REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

Dominated By The Followers Of Roosevelt

Who Name Delegates To The State Convention

By Average Vote Of 62 To 41 For Taft Men

Stillwell Given Indorsement For Common Pleas Judge

Receiving 63 Votes To 39 Cast For Coyner

For the small amount of work the Republican county convention had to do Saturday afternoon, it was a long drawn out affair.

A show-down demonstrated that the Roosevelt element had control of the convention, and selected its list of delegates to the state convention, by an average vote of 62 to 41.

LOT C. STILLWELL
Indorsed by Republicans of Knox Co. for Common Pleas Judge

Another interesting feature was the race between Lot C. Stillwell and George Coyner for the indorsement of Knox county for the nomination for common pleas judge. Stillwell was an easy winner, receiving 63 votes to 39 for Coyner.

The convention had an acredited membership of 115 delegates and 102 were present. One township, Morgan, was not represented.

There was a lining up of the Roosevelt and Taft forces long before the convention met. Slips of paper were in evidence containing lists of names to represent Knox county at the state convention. One list was headed, "Roosevelt Delegates to State Convention." It also contained a list of alternates. The Taft list bore no designation, being simply headed. "For Delegates to Ohio State Republican Convention." Both lists were in the hands of all the delegates long before the proceedings opened.

At 1:30 o'clock Judson Vincent, chairman of the county central committee, called the gathering to order and named W. L. Robinson for temporary chairman and Harry W. Koons for temporary secretary.

Mr. Robinson made a very brief speech in accepting the position and Secretary Koons read the call.

On motion of P. B. Blair the temporary organization was made permanent.

The secretary read a certificate from Clerk Ayers of the board of elections showing the names of the delegates from each precinct as chosen at the primaries.

The secretary called the roll, which showed all precincts represented except Morgan township.

Wm. Aggleton moved that the convention proceed to business as outlined in the call. Carried.

L. A. Culbertson moved that the delegates and alternates to the state convention be chosen by ballot in open convention. Carried.

Alfred Mill and Harry Cassell were appointed tellers by the chairman.

State Delegates

For delegates and alternates to the state convention, L. A. Culbertson presented the Roosevelt names, reading them from the printed list, as follows:

For delegates—F. V. Owen, L. A. Culbertson, Ed. Dever, I. H. Frizzell, C. L. Wright, Z. L. Hibbits, J. L. McKinley.

For alternates—John Devoe, Hill Hammond, W. B. Hancock, Joseph Conroy, O. E. Nixon, Robert L. Cole, Sherman Stecher.

Judson Vincent presented the Taft names, also reading them from a printed slip, as follows:

For delegates—J. B. Waight, Judson Vincent, James R. McElroy, H. C. Gates, Clayton H. Bishop, A. J. Workman, C. K. Dowds.

A list of alternates was not presented.

Chas. C. Iams moved that the list of alternates presented by L. A. Culbertson be elected unanimously. Carried.

The chairman ordered a ballot for the selection of the delegates.

Chas. C. Iams moved that the seven having the highest vote be declared the delegates. Agreed to.

It required a long time to cast the vote and count it. The Roosevelt candidates received an average vote of 62 and the Taft candidates an average of 41, as follows:

Owen 63, Culbertson 63, Dever 62, Frizzell 60, Wright 62, Hibbits 60, McKinley 62, Waight, 42, Vincent 40, McElroy 41, Gates 41, Bishop 41, Workman 41, Dowds 41, T. C. Canning 1.

The first seven were declared elected by the chairman.

Common Pleas Judge

H. G. Gates moved that the delegates to the common pleas judicial convention be chosen in the same manner as the state delegates were chosen.

The motion was opposed by P. B. Blair and Wm. Burgess who insisted on a preferential vote between the two candidates for the indorsement of Knox county. This was agreed to.

Before the balloting commenced, Judge Waight moved the appointment of a committee of three to recommend delegates to the circuit judicial and senatorial conventions. Motion carried and the chair appointed Judge Waight, P. B. Blair and Chas. C. Iams as the committee.

P. B. Blair presented the name of Lot C. Stillwell for indorsement for common pleas judge.

Judge Waight presented Former Judge George Coyner.

The vote resulted in a big clean-up for Stillwell, who received 63. Coyner received 39.

Mr. Stillwell was called for and expressed his gratitude for the indorsement.

On motion the chairman appointed a committee of five, composed of Judge Waight, P. B. Blair, Chas. C. Iams, F. V. Owen and Wm. M. Koons to act in conjunction with Mr. Stillwell in selecting the delegates to the common pleas judicial convention.

The committees appointed to select delegates reported the lists, which were confirmed by the convention, as follows:

And Taken To Licking County By Sheriff Slabaugh

Other Items Of Interest From Temple Of Justice

Owen Dunlap was taken into custody on South Main street Saturday morning by Sheriff Parker on a paternity charge and was placed in the county jail.

Last week the case of Ohio ex rel Edna Pipes vs. Owen Dunlap was called in the court of common pleas. The defendant was not present in the court room and could not be found. The jury thereupon found the defendant guilty as charged. On Monday morning Sheriff Parker received a tip that Dunlap was coming to Mt. Vernon on an early train from the eastern part of the county. Accordingly the sheriff hastened to the train and met Dunlap walking up Main street from the station. He was immediately placed in jail. Dunlap will be arraigned before Judge Wickham at an early date.

Wanted In Newark—

It developed that on Saturday afternoon that the man arrested here for stealing three rings from Tillie Sells, who gave his name as Hall, turned out to be Ambrose Nye, who was wanted in Newark for breaking jail some weeks ago. Nye was confined in the Newark jail on a charge of burglary. The man formerly worked in Mt. Vernon and it is supposed that he came here shortly after the jail delivery in Newark, but was not located until taken in by the police on Saturday. The man gave his name as Hall when arrested, but when searched letters bearing the name of Ambrose Nye were found on his person. Sheriff Slabaugh of Licking county came to Mt. Vernon Saturday night, identified the prisoner and took him back to Newark.

KENYON

Freshmen Can Take Part In All Athletics

An Important Ruling Just Announced

Gambier, O., May 27—Happiness reigns supreme on the "Hill."

The Ohio Athletic Conference composed of representatives from twelve Ohio colleges, in its annual spring meeting at Columbus Friday night, passed a resolution which is destined to have a great effect on the future of Kenyon college. They decided, after a discussion lasting over two hours that Kenyon should be allowed to play freshmen on athletic teams until the attendance of the school should go back to where it was when the playing of freshmen was first prohibited by the conference. This was in the fall of 1906 when the attendance aggregated 148. Since then the number of students has dropped by bounds until the present time when there are only 94 men in college.

The work of putting this resolution through was an arduous task and was strenuously objected to by the Kenyon faculty when it was first launched last fall. The faculty eventually withdrew its objections owing to the pressure of the student body and then the real work began. A student committee consisting of Clan Crawford, football captain, H. D. Bowlus and Manager D. C. Wheaton was appointed by the student assembly to take the matter before the conference. Mr. Crawford, as spokesman of the committee, proposed to the conference that it allow the freshmen of all colleges in Ohio having less than 200 male students to participate in athletics. He outlined the athletic situation in Kenyon and showed convincingly that something had to be done. The committee was questioned by the conference and then retired. After forty-five minutes of deliberation and discussion, the conference passed the above mentioned resolution.

The significant thing about the whole affair is that the conference openly stated that Kenyon was the only Ohio college that it could conscientiously do this for—that Kenyon's reputation for clean athletics was and now is so great that it had enough confidence in the faculty and student body that this new privilege would not be abused and that there would be no playing of "ringers."

This action, coupled with that of the Southern Diocese of Ohio this week whereby a lot of "dead timber" could be eliminated from the Board of Trustees, has filled Kenyon students and alumni with joy and there is every reason to believe that the next few years will see Kenyon thriving as in the olden days.

DEFEAT FOR ATHLETICS

At The Hands Of The Chi-Nameli Team On Sunday Afternoon

The Chi-Nameli of Mansfield defeated the Athletics at Riverside park Sunday afternoon by a score of 7 to 4. The locals could not hit safely at times when hits meant runs while the visitors were especially fortunate in being able to do this. The contest was witnessed by a large crowd of people. The Chi-Nameli were defeated by the Hiawathas one week ago.

WRECK

Occurs On Pennsylvania Railroad At Gambier

Switch Engine Crashes Into A Freight Train

Gambier, O., May 27—A wreck on the Pennsylvania railroad occurred here late Saturday afternoon which resulted in considerable damage and which tied up traffic for several hours. The switch engine from Mt. Vernon with four cars enroute to the Millwood sand plant crashed into the rear end of a freight train on the main track. Engineer Dan Stark of Mt. Vernon was in charge of the switch engine and was going at a good rate of speed. The engineer thought that the freight was on the siding and did not notice that it was on the main track until too late to stop. When it was discovered that the crash was to occur both Engineer Stark and his fireman jumped. Neither was injured.

The caboose of the freight train was crushed almost into kindling wood and was knocked off the track. Several cars in the rear end of the freight train were damaged. The switch engine was somewhat demolished.

Traffic was tied up for several hours as a result of the wreck.

COBURN PLAYERS

To Produce Twelfth Night In College Park, Gambier, Wednesday Night

A well-known dramatic critic has said of The Coburn Players, "One of the strongest attributes of the Coburns is the earnest and conscientious efforts which they put forth at all times. Not a word is spoken but what has a gesture or perhaps a sound to back it up. There is a real dramatic reality in the air at all times."

Practically the same opinion has been expressed from time to time by the best judges of the drama, wherever the Coburn Players appear. The audience is first impressed with the sincerity of their work and then appreciative of the artistry which surrounds outside.

Their productions are a delight to the artistic eye, the costumes and lighting effects being more than usually enhancing.

The Coburn Players will be seen at Gambier in the park of Kenyon College Wednesday evening. Forty-five of the best seats have been put on sale at Armor's. All tickets one dollar. Mt. Vernon patrons may return on the midnight train.

GAMBOL

Of The Lambs Club To Occur This Week

New York, May 27—This is the week of all weeks for the Lambs—not the lambs of the fields or the lambs of Wall Street, but the lambs that gambol along Broadway. When lambs of any color are not for playtime, their antics and capers are referred to as a "gambol." So the Lambs Club, which comprises all the great names in the theatrical profession, actors, dramatists and managers, designates its annual revelries by this characteristic term. And when, once a year, they swing around the country and play several of the largest cities in one gala week, this becomes the Lambs All-Star Gambol. The first performance takes place at the Metropolitan Opera House in this city tonight. The other performances of the week will be given in Washington, Baltimore, Atlantic City, Philadelphia, Newark, Brooklyn, Springfield and Boston.

Among the famous actors, playwrights and managers taking part are David Warfield, Raymond Hitchcock, Jefferson de Angelis, Robert Hilliard, Wilton Lackaye, Robert Edeson, MacKlyn Arbuckle, Montgomery and Stone, Dustin Farnum, William Courtleigh, Eddie Foy, James O'Neil, David Belasco, Charles Klein, George V. Hobart, George M. Cohan and Augustus Thomas. Victor Herbert and his orchestra are going along to furnish the musical portion of the entertainment.

CARRIER

Pigeons Released In This City Sunday Morning

At 7 o'clock Sunday morning nearly 200 carrier pigeons were released on the public square by Mr. Fred Allwardt of the U. S. Express Co. The birds were sent to Mt. Vernon from Washington, D. C., and were the second lot to come from that city within the past few days. The start of the flight was an excellent one, the pigeons circling for a period of about two minutes and then taking a straight course bearing slightly toward the southeast. Their destination was Washington.

HIAWATHAS LOST

To The Newark C. M. A. Team By A Score Of 9 To 6

The Hiawathas lost to the Newark C. M. A. team Sunday afternoon by a score of 9 to 6. The game was a hard one to lose, the locals having outhit their opponents and earning nearly all their runs. Eight of the Newark team's scores came in the first inning when Hoosshuber, pitching for the locals, insisted on giving the ball when the infield could not handle it when they had an opportunity. After this first round the contest was good to look at and was all in favor of the Hiawathas.

BIRTHS

A daughter was born Sunday morning to Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Black of near Howe Station.

Twins, a son and a daughter, were born Sunday morning to Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis, who reside just south of the city.

Mt. Vernon In Fiction

The picture drawn of Mt. Vernon by Vaughan Kester in his new book, The Just and the Unjust, is a compliment to the city, as it is not often a community is the scene of a plot in good fiction whose merits will rank the book as good literature. Mr. Kester's last story is thrilling and interesting and should be read and owned by all our local people.
