NORTH SIDE, BUTLER, MO.

Burdett Items.

Having seen no items in your paper from East Boone for some time we will endeavor to set the ball rolling in hopes that some more able pen will come to our relief that we may every week read from the columns of the TIMES news from our town and surrounding community.

Uncle Norris Eeely is in Kansas City serving on U. S. jury.

Miss Melissa Florey, of Harrisonville, is visiting Mrs. Geo. D. McNeil and other friends.

Mr. E. J. Wright, of Virginia City, has moved to our town, and commenced a seven months' school at Dixie.

Miss Mattie Nave, accompanied by Mr. Wm. Seithman, of Knobnoster, was trading in town Monday.

Mrs. Jas. M. Chambers is very sick of typhoid fever.

Miss Belle Alexander, who has been visiting in Kansas City and Marshall, Mo., for two months past, returned home a few days ago.

Miss Bessie Nave is on a protracted visit at Walker, Mo.

Merritt McNeil fell from a load of hay one day last week and broke his arm just above the wrist. Dr. France was called and the broken bone was set. Merritt was yesterday able to start for his home in Eldorado, Mo., in company with his father, Jas. McNeil.

Miss Mamie Haley commenced a six months' school in Burdett on the 2nd. With Miss Mamie's past success as a teacher and the natural qualifications that we know her to possess, we feel assured that she will ably do her part and we hope the parents will rally round their teacher and thereby make it one of the best schools ever taught in Burdett.

Mrs. Dr. France, son and two daughters, of Rosier, were visiting at W. S. Mudd's last Monday and Tuesday.

Singing school twice a week, Sunday and Thursday evenings at the church, conducted by our blacksmith W. H. McPherson.

Dr. Cox reports several on the sick list, among them are J. R. Riley's two children, J. D. Mudd and 'Uncle Davy' Allen.

Rev. Price, of the Christian faith, closed a protracted meeting at Dixie last Wednesday evening.

A jolly party of our young and old folks with well filled baskets and empty jugs last Saturday went up to the sulphur well of N. A. McClelland, near Brosley and had a picnic returning home in the evening with jugs filled (with water) and baskets empty, after having warned Mr. Mc. that they would return again on the 17th in even greater numbers.

ROVER.

Walnut Items.

We are having the longest dry spell we have had this summer, although the dust is not as bad as it has been owing to the showers we had last week.

Walnut has the largest corn crop this year it has had for a numer of years. Feeders say they expect to buy corn from 15 to 25 cents per bushel. Quite a number of farmers talk of feeding.

The peach crop is about gone.

John Standish is putting up hay on shares at J. L. McConnel's this week.

Jos. Shroyer, one of our most prosperous farmers, finished haying to-day. He has a fine lot of it. Mr. Doolittle is also haying this week.

Charles West, our efficient postmaster, and a staunch democrat, doing some good road work. Let every body turn out and get the roads in good shape.

Quite a number of farmers went to Butler Monday and Tuesday with mules and horses for sale. Sam Miller, of Foster, sold an excellent span of mules for $335.

Jas. Shroyer and sons went to Ft. Scott Wednesday to take in the fight and see the big show.

Prof. Jenkins, of Foster, is teaching music at Old Walnut. He is also trying organize a school at the Independence church.

Dolph Gillespie will weild the birch at Old Walnut this winter. Ed. Ingalls will hold forth at Independence.

Mrs. Armour and son Clarence will start for the Indian Territory, the coming week to visit the family of Mr. Speece, a brother to Mrs. Armour. Clarence will probably stay all winter.

Miss Dicy Moore and Miss Mary Armour will attend school the coming winter at the Butler Academy.

Miss Cora Winthrup, one of Foster's most charming young ladies is teaching the Red Top school. We wonder if Charley don't get awful lonesome.

J. T. Smith delivered his fat hogs at Hume Thursday.

The Foster News is one of the things that has been and Foster people are unconsolable. If they would but subscribe for the booming TIMES it would allay their grief.

BOURGEOIS.

Ballard Squibs.

A Mr. Lentz and wife visited Jno. Lentz at Uncle Eph's Sunday last.

Loren Whitmore and the Price sisters left Sunday the 25th, for the camp meeting.

Rev. Russell filled his appointments at Oak Hill Sunday 25th, and Ballard the 31st.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Price at Oak Hill Sunday.

Will B. Cole and family at Oak Hill Sunday.

Uncle Eph and Dan Embree went to Montrose for flour this week.

Walt like the good boy he is, took his sisters to meeting Sunday night.

Have you seen Ed Griggs out in his new cart.

Jim Bradley was at Salem Sunday school boy as usual Sunday eve.

Mrs. Swigart is convalescent, but her baby has very sore eyes.

Aunt Peggy Griggs was buried a few days since. She was sick several months, and died of cancer of the stomach.

R. J. Starke, Jas. Wilds and Charley Bowden went to Clinton after seed wheat.

Wilson Davidson, after and absence of several weeks in the south visiting friends, has retured.

Did you see Judge Cole as he went tumbling from his sulky plow? John says it throws him far and hard.

Bennett, Wheeler & Co.'s pump man was in this neighborhood last week and as usual sold some pumps. He is a good one and no doubt could sell "thunder rods too;" know he can sell carts, we tried him and its a good one.

Frank Allison, Lee Moore and R. A. Chenneworth each had wells drilled.

Jas. Hays, of Archie, down to see his wife, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. B. H. of Fairview.

We are te-day informed that those interested will open a road from W. J. Crows to the church, let the good work go on until it is opened north to the Peter Creek road and road south to Swigart's; out with your petitions.

Call on Lentz if you are wanting a fine young hog, he will take your orders, as his brother is in the business and has fine ones.

Tom Stover and Frank Greer were in our village Monday at work on a wagon.

An ice cream supper at Teeter's Wednesday night, given by George and Miss Cora, was pronounced by those present, a grand success, all had a good time left with best wishes for the young folks as they go to Appleton City to attend school.

Uncle Mose and wife passed our cart on High point Sunday evening, he says we have a lage territory to ride over and a good one it is too, one any M. D. would be proud of.

The babies of M. M. Greer and L. C. Armstrong are better.

How about that feon Dr. Mc. lanced; I tell you, it was painful, but the little girl stood it well.

Tom Smith, our road boss is in our office now; his family is quite poorly.

Montrose flour is $1.[illegible] per hundred, and all our farmers buy it in 500 lb lots, among these are Sam Price, Will Moshier, Tom Stover, F. D. Greer, Jas. Wilds, J. B. Hays, F. M. Fort, E. P. Moshier, M. L. Embree and others. We suggest to all, try the Butler mills once.

See that saddle horse Lee Embree is riding for George Price.

Will D. has the best saddle animal in Spruce, and she is a beauty in single harness, too. We say, here is $150, do you see it? No, he has often refused it.

J. B. Hays has a new cart.

Quite a number passed going to the wheel Saturday night.

Amos Hughes, our jolly friend from the south, was on our streets Saturday, and enjoyed a game of marbles with some of our many players.

Sorry we were not at home Sunday evening to receive our callers. Come again; we are always glad to see you.

W. W. Moshier, at this writing, is quite sick. He is the fifth one of the family to be taken with typhoid malarial fever. Have had several cases in the past few weeks.

W. G. Chelf is improving, and it is thought will soon be up again.

Bob Kuntz furnished our directors 125 bushels of coal; has it already in the coal house Tell me why it is our school is so late in commencing?

Jas. Barker and sister, of Johnstown, are visiting friends here a few days.

J. L. Arbuckle and William Belton were on our streets Saturday as were hosts of others. Guess they were after the TIMES. Your list is larger than any one coming to this office, even the Republic. The TIMES surely is the paper of Bates, and fast the people are finding it to be so.

Jake Green at the shop this morning.

R. J. Starke, Charley and Ben Ireland, three of Spruce's solid democrats, gave us a call Monday, and Ben joined our Ballard beef club.

The Price sisters have returned from the camp meeting

W. B. Cole and family have gone to the Henry county fair this week.

Sam Keirsey took his fine horse to the Clinton fair to-day.

Judge Cloud passed our city Sunday going to Walnut Cumberland Presbyterian church.

Alice Embree's mother and sister, of Texas, are visiting her and other relatives of this neighborhood.

Quite a number of young ladies at Embree's Sunday evening.

Sam Kiersey lost three fine hogs last week, and came near having a far greater loss than that, by having his all burned to ashes and cast to the winds. He says his wife saved him.

Miss Tiny M. is rusticating at her uncles on south main.

Frank Crow leaves Friday for the state university to study law.

Chas Bowden goes to the Philadelphia medical college soon.

Afton Embree goes to the Kansas City Business college this winter.

Miss Criswell will attend the Normal at Warrensburg, where she intends to graduate this season.

Cole Bros. are now preparing their land to seed in wheat.

Jas. Wilds and R. J. Starke are drilling wheat to-day.

Rec and Jim attended an ice cream supper Wednesday night at Urich, report a fine time and lots of people there.

McFarland Bros. are having 300 bushels of coal hauled, preparatory for winter.

Doc Greer in the village this week trying to buy hogs, but Daniel got them.

The stock at Webbs' sale sold for good prices but the corn and other stuff went cheap.

Dick Greer and family are visiting here.

Will Howard and Walt M. gave us a call Monday morning, and how sleepy they did look.

L. C. Armstrong has bought himself a farm near Arbuckles.

What we want to know

Who it was that proposed dividing the honey in Mr. Sam Price's granary?

What young fellow it was George Price met going to Butler with two —— in the buggy?

What it was that kept John Lentz at Adrian so long the last trip?

What it was Daniel said to his girl as she started for Appleton City that caused her to look so sad?

What Frank Crow expected at the office Tuesday?

What happened to Afton over the way?

When Sammie and Will intend going northeast?

Who is sick out west?

What is the matter with Will Winegardner?

Afton, Sammie, Loren and Wat may not like to teach, but like teachers all the same. How is it, boys?

Is it any of our business? No, no, no.

Daniel Embree left Friday afternoon for the Clinton fair, and don't you think he went by Appleton City. Says its the best way.

The ice cream supper given by Ed Griggs Thursday night was a success in every respect and all enjoyed the evening well.

Miss Fannie Burke is quite sick, but hope to see her out again soon.

Almost all gone to the Clinton fair to-day.

Misses Tiny and Mary Moshier are visiting in the city this evening. HUM BUG.

Forepaugh's Wild Beasts at Large.

Clinton, Mo., Sept., 7.—This morning while the Forepaugh cars were being transferred from the Gulf railway to the Missouri, Kansas and Texas in order to reach their show grounds the trucks were wrenched from under one of the cars, causing a wreck by which several cages containing lions, tigers, hyenas and leopards were broken to pieces allowing the animals to escape and creating an excitement all over the city. Men at once formed companies and surrounded the beasts and succeded in recapturing all but one leopard, which escaped to the woods on Grand river, four miles south of town. This leopard was afterwards captured under a farmers corn crib and returned to its cage.

Over The Falls.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Sept. 7—Steve Brodie accomplished the perilous feat to-day of going over Niagara Falls in a rubber suit. He lies unconscious and fears are entertained of his recovery.

Take Hood's Sarsaparilla 100 Doses One Dollar

The Chief Reason for the great success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is found in the article itself. It is merit that wins, and the fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla actually accomplishes what is claimed for it, is what has given to this medicine a popularity and sale greater than that of any other sarsaparilla or blood purifier before the public.

Merit Wins

Hood's Sarsaparilla cures Scrofula, Salt Rheum and all Humors, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Biliousness, overcomes That Tired Feeling, creates an Appetite, strengthens the Nerves, builds up the Whole System.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared by C. I. Hood & Co., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.
