Tara, "Beautiful Hill."

From the coming of Heremon, husband of Tea, to the desolation of Tara in the Sixteenth century, 120 kings of the Scotic or Milesian stock ruled from their palace on the famous hill. In the annals of the Four Masters we read of the fortieth in the list of Irish kings, the renowned Ollav Fola, who instituted the Feis or assembly of Tara. His real name was Eochy, the title Ollav Fola, or Doctor of Erin, being given him because of his extraordinary learning. The "feis tara" was the national parliament of the Ireland of its day, and met triennially for one week at the period known as Samhaintide (three days before and three days after November day). The meeting was held in the open air in fine weather and in the banqueting hall in wet. This hall was 800 feet long and from 60 to 80 feet wide, and had six or seven large entrances on either side. The site can still be traced.

The last king to reign at Tara was Diarmaid, and no king after him, even when called king of Tara, ever dwelt upon "the beautiful hill."

WHEREAS a decree of foreclosure was entered in the above entitled action on the 30th day of January, 1922, in which said decree it was, among other things, provided that all of the property and premises as described in said foreclosure decree and owned by said defendant should be sold as an entirety and without right of redemption, at public auction, by the undersigned as Special Master appointed to make said sale, for cash or the bonds and coupons of the above named defendant secured by said mortgage to the extent and according to the terms of said foreclosure decree, as more particularly set forth therein, at the front door of the county court house of Morrison County, in the City of Little Falls, County of Morrison and State of Minnesota, on a day and hour to be fixed and named by the Special Master in his notice of sale, to satisfy the mortgage mentioned in said foreclosure decree, with accrued interest and all costs and disbursements in the above entitled action as set forth in said foreclosure decree.

(3) All other property whether real, personal or mixed, owned by the defendant at the date of said mortgage or thereafter and subsequently to the date of said mortgage acquired by the defendant and wheresoever situated, including all things in action, mortgage bonds, shares of stock, evidences of indebtedness, contracts, claims and demands, patents, rights, franchises and immunities and any and all interest in the same owned, acquired or possessed by the defendant at the date of said mortgage or thereafter and subsequently to the date of such mortgage owned, acquired or possessed by the defendant.

(4) All and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances belonging or in any wise appertaining to the property aforesaid or any part thereof; with the reversion and reversions, remainder and remainders, tolls, rents, revenues, income, products and profits thereof and all the estate, right title, interest and claim whatsoever, at law as well as in equity, which the defendants had at the date of said mortgage or which the defendant acquired subsequently to such date and every part and parcel thereof.

Said property will be sold as an entirety, and without appraisement or right of redemption. The sale may be adjourned by the Special Master, or on his authority, from time to time, as provided in said foreclosure decree. The Special Master will receive no bid from any one intending to bid for said mortgaged property, who shall not first deposit with the Master, as a pledge that he will make good his bid in case of its acceptance, the sum of Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars in cash or regularly certified check, or in lieu thereof, at least Fifteen Thousand ($15,000.00) Dollars, par value, of the bonds secured by said mortgage. Any cash, check or bonds deposited by a bidder whose bid is not accepted, will be returned by the Master to the depositor. Upon the acceptance by the Master of any bid for such mortgaged property, the purchaser shall forthwith deposit with the Master, the sum of Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars in cash or regularly certified check, provided, however, that if the successful bidder shall have previously made such cash, or equivalent, deposit as aforesaid, the same shall be retained on account of the amount so required to be deposited on the acceptance of his bid. In case any bidder shall fail to make the deposit last herein provided and required to be made on the acceptance of his bid, the Special Master will then and there again offer the property for sale without further notice or advertisement.

The Special Master will accept no bid for the mortgaged property so to be sold unless the same shall at least equal the sum of Twenty Thousand ($20,000.00) Dollars. The deposit received by the Special Master from the successful bidder will be held by him and applied upon the total sum bid by such purchaser for the property. In case any bidder or purchaser at the sale shall fail to make good his bid upon its acceptance by the Special Master, or after such acceptance shall fail to comply with any order of said Court relating to the payment thereof or relating to the consummation of the purchase by him of such mortgaged property, then the cash deposited by any such purchaser will be forfeited as the penalty for such failure, and will be applied toward the expense of a resale, and toward making good any deficiency or loss in case the mortgaged property shall be sold on such resale at a price less than the bid of said purchaser.

The above named plaintiff, Frederick P. Vose, as Trustee, or any holder or holders of any of the said mortgage bonds, may bid for said mortgaged property and purchase the same, on the sale in said decree of foreclosure and in this notice provided. Upon the consummation of the sale hereunder as provided by the Court, the purchaser shall make such further payment or payments in cash, on account of his bid, as the Court from time to time may direct. Any purchaser at the sale may satisfy and make good any part of his bid not required to be paid in cash, by turning in to be cancelled and credited, as in said foreclosure decree provided, any bonds or coupons payable out of the proceeds of such sale upon distribution thereof, and said purchaser will be credited therefor on account of his bid, in such sum as would be payable on such bonds and coupons so turned in, from the proceeds of such sale, with like effect as if the entire amount of his purchase price had been paid in cash.

That upon the confirmation of the report of said sale, the undersigned is, by said foreclosure decree, directed to make, execute and deliver proper and sufficient deeds of conveyance of all of said properties so owned by said defendant and covered by said mortgage, free and clear of all liens and incumbrances, and said sale will forever foreclose all of the parties to said action and all parties claiming by, through or under them, from any interest in or lien upon or claim to said property.

Said sale will be made subject to all the terms, conditions, provisions, reservations and exceptions in said foreclosure decree specified, although herein not specifically set forth, to which said foreclosure decree, as the same appears on file and of record in this action in the office of the Clerk of the United States District Court of said District and Division, at Fergus Falls, Minnesota, for greater certainty, reference is hereby made.

Dated February 7th, A. D., 1922.
