DEMOCRATIC MEETINGS.

DEMOCRATIC DISTRICT MEETINGS will be held as follows:

Great Mills, Friday, October 12th, at 2 p. m. Leonardtown, " " " 7 p. m. Chaptin, Saturday, October 13th, 2 p. m. Mechanicsville, " " " 7 p. m.

Hon. BARNES COMPTON, R. C. COMBS and others will deliver addresses. By order, CO. CENTRAL COM.

Very appropriately the republic-monopoly tariff bill, lately introduced by the Senate, heads its free list with acorns. Forgetful of poor men, fellow-feeling makes them wondrously kind to hogs.

If you want a Democratic newspaper, go to headquarters. The trusted paper of the National Administration—the only bona fide Democratic paper printed in New York—is the Star.

"I am a teetotaler now. I used to take 47 drinks a day but now I only take 49." "Yes, and that makes you a teetotaler?" "Just the same as favoring a reduction of taxes from 47 down to 49 per cent. makes a man a Free Trader."

The more taxation the greater the happiness of the people, is the Republican doctrine. Any taxation beyond the needs of honest government is a public evil and should be abolished, is the Democratic. You can take your choice.

When a gentleman stands upon the floor and tells me that this high, this extraordinarily high tariff is for the protection of the laboring man, I tell him that I do not understand how he can possibly substantiate such a theory.—Gen. John A. Logan, April 18, 1870.

When the Moors conquered Spain some centuries ago at the port of Tarifa in that country, they levied blackmail upon passing ships. From thence we get the word "tariff," and it is exceeding appropriate to the boasted American system of protection, as it is nothing else than the levying of blackmail upon all consumers for the benefit of a few producers.—Democrat.

There are about one million of people in this country who are permitted by our laws to tax the other six millions or so for the purpose of enriching themselves, but the six millions are beginning to discover that they are impoverished just to the extent that the million are enriched. When a sufficient number have discovered this truth what will become of protection?

The names of the manufacturers of Glassware, Iron and Woven goods, etc., do not appear among the list of pensioners published on our first page, but if it were not for the tribute paid them, the names that do appear would be fewer and our people better able to contribute to their needs. The new doctrine seems to be however, that "charity should not begin at home," but that one must starve himself at home, but that one must starve himself and family that far away manufacturers may all to their millions and their wives and babies may faintly fare.

HIGH TARIFF REASONING.—In science and philosophy we reason from cause to effect, but high tariff modern politicians reason from effect to cause, thusly: "Effect," ten-story buildings, "Cause," the tariff, because under a low tariff ten-story buildings were unknown. "Effect," silos, Cause, a very high tariff for we never had silos under any other than a very high tariff. "Effect," twenty-five pounds of butter from a single cow in one week, "Cause," the tariff, because we never got so much butter from a single cow in the time named until after the adoption of our present tariff system.

This style of reasoning is now very fashionable, and is the rage among republican politicians. We warn our readers against such reasoning as we warn them against all other frauds.—Fiero, Stock and Home.

New York Star Syndicate letter to the St. Mary's Beacon. Tammany dug up its tomahawk last night and started in for scalps. All the big and little chieftains had their war-paint on, and a very lively powwow it was. Sheriff Hugh J. Grant who heads their ticket for Mayor was their nominee four years ago when Mayor Grace was elected.

Up to the last moment there was some slight hope of local union. Conferences had been held during the day in which Secretary Whitney, Senator Gorman, Congressman Scott and other personal and political friends of the President took a hand. Whether these gentlemen could not agree upon a candidate acceptable to all factions, or whether they finally concluded that the interests of the State and National tickets would be best served by a triangular local fight, it is difficult to say. At all events we have the outcome. To-night the County Democracy will put Mayor Hewitt in nomination; and as he is endorsed by the Citizen's movement, there seems every probability of his election.

There never was a sharper or prettier fight in the Empire State than this year. Things are mixed up in such a bewildering manner that it is extremely difficult to keep all the fluttering ends in sight. You find plenty of men who are ardent supporters of Cleveland and who would not hesitate to smear "rough on rats" on Gov. Hill's t-shirt if they had the chance. Then again you hear men shouting lustily for Hill with never a denigrating chirp for the President. When you get down to local candidates the situation is still more complicated. These eccentric forces of Citizen's movements, Mugwumps, High License men, Protectionists, United Labor Advocates, Socialists, Anarchists and Americanites (the latest fad in the line of political organizations) all center in the Metropolis; and a mighty whirlwind of politics they make when all the big and little cog-wheels get in motion.

Still the situation has not changed materially during the past month. The chances are for a largely increased Democratic majority in New York and Brooklyn. The party managers claim with reason that the rest of the State will certainly do as well as it did for Cleveland four years ago. They expect to beat these figures by some 13,000, basing their hopes upon a canvass just completed. If they do, Cleveland will have not less than 30,000 majority in this State. If they don't be ought to have half that, anyhow.

Considerable excitement has grown out of the exposure of the Republican plot to colonize Pennsylvania "heelers" into New York State. The Democratic managers got wind of the scheme a week ago, and immediately set to work to counteract it. It is said the Boss Quay has changed his tactics to some extent and will put a good portion of the million dollar campaign booklet, recently raised, into the Empire State.

Boss Quay is said to be in a towering passion over the recently reported Republican Tariff Bill; but he is not half so mad as the Pennsylvania Steel Barons—who call them "Steal Barons nowadays—who clipped in three-quarters of a million Campaign hoards. It is said that these gentlemen were duly assured that the Republican Tariff Bill was only a little Campaign ghost which would never by any possibility be permitted to materialize; and there are those who assert that Quay himself was overcome with this notion. His violent opposition to reporting any such measure is history. Chairman Brice of the other side of the house takes more comfort from this anomalous effort to relieve the necessities of a suffering people by putting acorns on the free list. For one he and Senator Quay are in accord. Both of them think that this measure will weaken the Republican ticket in the Eastern States where the earth has been moving.

THE BIG WHEAT DEAL. There is not much stirring to speak of when you switch off from politics. A little diversionment was created by the corner in wheat which has put up that staple to fanciful prices. This is the work of Broker Hutchinson, familiarly, if not affectionately, known as "Old Hutch." He had been getting things ready for months and when at last he pulled the string there was such howling and dancing and fanciful contortions on the floor of the Produce Exchange as had not been noticed there since the Anglo-Russian war scare of three-and-a-half years since. On Wednesday no less than 28,846,000 bushels of wheat changed hands on the floor in a few minutes. You could not buy standing-room in the free galleries at $5. If you were lucky enough to struggle to the front railing overlooking the pit, you would be apt to close your eyes devoutly and thank your stars that you were not mixed up in the writhing mass of humanity below. A composite jargon of many tongues—all barbarous so far as you are concerned—in many keys, all penetrating and irritating—men grappling men with gladiatorial ferocity—bells and bells in mortal combat—then the sound of the hammer, a temporary lull and the carcasses of the figuratively dead and dying dragged out of the arena, while the survivors catch their wind for the next charge. The genuine article of death would be a positive relief to many of these collapsed brokers who in the deal of a few seconds have all the financial life pounded out of them, and retire from the chamber which they entered rich men with all their belongings and almost their souls mortgaged to bulls with longer horns or bears with sharper claws.

FRANK E. VAUGHAN. If you've got a pain or ache or a bruise, Salvation Oil reach the case instantly. Price 25 cents.

Attention voters.—By resolution passed by our Legislature, all good citizens are requested to use Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup and recommend the same as the people's remedy for Coughs, Colds, etc. 25 cents.

The English language is wonderful for its aptness of expression. When a number of men and women get together and look at each other from both sides of a room—that is called a "sociable." When a hungry crowd call upon a poor minister and eat bits of house and home—that is called a "donation party."

For all the ailments of small children there is no better remedy than Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup. All druggists sell it. Price 25 cents.

The bad effects of impudence in eating and drinking are speedily removed, and the depression following eating is quickly banished by the use of Laxador. Price 25 cents a package.

A huge anti-monopoly, tariff reduction tidal wave is just rising that will sweep this country clean in November. The land of the free bears just burdens patiently, but submits to no curtailment of its freedom.

Wilmington, N. C. Messenger: The salt of the table pays more tax proportionately than the silk of the wealthy wardrobe. The diamond of the duke is taxed lighter under the tariff than the wool-hat of the workman.

A fine head of hair is an indispensable element of beauty. Ayer's Hair Vigor maintains youthful freshness and luxuriance, restores to faded and gray hair its original color, prevents baldness, removes dandruff, and cures scalp diseases. It gives perfect satisfaction.

Men who bet on elections, bet to win. They watch the drift of public sentiment, and their wagers are political straw. The betting on the general result, throughout the country, is decidedly in favor of Cleveland.

The consumers of sugar in the United States pay from two to three cents additional per pound by reason of the sugar tax, that Mr. Blaine says are private affairs.

"For years I suffered from loss of appetite and indigestion, but failed to find relief until I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine entirely cured me. My appetite and digestion are now perfect."—Fred G. Baker, 496 Seventh st., South Boston, Mass.

Though cast down we're not forsaken, Though afflicted not alone; Thou diest great and thou hast taken, Blessed Lord, "Thy will be done."

Then let our sorrow cease to flow, God has recalled his own; But let our hearts in every woe Still say, "Thy will be done."

Then fare thee well, our angel dear, Thy will, oh Lord, be done; For he is resting now in heaven, His crown of glory won.

He's resting, yes, he's sleeping, And we shall meet no more, Till our trials here are ended, And we've gained the other shore.

There rest beloved one, Upon thy throne above; For thou hast found a home with God! Where all is peace and love.

I had tried nearly every remedy, and was almost despondent. A friend advised me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I began to take this medicine, and before long the cough entirely subsided, and my health was restored. I can truly say that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is the best medicine I ever used.
