COPPERS DROP WITH THE REST

General Weakness Affects Price of Red Metal Issues.

Money reflected on the weakness of the present market Wednesday and caused the public to get on the selling side with results of a tremendous loss in the industrials, while coppers, rails and oils also lost from 5 to 10 points, according to J. S. Curtiss & Co.

The coppers did not share very heavily in the loss with only fractional losses in Chile, Inspiration, Kennecott and Utah, while Anaconda, Butte, Chino and Green Cananea held firm, on the other hand American smelters gained one point.

On the Curb Gadsden showed decided strength, 2 1-4 being bid, and Jerome Verde sold for 90c.

CORN MARKET PRICES DROP

Grain Responds to Predictions of Abnormally Low Temperatures.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 12.—Corn dropped today, responding to predictions of abnormally low temperature for this season of the year. Besides, there were practically no sales of corn in the east overnight except for deferred shipment. Trade appeared to be rapidly going into the May delivery. Opening quotations, which ranged from ⅛c to ¼c lower, with December at $1.12 to $1.12⅛, and May $1.24 to $1.24⅛, were followed by material further declines.

Weakness of stocks, hogs and foreign exchange together with tightness of money rates counted as bearish factors later. The close was nervous, 1⅞c to 2⅛c net lower, with December $1.20⅝ to $1.20¾, and May $1.24½ to $1.24⅝.

Oats Decline With Corn.

Oats declined with corn. Eastern call was slow. After opening ⅛c to ⅜c off, including December at 71⅞ to 71¾, the market continued to sag.

Weakness of hogs and grain had a depressing effect on provisions. Business in pork was nearly at a standstill.

Selling that was ascribed to packers brought about further declines in the late dealings.

STOCK VALUES ARE IMPAIRED

Money Restriction Provokes Further Enormous Liquidation.

New York, Nov. 12.—Money restrictions enforced by the federal reserve bank and other conservative financial interests provoked further enormous liquidation and serious price impairment in the stock market today. Sales approximated 2,300,000 shares, a record for the year.

Prices of Liberty bonds at 3:15 p. m. today were:

3½'s, 100.30; first 4's, 94.80; second 4's, 97.00; first 4¼'s, 94.86; second 4¼'s, 97.78; third 4¼'s, 94.64; fourth 4¼'s, 92.88; Victory 3¾'s, 99.96; Victory 4¾'s, 99.94.

Market Demoralized.

The market today became completely demoralized in the last hour when call money rose to 8 percent, the highest rate since the panic of 1907. Stocks slumped of 10 to 25 points were scattered throughout the list and general motors showed a decline of 60 points. Prices broke with a crash at 1:30 o'clock today. No group in the list was spared. General motors fell below 150 and Crucible Steel dropped to 71½. Brokers reported it was almost impossible to borrow money at any price.

Market Opens Nervous.

An undercurrent of nervousness permeated the stock market at the opening of today's session. Further selling, based on the tight money situation, caused initial losses of 1 to 4 points in steels, equipments, oils and motors. This was partly balanced by gains of 1 to nearly 4 points in shippings, pressed steel car, and other issues which cleared their ground during yesterday's drastic liquidation. Signs of support were shown by representative shippings, notably high grade rails and United States Steel. Some early losses were fully recovered within the first half hour.

Rallies Are Forfeited.

Rallies of the first half hour on the stock market were forfeited under new fresh selling of speculative issues, which forced many stocks under yesterday's final prices. Commission houses reported extensive liquidation from interior centers. General motors was again the central feature, extending yesterday's severe slump of 50 points to 60 points from which it rallied to 232. Other motors, also oils, equipments and specialties, were 3 to 12 points lower. Marked strength was shown by metals, especially American Smelting, and the steady accumulation of United States Steel was a factor in the general rebound at noon. Call money opened at 7 percent, duplicating the year's maximum initial rate.
