

A bronze statue of heroic size of the renowned Stonewall Jackson is now being executed by Edward Valentine, the well known Virginia sculptor, and when completed it will be erected over the grave of the hero, in the Cemetery at Lexington. The statue will be standing with head uncovered, dismounted, with a field glass in his hand. It is being erected under the direction of the Jackson Memorial Association.

"40 ACRES AND A MULE."—Colored farm tenants in various parts of South Carolina have become imbued with the idea that they will not be required to pay their rents now that Gen. Harrison has been elected President, and many of them are squandering their hard-earned money in the purchase of musical instruments and other luxuries. In Orangeburg County and other sections some of the small colored farmers are turning out their stock to graze at large, as they think that President-elect Harrison will wipe the fence law out of existence when he goes into office.

A FORCIBLE ILLUSTRATION.—A business man of Westminster, who deals in cloths, essimers, coatings, &c., is also a devotee of "Protection," and cast a straight ballot for Harrison, Morton, Lang and high taxes at the late election. Just after the election an attaché of the Advocate desiring a suit of clothing dropped into his establishment to look at some goods, and every piece shown him was recommended as fine imported English or French goods. Not a piece of American Manufacture was shown, for the reason that American goods are not as good, will not hold their color near as well as the English and French goods, and there is but little demand for them. And why is this?—Simply because the taxes on raw materials, wool and dye stuffs, are so high that the American manufacturer cannot compete with the French and English.—Advocate.

Our farmers, long-suffering and patient, struggling in the race of life with the hardest and most unremitting toil, will not fail to see, in spite of misapprehensions and misleading fallacies that they are obliged to accept such prices for their products as are fixed in foreign markets where they compete with the farmers of the world, that their lands are declining in value while their debts increase, and that without compensating favor they are forced by the action of the Government to pay, for the benefit of others, such enhanced prices for the things they need, that the scanty returns of their labor fail to furnish their support or leave no margin for accumulation.—President Cleveland's Recent Message to Congress.

Does not every farmer realize the truth of these words? Yet it is said farmers in the West and Western New York were the cause of his defeat. While he is fully aware of the fact, he still continues to champion their interests.

Our workmen, enfranchised from all delusion and no longer frightened by the cry that their wages are endangered by a just revision of our tariff laws, will reasonably demand through such revision steadier employment, cheaper means of living in their homes, freedom for themselves and their children from the doom of perpetual servitude, and an open door to their advancement beyond the limits of a laboring class. Others of our citizens whose comforts and expenditures are measured by moderate salaries and fixed incomes, will insist upon the fairness and justice of cheapening the cost of necessities for themselves and their families.

When to the selfishness of the beneficiaries of unjust discrimination under our laws there shall be added the discontent of those who suffer from such discrimination, we will realize the fact that the beneficent purposes of our Government, dependent upon the patriotism and discontent of our people, are endangered.—President Cleveland's recent Message.

Reading What They Sowed.—Higgins, the carpet manufacturer, who it is alleged, compelled his employees to march in the Republican parade and to vote the Republican national ticket, has not only discharged seven hundred hands, but has given notice that he will reduce the wages of those who are at work from ten to fifteen per cent. on December 17th.

About four weeks ago the ingrain carpet manufacturers held a secret conference in Philadelphia and decided to advance prices 2 1/2 cents per yard at once, and from 2 to 2 1/2 cents more in the spring. There was also an understanding among them to cut down wages 10 to 15 per cent. Ten days ago the Brussels carpet manufacturers in this city met and decided to advance prices of their carpets from 2 1/2 cents to 7 1/2 cents per yard and reduce wages. When Higgins last Wednesday announced the reduction of wages, a committee from the Carpet Weavers' Association called on him and informed him that according to the agreement that the union had with him, the men were entitled to two weeks notice, so Mr. Higgins postponed the reduction to December 17th.

The Bigelow Carpet Manufacturing Company, of Clinton, Mass., shut down some time ago, as also did Sanford, of New Amsterdam. The Executive Board of the Carpet Weavers Association met in Philadelphia this week to devise measures to resist the reduction.—New York Times.

DIED.
Suddenly, in St. Inigo's district, on the 8th instant, THOMAS J. YATES, second son of the late James Thompson and Mary Ann Yates, aged about 39 years. May he rest in peace!

Departed this life November 23rd, 1888, JAMES MARRION SrCLAIR, aged 24 years.

Again sounds the Master's call, and angel wings hasten to bear the released soul up from the shadows of earth. Tenderly the Saviour opens his arms to receive the loved one and puts upon him the raiment of the heavenly throne. Saved and at rest! No longer tired with life's burdens nor oppressed with its care—not weary with hours of suffering nor feverish with disease—O Death, where is thy sting! O grave, where is thy victory!

Bereaved loved ones, though your hearts seem to burst at the parting, yet grieve not for what is his gain. Think of the life less form in the church yard—the pale covering of the soul—but of his spirit radiant and bright in God's presence. It is such a little while ere you too will join your loved ones there, and it is sweet to know they watch and wait for that glorious reunion.

Into thy hands, O God, a loved one passes: Teach the bereaved to say, "Thy will be done." Throw light upon this mortal blindness. And let them realize where he has gone. Draw near to them Father in their suffering. Bring comfort in their agonized distress. That they may feel their loved one has not left them.

Departed this life on the 2nd of December, at the residence of her husband, WILHELM, beloved wife of Joseph Jarboe, in her 21st year.

In penning this humble tribute of respect to my beloved sister, how forcibly does my mind the truth of the expression that "In the midst of life we are in death." Willie was but two short years ago a bright and blooming bride; but time works many changes, and death, that grim destroyer of both old and young, has visited her and laid its icy grasp upon her, making her the bride of death. Oh, Willie, how hard it seems to give thee up; to know that you have been taken from us so young, even before you had well begun. But in our sorrow and affliction we will endeavor to console ourselves with the thought that all things are ordered for the best.

As I stood beside the bedside, Gazing upon your face so white; Little did I think your spirit Was preparing for its flight. I hoped you'd soon be better, But alas! it could not be, For Jesus has taken you with him To dwell for all eternity. Then parents, brothers, sisters, Why weep you any more? But make sure preparations To meet her on the other shore. KATIE.

Have You Heard

What Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has done and is doing for thousands in the case of Croup, Coughs, Pneumonia, Bronchitis, and even Consumption? Ayer's Cherry Pectoral stands far ahead of all other remedies.

A Terrible Cough.
I had a terrible cough, had night sweats, and was unable to get any sleep. I had tried every remedy I could get, but nothing would do me any good. I then tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and in a few days I was able to get some sleep, and the cough was much better. I continued to use it, and in a few more days I was completely cured. I can now breathe freely, and I feel much better than I have for some time. I would like to see every sufferer who is afflicted with a cough, to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and I am sure they will be cured. Price 25¢ per bottle, 50¢ per dozen.

WHEN YOU BUY CLOTHING,

Overcoats especially, call into play all the common sense you possess. That's all that's needed. You know nothing about clothing, technically speaking—so seek out a reputable house—place implicit confidence in what they tell you. Use your common sense and you'll be satisfied with your purchase.

When you buy a Horse
you run chances on the animal's developing all the points that it was represented he promised. When you buy clothing of US, you take no chances—we take them all.

WE GUARANTEE EVERY ARTICLE OF GOODS WE SELL. If we had only a hundred or two of overcoats we wouldn't be so sure we could please every taste, and fit every form—but where others have hundreds we've got thousands. There is not an overcoat designed that we haven't a line. By a line we mean a complete stock of each particular style.

Whatever you want,
Whether it's an outer garment for dress, or a thick, heavy storm coat, or anything between—we've got it. You may be sure of that. We can show you an overcoat for $10 up. The beauty of it all is that nothing is shown you that is not value passing—that is not of creditable manufacture and marked on the same basis as all our goods—ABSOLUTELY ONE PRICE—and that just a small selling profit above actual cost. You know SAKS and CO.'S reputation in this respect.

We've talked especially about overcoats for we believe them to be your greatest need at present, but don't lose sight of the fact that we keep everything for men and boys, and don't forget, either, that if you can't come to town we can serve you just as satisfactorily. If what we send you don't suit—return it. You're not obliged to keep it.

BY MAIL
