

Saint Mary's Beacon.

Local Dettings.

Saturday, December 15, on the road leading from St. John's to the Brick House, a roll of notes, containing about $33. A liberal reward will be paid for information leading to its recovery.

For a Night Boat. Petitions for a night boat between Leonardtown and Washington are being circulated and will, we trust, be signed by all our shippers. The advantages are obvious of a schedule which would enable shippers to put their cattle, truck, &c., on steamer at about 9 o'clock, p. m., and have it landed in Washington early next morning.

Marriage Licenses. Since the 1st of January, 1889, the following Licenses to Marry have been issued by the Clerk to our Circuit Court.

Charles J. Martin and Susan Thomas. Thelma Yates and Anastasia Greenwell. James T. Crowder and Annie Stephens. Alfred J. Combs and Adeline Ridgell.

Garden Seeds. Messrs. Wm. J. Edelen & Co., keeping abreast of the times, have supplied themselves with the largest stock of Landreth's Garden Seeds ever brought to the town. One of the firm, Mr. Phillip F. Edelen, devotes special attention to gardening and the seeds which he recommends are those which he knows from experience to be good.

A Good Newspaper. Probably no newspaper in the United States is more firmly based on the principle of promoting the best interests of the people than the Baltimore Sun. The confidence it has inspired is illustrated best by the fact that its readers and subscribers respect its judgments and have faith in its carefully collected reports, because it respects itself and its word and its readers. This is the true basis of confidence. In dealing with Virginia affairs, into which it goes more deeply than any other newspaper published beyond the borders of the State, we have often remarked the prudence which it joins to enterprise. Its news is fresh and satisfactory, and its comments judicious, always to the point, and always in the interests of the people.

What Shall We Read? After subscribing to your local paper and before subscribing to any other for the coming year send to the Star, of Washington, D. C., for a sample of its weekly edition. It is a large, well printed paper of eight pages, few advertisements and every copy chock full of news. It gives the fullest congressional reports, all about government affairs, important decisions of the United States Supreme Court, all the latest telegraphic news and a well selected assortment of good and highly instructive reading for every class of readers. We advise all wishing a truly desirable Metropolitan Journal to subscribe to the Weekly Star. Send for sample copy and premium list, one or more premiums to every subscriber. It also offers a plan by which you can buy your choice of a long list of fine lithographic sheet music at ten cents a copy postpaid, and music books at 25 to 50 per cent. less than sold by dealers.

LOCAL NEWS AND OTHERWISE. Our ice crop has not yet materialized. We trust that it soon will. Scrapers in Calvert's Bay, near Point Lookout, frequently catch large sea crabs. We trust that hereafter our local column may be filled with more cheerful news than notes of accidents.

Sunday, Hon. Robert C. Combs left for Annapolis to attend the meeting of the Maryland Electoral College. The Peter B. Smith land was sold Tuesday by John F. Ching, mortgagee, and bought by R. T. and Jessie Turner for $700. There was a plentiful sprinkling of politicians in town Tuesday. What subjects were discussed we have been unable to learn.

Last week Mr. J. Frank Ford had his hand badly sprained, and, this week, one of his children accidentally cut out of one of his eyes.

Lloyd, son of Mr. J. Frank Ford, while cutting wood, had his ankle badly cut by a glancing ax.

Saturday, while Mr. John Combs was pushing a roller into his barn, he slipped, and, falling forward on the roller, had his cheek bone broken.

Last week Miss Helen Jenkins, of the St. Joseph's neighborhood, was thrown from a horse. She was, fortunately, but very slightly hurt.

Christmas Day, George Bland while carelessly handling a revolver accidentally shot Thomas Langley, inflicting a slight wound on the left hand.

In another column we print the advertisement of that sterling and reliable paper, the New York Mail and Express, and we wish to commend it to our readers as in the broadest sense a national newspaper, most carefully edited, and adapted to the wants and tastes of intelligent readers throughout the entire country—North, South, East and West. It is a thoroughly clean paper, free from corrupting, sensational and demoralizing trash, miscolored news, which defiles the pages of too many city papers. The Mail and Express discusses with ability and fairness all questions of public interest as they arise, makes a specialty of the temperance question, and is always found on the moral and progressive side. It gives the latest news from all parts of the world, and presents in its special departments an immense amount of the choicest and best reading matter for the instruction and entertainment of every member of the family, old and young. Sample copies are sent free, and we advise all our readers to send for them.

St. Inigo's Items. [From our Regular Correspondent.] It appears that the fox's characteristic is not very useful to it in eluding well trained dogs, judging from the number caught hereabout. "Back to the line whereinto the memory of man runneth not to the contrary" is a favorite motto for large numbers of both red and grey species, and even up to a few years back the former were frequently caught, but it is a rare occurrence to catch one now-a-days.

Mr. Geo. L. Smith, of Point Lookout, is clerking for Mrs. E. Laura Freeman, and J. Frank McKay, Esq., can be daily (Sundays excepted) seen attending to the wants of customers.

Deputy P. M. R. M. Edwards continues to dispense the cup that envenoms and occasionally remarks, "Zounds! how they like it." A. W. Clarke and W. Warren Clarke are shipping "xxx" and "xxx" oysters to Washington. The oysters are carried in sail boat to Piney Point, thence by steamboat to the city, a considerable inconvenience.

Capt. John Powell's fine vessel Two Sisters' makes regular trips from St. Jerome's Creek to Baltimore, carrying oysters and bringing freight for merchants, farmers, &c. The roads of this section continue in good condition despite frequent copious showers. It has been reported and somewhat believed that several of our young men intend to bow at the altar of Hymen at an early day, but they deny (of course) that they entertain the remotest idea of such a thing, and say that they cannot make up their minds to exchange their present state of singleness for the joys and sorrows, the blisses and disquietudes of a wedded life.

Divine Service was held in the several churches 13th. The day was fair and Spring like. The mercury ascended to 60 degrees. Remarkable for midwinter, is it not? Mr. Griffin Hebb, of Patuxent, paid our village a brief visit recently.

The schools of the district are being well attended. No doubt the teachers have the spirit for their work, being impressed with the importance of the same. No sickness of consequence to chronicle.

Give Them A Chance. That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them. When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, you cannot get half a bottle. And what they do, they cannot do well. Call it cold, cough, croup, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Bosche's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you, you may depend upon this for certain.
