Safe, Permanent and Pleasant are the cures of intermittent fevers performed by CLEVELAND'S FEVER PILLS. Dumb Chills, Fever and Ague, and all bilious disorders are speedily and [illegible] from the system. Health and vigor are obtained more rapidly and more permanently by the use of this great [illegible] antidote than by any remedy heretofore known. It disinfects, cleanses and eliminates all malaria. As a tonic, it acts as an Antiseptic and Blood Purifier, leaving renewed energy and vitality to the body worn down by disease.

—The amateur dramatic club of this city are studying the play called the "Rough Diamond," which they will bring out in a short time. All lovers of fun should not fail to attend, for the "Rough Diamond" is a good one, and we doubt not full justice will be done it.

—Prejudice often rules in the physical treatment of Babies. They are allowed to suffer and scream with pain from Colic, Flatulence, Bowel Disorders etc., when some simple, reliable and safe remedy as Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup, would at once give immediate relief and perfect ease to the little sufferer.

—A little twelve year old boy last Friday got himself into rather a bad predicament. He was hunting to the blind end of the Brown Horse bus, when somehow one of his hands became entangled in the springs, which placed him in a dangerous position. It took the combined strength of several men to release him.

—And ye lovers of Arctic Soda, listen while we whisper in your ears the information that Marr has purchased the finest soda fountain that was ever in this city. It not only dispenses soda, but gingerale and Peruvian beer as well. Come around and indulge once, and he will get your trade forever.

—Lord Brown's bus, which has laid some time since with a locomotive, has just come out of the shop, repaired, repainted, and with the appearance of being new. Gray always keeps the best and tonest rigs going, and is one of the most accommodating men we ever met. Leave your order with him and you will never be disappointed.

—Louis Herman, one of the most enterprising dry goods merchants in this section, left last Monday for Chicago, where he intends laying in the largest and most elegant stock of dry goods and clothing that was ever brought to this city; and it will not only be the largest and finest, but also the cheapest, as he is buying at bed-rock prices. If you want to be in the fashion, do as folks of fashion do—go to Louis Herman's to buy your goods. You will be well treated and your wants promptly attended to.
