spiritual and material

He touched her drooped eyelids—how calm her face did grow—
He only can such rest bestow.
No more sorrow, but angels about her sweep,
For guarding her thus, He giveth His beloved sleep.
Weep not, no more toils, her race is run;
God took her, for her work was done.
We yield in faith our loved ones to His keep.
Rejoicing in sorrow, for He giveth His beloved sleep.

—A GRANDDAUGHTER.

DEATH OF MR. JOHN CLARY

On returning from the fair grounds to Tampa late Saturday afternoon Mr. John Clary, a former citizen of Ocala, was tbrown from a crowded street car. His head struck so violently against the street curbing that his skull was crushed. He was picked up insensible and lingered until Sunday morning, when he died.

The remains were expected to reach Ocala Monday, but on account of a post mortem being held the body could not be shipped until Tuesday.

Mr. Clary was the only son of the late Captain T. J. Clary, a most valiant Confederate veteran, who lived in Ocala many years, and was most highly esteemed and respected.

Mr. Clary had been living in Tampa for several years. Just before his death Mr. Clary was met by Mr. P. V. Leavengood of this paper, and he spoke hopefully of his future, and said that he was enjoying most robust health.

The remains reached here Tuesday and were laiid to rest beside the rrmains of his honored father in the old cemetery.

The announcement of Mr. Clary's death will be received here with profound sorrow by his host of friends.

LOCAL AUTHORESS IS COMPLIMENTED

Mrs. Beatrice Marean, Pensacola's well known authoress, is being highly complimented regarding a selection from her pen which appeared in Sunday's edition of the Journal, entitled, "The Spirit's Answer." The poem is pleasing in construction, vague, unearthly and most attractive in its theme, and one of the best literary efforts which has been made by the brilliant Pensacola woman. The poem in question is also finding much favor throughout the state press.—Pensacola News.

Mrs. Marean's Ocala friends are glad to know that her pen is still kept busy. Whether poetry or prose, her contributions are always pleasing.

Mr. Fred Glover, who works at the Ocala foundry, and who will study to enter the Baptist ministry, delivered a very delightful address at the Baptist church Sunday morbning in the absence of the pastor, Rev. C. C. Carroll. This was Mr. Glover's first effort and he acquitted himself splendidly. His remarks were well thought out and well delivered, and his friends were very proud of him.

THE VALENTINE GERMAN

Monday night Yonge's Hall was the scene of the third cotillion given by the Nine O'clock German Club this winter. The young men intended giving the German on the evening of St. Valentine's Day, but as it was impossible to secure the hall for that evening it was postponed till Monday night when the Valentine idea was prettily carried out in the decorations, favors and figures.

Mr. Emmett E. Robinson and Mr. Harry Palmer led the German, having as their partners Miss Annie Mathews and Miss Pauline Sullivan. For such young leaders they succeeded most admirably and the German was an exceedingly delightful one. The figures were very clever and jolly ones and the dancing was very spirited all during the evening.

A postoffice with comic valentines for each of the dancers was one of the figures, and there were some very attractive and unique favor figures. Miss Sara Davis gracefully presided at the favor table.

Prof. Pike, Mr. Frank Mathews and Prof. Yenst composed the orchestra and those dancing were Messrs. Emmett Robinson, Harry Palmer, Alfred Beck, Robert Mathews, Leon Fishel, John Sullivan, Harvey Clark, Dell Moody, James Taylor, Howard Walters, George Ford, John Pelot, O. B. Howse, Stephen Jewett, E. J. Crook, H. A. Waterman, W. D. Taylor, Misses Annie Mathews, Pauline Sullivan, Madge Simms, Annie Atkinson, Sally Belle Rice, Alice Bullock, Louise Harris, Edna Dozier, Lucile Standley, Grace Hatchell, Leafy Sylvester, Minnie Hendon, Esther Weathers, Hattie Dye, Valeta Potter, Ethel Robinson, Miss Lillian Thagard, Miss Helen Blair of Cincinnati, Ohiio, Miss Christine Richards of Gainesville, Mr. Seegar of Jacksonville, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Rawls, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lloyd, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clark and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Taylor.

There were quite a number of spectators present, who greatly enjoyed watching the merry dancers.

CHURCH FURNITURE DEDICATED

A very pretty feature of the morning services at Grace Episcopal church Sunday morning was the dedication of the beautiful new furniture that has recently been given to the church.

Mrs. J. M. Eagleton, in loving memory of her husband, the late Dr. J. M. Eagleton, has presented the church with a very handsome pulpit, and Miss Margaret Eagleton has given a litany desk in memory of her brother, the late Dr. S. Potts Eagleton. An elegant bishop's chair and credence table, gifts of St. Margaret's Guild have also just been presented to this pretty little church. This furniture was accepted Sunday morning by the rector and the vestry and was dedicated in a beautiful little service by Rector G. H. Harrison.

The new furniture is exceedingly beautiful and is a very noticeable addition to this pretty church.

THE PRESBYTERIAN SOCIAL

One of the most pleasant silver teas that has ever been given by the ladies of the Presbyterian church was that on Monday afternoon when Mrs. Herbert L. Anderson was the hostess. Her pretty apartmnet at the Arms House was a very charming setting for this delightful little tea, and the room was filled the whole afternoon with guests. Assisting Mrs. Anderson were Mrs. Jean Austin, Mrs. F. G. B. Weihe, Mrs. J. K. Dixon, Mrs. R. L. Anderson and Mrs. W. H. Dodge. Grapefruit and orange ambrosia, cake and hot coffee were served, and quite a large silver offering was received.

Dr. Dodge, the much loved pastor of the church, was present, and added a great deal to the pleasure of the afternoon.

Judge John W. Dodge of Jacksonvill was in Ocala visiting his father, Rev. W. H. Dodge. Mr. Dodge was judge of the criminal court at the time U. S. Senator Bryan was prosecuting attorney, and the two are fast personal friends, but Mr. Dodge is supporting Hon. Duncan U. Fletcher for this office and is engaged in doing some missionary work for him. He says that Mr. Fletcher is a fine type of citizen, is painstaking, industrious and conscientious, and is one of the most forceful and beautiful speakers in the state. He says that Florida would honor herself in his elevation, and that his chances of election are most flattering.

Mr. F. M. Harp of Eureka was in Ocala Tuesday and left at night for his home, a distance of twenty-one miles, overland.

TO SUBSCRIBERS

Extracts from section 436 of the postal laws and regulations pertaining to second class mail matter, issued January 1, 1908:

"A reasonable time will be allowed publishers to secure renewals of subscriptions, but unless subscriptions are expressly renewed after the term for which they are paid, within the following periods:

Dailies, within three months.

Weeklies, within twelve months, they shall not be counted in the legitimate list of subscribers, and copies mailed on account thereof shall not be accepted for mailing at the second class postage rate of one cent a pound but may be mailed at the transient second-class postage rate of one cent for each four ounces or fraction thereof, prepaid by stamps affixed."

This is the ruling of the Post Office Department, and of course it will be rigidly enforced. Hence we take this means of notifying subscribers who are in arrears that unless this order is complied with their names must be stricken from our mailing list. We regret the order but are in no wise responsible for it and are compelled to pay obedience to it We earnestly request that subscribers co-operate with us in this matter

Very respectfully,
THE OCALA BANNER.

FOR MEMBER OF THE LEGISLATURE

Than Hon. W. D. Carn perhaps there is not a more popular man in Marion county, and his announcement for an office is almost tantamount to an election. He defeated the most popular man in the county for superintendent of schools, and voluntarily retires from the office after holding it uninterruptedly for twelve years. When it was known that Mr. Carn would become a candidate for the office of representative to the legislature it was freely predicted it would be impossiible for him to muster any opposiition, and it looks that way.

Whether he is one or not, Mr. Carn is like a jewel, in that he is above price.

DEATH OF AN INFANT

Grace, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Luffman, dieid early Saturday morning at the home of her parents at Fort King. The little one was two years of age, a lovely little child and the light of her parents' home.

Mr. and Mrs. Luffman have the sympathy of their many friends in their bereavement.

THE CONFEDEARTE VETERAN

This popular perioidical, representing officially all of the general Confederate organizations, and which is the most extraordinarily commended publication in existence, seeks increased circulation in this section.

Copies will be sent free occasionally to veterans who can't pay, upon request of their friends. Address S. A. Cunningham, Nashville, Tenn.

K. OF P. MEMORIAL SERVICES

Next Sunday there will be conducted at Grace Episcopal church a K. of P. memoriial service, the rector, Rev. Geo. H. Harrison, preaching the funeral oration.

This order is now celebrating its 49th anniversary, and numbers 700,000 members.

Mrs. Clifton Camp, who has spent the winter in Ocala with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Anderson, left on Monday for her home in Roanoke, Va., Mr. Camp having preceded her several days. Mr. and Mrs. Camp have changed their plans and will not go to Europe at present, but will in all probability go later on.

Mrs. Elmer DeCamp and Mrs. Jessie Haycraft have returned home from New York, where they went to purchase a beautiful line of spring and summer millinery for the new store that they will open next door to the H. B Masters store.

Capt. T. H. Johnson went down to Lakeland yesterday to visit his orange groves. Next Friday Mrs. Johnson will go down, accompaniied by her daughter, Miss Clara Johnson, and they will go from Lakeland to Tampa to visit the big fair.

Mrs. S. A. Rawls and children expect to remain in Ocala for a couple of weeks longer. The home that Mr. Rawls recently purchased in Jacksonville is occupied and his family will stay in Ocala until he can obtain possession of his new home.
