CITY OF COLVILLE.

Commercial center of the Colville valley, county seat of Stevens county. Population 2500. Altitude 1635. Average yearly temperature 45.5. Average yearly precipitation 17 inches. No extremes in temperature or rainfall. School registration 560. High school registration 140. Three school buildings, total value $75,000.

Paved business streets, cement sidewalks and crosswalks, 140 pound pressure water system, $22,000 sewer system, electric light system, $22,000 opera house, $16,000 flouring mill affording cash market for all grains in the county, $9,000 postoffice building, free postal delivery being instituted, $25,000 saw mill plant with dry kiln.

The city of Colville is growing. Its Chamber of Commerce is an active body of business men who welcome all who wish to make a home in a growing business center.

Those who desire a suburban or country home, with the advantage of good schools, have a varied choice of employment—fruit growing, dairying, poultry raising, truck farming, diversified farming, or lumbering.

Dairying experts claim the Colville valley is the most ideal place in the northwest for profitable dairying.

Land suitable for farms and orchards may be bought at reasonable prices. For any information, write the Colville Chamber of Commerce.

SUMMONS

In the superior court of the state of Washington, for Stevens county.

National Bank of Commerce of Spokane, a corporation, plaintiff, vs O. W. Noble and Susan L. Noble, his wife; Alonzo C. H. Shafer, William C. Wait, George S. Morley, and Jane Doe Morley, his wife; James J. Budd and Jane Doe Budd, his wife; Charles W. Robinson and Jane Doe Robinson, his wife; Joseph W. Reynolds and Jane Doe Reynolds, his wife; W. C. Stayt and Elizabeth Stayt, his wife; Mary Guntherberg and John Doe Guntherberg, her husband; Washington Trust Company, a corporation; Frank H. Robinson, John Doe and Richard Roe, defendants.

The state of Washington to the above named defendants:

You are hereby summoned to appear within sixty days after the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit: within sixty days after the 23rd day of August, 1913, and defend the above entitled action in the above named court, and answer the complaint of the plaintiff, and serve a copy of your answer upon the undersigned attorneys for the plaintiff at the address below written, and in case of your failure so to do judgment will be rendered against you according to the demand of the plaintiff, which has been filed with the clerk of the above entitled court.

The object of this action is to secure payment on three promissory notes, dated February 2, 1912, in the total sum of thirty-five hundred ($3500) dollars, with interest from said date at the rate of ten per cent per annum, and to foreclose a certain mortgage bearing date the 2d day of February, 1912, given to secure the payment of the above named indebtedness, and to exclude the above named defendants and each of them from any right, title, lien, equity or estate in the following described property, or any part thereof, to-wit:

Lots numbered one (1) to thirty-five (35) inclusive, and lots numbered thirty-eight (38) to fifty-four (54) inclusive, in block numbered thirty (30) in the Central Addition to the town of Kettle Falls, according to the recorded plats thereof now on file in the office of the county auditor of said Stevens county, Washington.

Dated this 25th day of June, 1913.

SUMMONS FOR PUBLICATION

In the superior court of the state of Washington, in and for the county of Stevens.

A. J. Wendler, as administrator of the estate of Gustave Wendler, deceased, plaintiff, vs. Everett E. Woodard and Mrs. Everett E. Woodard, husband and wife, David O. Woodard and Mrs. David O. Woodard, husband and wife, Pluma A. Gillette (formerly Pluma A. Dodd), H. E. Ketchum and Mary Ketchum, husband and wife, and John H. Perrigone and Mrs. Minnie Perrigone, husband and wife, defendants.

The state of Washington, to the said Pluma A. Gillette (formerly Pluma A. Dodd), John H. Perrigone and Mrs. Minnie Perrigone, husband and wife, of above named defendants:

You and each of you are hereby summoned to appear in the above entitled action in the above entitled court, within sixty days after the date of the first publication of this summons, exclusive of the date upon which the first publication is made, towit, within sixty (60) days after the 6th day of September, 1913, and answer the summons and complaint of the plaintiffs, and defend the above entitled action, and serve a copy of your answer or other pleading upon the undersigned attorneys for plaintiff, at their office below stated; and in case of your failure so to do, judgment will be rendered against you according to the demand of the complaint, which has been filed with the clerk of said court.

The object of the above entitled action, is for a decree to issue out of said court granting to plaintiff as of right to be entitled as against defendants and each of them to the undiminished flow, uninterrupted and unobstructed of the waters of Cottonwood creek, to the extent of 200 cubic inches per second of time as it flows through plaintiff's ditch, over, upon and through the lands of plaintiff herein, described as the northwest quarter of section seven (7), township thirty-one (31) north, of range forty-one (41), E. W. M. in Stevens county, Washington, and that plaintiff be decreed to the use of said waters through his said ditch by reason of a prior appropriation thereof. That said defendants, and all others acting, by, through or under them be perpetually enjoined from interfering with, or interrupting the waters and ditch of plaintiff as hereinbefore described, and that a temporary restraining order issue, pendente lite, and for such other and further relief as to the court may seem just and equitable.

United States Land Office at Spokane, Washington, August 9, 1913.

Notice is hereby given that Jabez H. Clark, whose postoffice address is Three Forks, Washington, did, on the 17th day of December, 1912, file in this office sworn statement and application, No. 07956, to purchase the southwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section 28, the northwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section 33, and the east half of the northeast quarter, section 32, township 36 north, range 41 E. Willamette meridian, and the timber thereon, under the provisions of the act of June 3, 1878, and acts amendatory, known as the "Timber and Stone Law," at such value as might be fixed by appraisement, and that, pursuant to such application, the land and timber thereon have been appraised, at six hundred fifty dollars; the timber estimated 700,000 board feet at see appraisal per M, and the land $160.00; that said applicant will offer final proof in support of his application and sworn statement on the 28th day of October, 1913, before the register and receiver of the United States land office, at Spokane, Washington.

Any person is at liberty to protest this purchase before entry, or initiate a contest at any time before patent issues, by filing a corroborated affidavit in this office, alleging facts which would defeat the entry.

HAL J. COLE, register.
