

Saint Mary's Beacon.

Local Notings.

Attention! There will be a meeting of the St. Mary's County Democratic Club at Leonardtown on Tuesday, the 19th instant, at 4 o'clock, p. m.

LUKE F. MATHEWS, President. J. HARRIS CAMALIER, Secretary.

A Complaint. Great complaint is being made by the roads in the section of California, which is claimed to be the fruits of L. J. Wiese's card in your paper, together with the reality of same.

A Maryland Boy's Trouble. R. C. Burnett, 18 years of age, residing in St. Mary's county, Md., has made application to the Washington Probate Court for the removal of E. A. Freer, appointed guardian in 1892.

Orphans' Court. Tuesday, March 12, 1890. Court met—all the officers present.

Renunciation of Lewis J. Chinn, executor of Charlotte C. Love, filed. Accounts passed against decedent's estate.

Receipts of distributees to Wm. T. Bailey, executor of Ann Bailey, filed.

Last will and testament of Richard H. Fenwick filed and ordered probated.

Court adjourned to March 19th, instant.

Marriage Licenses. Since February 27th the following licenses to marry have been issued by the Clerk to the Circuit Court:

WHITE: Andrew G. Wallace and Rosa E. Redmond. Richard H. Cheselind and Emily Ellis.

COLORED: Gen. R. Beale and Philomena Shorter. Robt. C. Briscoe and Mary A. E. Chapman.

St. Inigo's Items. [From our Regular Correspondent.] Despite the inclemency of the weather there was a large congregation at St. Michael's 10th instant.

It seems that this is an age of steam-saw and grist mills. The first district can boast of three, all high pressure, and consequently the welkin is made to ring after the steam has performed its work.

Suitable locations for tobacco beds are being selected, and ere many days the seed of one of Maryland's staple products will be placed where germination can ensue.

The man of the yard stick is complaining of the scarcity of that which was used in Kings county, N. Y., by Mr. Quay to defeat him who, during the four years of his administration, showed the wisdom, character and firmness of a Washington.

The entertainment which took place recently for the benefit of St. Mary's Church was an enjoyable affair. W. P. P. Dunbar, of Kitty's Point, won the fine candies and generously treated the ladies present.

Those nocturnal and arboreal animals amply known as opossums are plentiful. John Wheatley, Esq., of Woodlawn farm, has the finest oxen of Tick Neck. It is no trouble for them to overcome the inertia of a heavily loaded cart, and that, too, up an inclined plane.

The first representatives of terrestrial life are getting exceedingly scarce in the waters of St. Jerome's and Smith's creeks, so say the oystermen. Two boats are now lying in the latter creek, waiting to be loaded. It is a slow process to be sure. Patience has its perfect work, and buyers appear to have at least a modicum of this virtue.

It is rumored that a wharf for the accommodation of the Sea and Norfolk steamers will be erected at an early day near Mr. Walter L. Langley's farm, not very far above Cornfield Harbor. It will be a great convenience to the citizens of the lower section of the district.

From Seceders to the 'Happy Night, Qui Vive.' And so for pleasure Qui Vive, you say. You that precious rhyme did write, To show us before the world.

This mighty warfare, "hit to hit," You know you did commence; We do not wish to do you harm, But act in self-defense.

You thought that pally oysters, we would from our duty shrink. Afraid to tackle you whose pride To fight with us did sink.

Our verse was written by a few Whom you might think the leaders, But was endorsed by one and all, Our band of brave Seceders.

We wrote the truth and but the truth, In every verse of thirty, Duty Qui Vive and all the world To show wherein they are thirty.

You say 'twas 'spread out' very long— It might have been much longer— And also say 'twas 'rather strong.' Our next may be still stronger.

And when again you have the time, And a little pleasure need, Write us again, you'll find us here, All eagerness to heed.

Mechanicville March 8, 1890.

COMMUNICATED.

Mr. Julius C. Hayden, teacher of Bolan Neck High School, has resigned his position as teacher to relieve the aching hearts of four families.

Last week James Green, colored, an off-beat of Parson's mill, was caught by the saw, which tipped off the pole of his heavy boot, cut his foot and threw him with such force as to break one of his legs in two places.

We invite the attention of our patrons to the advertisement of sale, published in another column, of the fixtures of Fenwick's Hotel.

During the coming March term of Court, we will (D. V.) be at the same old stand, in the same old building, singing the same old tune.

Recently Dr. Barber, of the Charlotte Hall neighborhood, was thrown from his sulky, one of his horses and his body considerably bruised.

Messrs. T. L. Carpenter and H. H. Johnson have formed a co-partnership and have hung out their sign at 665 W. Baltimore street, Baltimore.

Friday last, an unknown sloop loaded with oysters while scudding before the wind, ran under and all on board were drowned.

Miss Mamie Dye, of Ohio, and Miss Olive Durant, of Washington, are guests of Moore's Hotel, this village.

It is expected that evidence on the part of Mr. Compton in the contested election case will begin to be taken in this county on or about the 26th instant.

Monday and Tuesday last, Capt. Jeff. D. Loker was in town. The Captain was on his last cruise on the Gov. Thomas and will Thursday turn the steam over to his successor, Capt. Tom Howard.

Among some of the recent events may be noted the receipt given by Mrs. W. A. Hammond on last Saturday afternoon at her home 924 North Calvert street, in honor of Mrs. J. Taylor Wood, of Halifax, N. S.

For sixty days I will close out all heavy clothing, hats and winter goods at cost. Now is your time for bargains. Room must be made for Spring goods. Call early at the Brown Store and secure your share of them.
