BURGLARS USE AUTO IN THEIR "GETAWAY"

Wednesday night the home of Henry Warren, 1021 East Rio Grande street, was entered and robbed of $800 worth of jewelry. An investigation was made by Mr. Warren and he found fresh automobile tracks in the rear alley and two automobiles were seen near the house when Mr. and Mrs. Warren returned in their automobile from downtown, about 11 oclock. The burglars entered the house through a bed room window and took two diamond necklaces valued at $300 each, a pearl worth $100, some rings, pins and other jewelry which was in the bedroom.

A suitcase was stolen from Mrs. F. Burges's automobile while it was standing in front of the Royal cafe Wednesday night.

Jose Ramirez was arrested by city policemen Wednesday evening near the Electric building while pushing a bicycle which had its front wheel locked. He was held as a suspicious character.

Jesus Calenzuela and Pedro Vanreal were arrested on South Oregon street Wednesday night while carrying a chicken which had been recently killed. They were docketed as vagrants.

WHEAT REACHES NEW HIGH PRICE

Sales For Foreign Delivery Come Within Fraction of $2 a Bushel.

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 7.—Indifferent cables had a bearish effect today on wheat. After opening ⅛ to 1c lower, prices here sagged a little further and then made a moderate rally.

The close was strong at 12⅜ to 12½c net advance, with May at $1.98⅝, after having touched $1.98⅝, the highest level since the days of Joseph Leiter.

Large receipts put selling pressure on corn. Opening quotations, which varied from ⅛ to ⅜c off were followed by a slight additional setback.

The close was strong, ⅜ to ½c above last night.

Oats gave way with wheat and corn.

Provisions lacked support. Scattered selling more than offset firmness of the hog market.

Two dollars a bushel for wheat, the dream that only enthusiasts ever expected to come true, was within half a cent of being a reality on one grade of wheat if the cost of delivery to Europe might be counted as part of the price. A carload of Durum wheat was sold to go to Italy on a basis that figured delivery at destination at $1.99½ a bushel.

Such a price breaks all records for Durum wheat. The supply of that variety in the United States is said to be virtually exhausted for this season.

Rapid upturns were witnessed in the speculative market. News that France and Italy had purchased 1,368,000 bushels or more today at the seaboard made the price of options here leap higher than at any time since the beginning of the European war and reach levels that before had not been equaled since the celebrated attempt at a worldwide squeeze by Joseph Leiter.

May wheat, the chief speculative delivery, went to $1.98⅝, as against $1.36 at the finish Wednesday night. Among the purchasers of the May option was the Rockefeller foundation, which wanted to make sure of charity supplies for Belgium, and had been unable to get satisfactory wheat for spot cash.
