Busher Ran Faster Than the Crowd

All Around Athlete Not Apreciated

By FRANK G. MENKE.

THE busher said: "The game in question was one that was to decide a championship. A barrel of money had been bet on the outcome. The score stood 2 to 1 in our favor in the last half of the ninth. The other team, having its last bat, had a man on second and another on third. There were two out."

"Yes?" breathlessly.

"Well the batter drove a high fly in my direction. It landed right in my hands—and I dropped it. The men on second and third scooted across the plate with the tying and winning runs, and then the crowd that had bet money on our side broke from the stands and made a dash for me."

"What did you do?"

"I did six miles in 12 minutes."

One of the western papers recently rubbered into one:

A weary looking citizen, standing in front of the exit of a newspaper office, accosted a reporter, and said:

"Say, the sportin' editors these days don't know what to do with a good story when they get one."

"Zat-so?" commented the reporter. "How's that?"

"Well," answered the complaining one, "I'm the fellow who established a great record today. I ran a mile, swam a mile, rowed a boat a mile, rode horseback a mile, walked a mile, and rode a motorcycle a mile and I did all those things in 56 minutes and 21 seconds."

"Well, sir, I went in to see the sportin' editor and I told him about my marvelous accomplishment. And do you know what he said?"

"No", answered the reporter. "Slip me the news."

"Well, after I finished telling that sportin' editor about my marvelous accomplishment, he looked at me for a second or so, and then he said:

"Gosh, mister, you must be tired. Sit down and rest yourself."

Charlie Rigler, who umpires in the National league, recently told this one about himself:

"Some years ago I landed the job of umpiring the Army-Navy baseball game. As I strutted from the entrance toward my position behind the plate the crowd broke into one of the wildest kind of cheering I have ever heard. My walk carried me over full length of the field and as cheering continued throughout my entry, I can tell you I was a very proud young fellow."

Rigler paused.

"Is that the end of the story"? someone asked.

"I wish it were—but it isn't" answered Rigler: "I thought those fellows were cheering for me until I reached home plate and exchanged greetings with my fellow umpire. Then I learned otherwise."

"Who were they cheering?"

"Theodore Roosevelt happened to enter the stand at the same time that I entered the field," answered Rigler.

Chicago, Ill., March 23.—William Huey of Chicago lost his first game Monday night in the world's three-cushion billiard championship tournament here and now is tied with John Daly of New York for first place, each having seven victories and one defeat.

Daly's win over Jenne in the third game today secured him second place and Huey's defeat in the final game of the day made it a tie. Charles Ellis of Cleveland defeated Huey 59 to 41 in 61 innings, his high runs being 11 and 8. Huey ran six.

BOWLING

INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE.

Three more more decided upsets of form in the Industrial league games on the Cactus alleys Monday night, Globe Mills, league leaders, dropped three straight to El Paso Laundry, the millers hanging up some very mediocre scores. The laundrymen, on the other hand, rolled steadily and made the very creditable team total of 2527. Cunningham, of the Laundry, rolled both the high single and the high total, with 211 and 546, respectively.

In the other match, Cement Plant spoiled the dope for the Weston Dairy Lunch by making a clean sweep of the three games. Cole, of the Cement Plant, rolled 199 for the high single, and 532 for the high aggregate.

As a result of Monday night's games, the championship of the Industrial league is a very open proposition.

DILLARD BEATS GROTH.

It cost Jockey Groth a supper for a big party to find out that he was second best in bowling when Ray Dillard was in the same game. Dillard has been making some good marks lately and he didn't neglect the alleys today. Groth got an idea that if a program man could bowl, so could a jockey. A challenge for a supper price was then sent in and the match arranged. It took place on the Wigwam alleys Monday night, and while Dillard won, it wasn't by any big margin. Groth gave an excellent account of himself. The scores:
