Attention, Committee:

The new central committee men for Bates county are requested to meet at the court house, in the city of Butler, Saturday, June 9th, 1894, at 1 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of organizing and transacting any other business that may come before the committee.

T. K. LISLE, Chairman.
PARISH NICKELL, Secretary.

John Sherman has made his farewell speech against the passsage of the tariff bill and income tax.

J. L Bell, second assistant post master general, has resigned to accept the position of general traffic manager of the Central railway of New Jersey at a much higher salary.

The new democratic central committee for Bates county will meet in Butler, Saturday, and as important business connected with the party is to be transacted it is hoped each member will be present.

Mr. Peffer the populist senator from Kansas, showed his hand Friday, when he pleaded for the retention of the bounty on sugar. His son was recently employed by the trust which places the senator under special obligations.

President McDonald, of the Nevada Guarantee and Security company, will serve a sentence, imposed by the U. S. court, of eleven months in jail in Chicago. The other officers of the company have notified the St. Louis postmaster that no more mail would be received by the company.

Ottumwa, Ia., June 3.—A disastrous fire occurred here to day and to-night five blocks are a mass of charred timbers and debris. One person was burned to death, one fatally affected by smoke and three others were seriously injured.

The Missouri Democrats are not mealy mouthed in their utterances on the tariff issue. They are not for "Conservative" compromises of any kind on this subject. They know what they have voted for in past years. No man who stands in the way of the accomplishment of their desire can hope for their favor. They are for the income tax, too with a will.—New York World.

In his speech against the tariff bill Friday John Sherman really sympathized with the farmer and asked that the McKinley tariff be left on wool. In the same speech he also sympathized with the rich man of the east and denounced the income tax as sectional. With wool selling at 19c under the McKinley bill and the farmers shipping to a foreign market to get a better price Senator Sherman ought to have explained the reason but he did not.

With all due deference to the wisdom of the democratic state committee, we fear it made a serious blunder in displacement of an experienced, able and efficient secretary at the beginning of the campaign. Sam Cook was the most tireless and effective worker in that position for years and no higher compliment could have been paid his worth than the vote cost for him for chairman of the committee by Major Harvey Salmon, Chairman of the executive committee of the last campaign, who was in the best position to know the value of his work. We have grave fears that our campaign committee is organized more in the interest of an individual than for the party good.

THE UNEXPECTED.

The democrats are always doing the unexpected to their opponents. A week before the state convention at Kansas City every little two by-four republican paper in the state was prating about the lack of harmony in democratic ranks and predicting all kinds of disasters by disagreements. They talked of administration and anti-administration factions and the bitter fight for supremacy sure to follow the convening of the convention. The result is a matter of history and the manly and independent spirit displayed by the democrats of Missouri in refusing to blindly endorse all the acts of a democratic administration, but rather choosing what they considered good and eschewing the rest, was a revelation to the blind partisan republicans who gulp down all the acts of a republican administration without question. Before the convening of that convention every republican you met, and a few chronic kickers in his own party, wanted to stop and tell you how unpopular Mr. Cleveland had become among democrats of Missouri. Now these same fellows would rather talk about any other subject.

In this county the third partyites were flattering themselves that the democratic party was disintegrating, and some were so foolish as to predict that not enough democrats would interest themselves to turn out and attend the convention to make a respectable showing. The report comes from every township that never in the history of Bates county politics did the democrats turned out better to their primaries, and the fact remains that never was there held in Butler a larger or more enthusiastic convention of representative citizens. The prevailing sentiment among these gentlemen was to lay aside personal preferences and prejudices and to nominate the very strongest ticket available. We want to add right here by way of parenthesis, that never was there better material offerred a convention to choose from and no mistake could possibly have been made.

It is uttering a trueism to say that where several good men are seeking the same nomination it is not possible for all to succeed. All the rest, if they are true men, will act toward the successful candidate, as they would have desired and expected to have been treated under similar circumstances.

The democratic party of Bates county can congratulate its representatives, who compossed the convention on the excellent ticket nominated and can go into the fight with the full assurance of party success in November.

Republican papers should be the very last to assume to condemn or criticise Coxey and his army: It was the infamous legislation of Republican bosses that caused the hard times among the great masses and made it possible for Gen. Coxey to muster his army of the unemployed. The Coxeyites are entitled to humane sympathy, while no execration can be too harsh to fitly whack that arch enemy of the people and destroyer of human liberty, old John Sherman and his crowd of plutocrats. These are cold, hard facts that fair minded people will consider.—Springfield Express.

The sugar schedule in the tariff bill will be completed this week unless unforseen delays are encountered, and that disposed of there will be little else to quarrel over. If the bill is passed by June 15 or within a few days of that date, it is altogether likely that a marked improvement in business will follow so speedily that before the fall trade is fully on there will be a complete restoration of industrial and commercial prosperity. This will be a great disappointment to the republican conspirators who would sacrifice everything in sight to promote party advantages. But the people will welcome the return of prosperity, and when it comes they will reward the party which brought it about.—K. C. Times.

The senate has tackled the sugar schedule and from the best information some of the senators have been pretty well sweetened by the trust and populist Peffer appears to be among the number.

TARIFF BILL SAVED.

DEMOCRATS STAND TOGETHER AND THEIR MEASURE WILL PASS.

Peffer Stands by His Boy.

Washington, D C., June 5.—The compromise amendments to the sugar schedule were all adopted in the senate to-day and the pivotal schedule on which the fate of the tariff bill depended, went through without change. On the vital amendments to place all sugar on the free list the democratic line was drawn. Mr. Hill of New York voting in favor of it, and Mr Irby, of South Carolina being paired in the same way. But the republicans were unable to hold their own forces intact, Messrs. Manderson and Perkins voting against the amendment, and Mr. Quay being paired against it, while Mr. Seerman, who was present did not vote at all.

The adoption of the sugar schedule pratically insures the passage of the bill at an early date, although it is intimated that the republicans will make a final stand on the sugar schedule when the bill is reported and considered in the senate.

As adopted to-day the schedule imposes a duty of 40 per cent ad valorem on all sugars, raw and refined, with a differential of one eight of a cent per pound on sugars above 16 Dutch standard, and an additional one tenth of a cent against sugars imported from countries paying an export bounty It continues the Hawaiian treaty admitting sugars from the Sandwich Islands free of duty, and places a duty of 2 cents per gallon on mollasses testing above 40 degrees by the polariscope. The schedule goes into effect January 1, 1895, and the bounty is continued until that date.

The hour of 1 o'clock arrived, and under the agreement, the vote was taken on Mr. Jones' amendment fixing January 1, 1895, as the date on which the repeal of the sugar bounty should go into effect, and it was adopted: yeas, 40; nays, 31. Mr. Hill did not vote and Mr. Peffer voted with the Republicans.

Fort Scott, Kan., June 5.—A disastrous wind storm passed through this county six miles northeast of this city, at 4 o'clock yesterday evening. The wind was accompanied by a violent rain and the growing corn and other grain was laid low. Trees were uprooted, window glass was destroyed and houses and stock barns were carried from their foundations.

It is with the greatest of glee that the people of Cass and St. Clair counties, Missouri, including the imprisoned county judges of the latter will see the question of authority between the federal and state courts transferred to congress for solution. The house judiciary has favorably reported Congressman DeArmond's bill limiting the powers of the federal judges and the fight should now be open and above board with the Missouri instances constantly up for inspection.—K. C. Times.

The newspaper correspondents have got the senators and sugar trust into a terrible predicament, and the country is anxiously watching the out come.

BUTLER, MO., JUNE 4, 1894.

ED. TIMES—I have been afflicted with my kidneys, as some of the doctors pronounce it Brights disease, for years, and within the past month I could scarcely get up when down, could hardly turn myself over in bed. I have spent lots of money for Warner's, Hood's and many other remedies for kidney troubles, and have been under the treatment of several eminent physicians, but got no relief, and while I was prostrated in bed. A few days ago a friend of mine told me that he had used some medicine prepared by D. G. Newsom, of Butler, expressly for kidney trouble and wanted me to try it. I had Mr. Newsom to put me up a bottle of the medicine. I commenced to take, as directed, and in less than five days I was relieved of all pain in my kidneys and back. I am 79 years of age and my kidneys and back are as strong and sound as ever they were in my life. As there are thousands of people, male and female, that are so afflicted, therefore I desire you to publish this letter in order that the public may know that such a medicine can be had by ceiling on D. G. Newsom. I cannot speak too highly of this medicine. One thousand dollars would be no inducement to me to be deprived of this medicine and afflicted as I was fifteen days ago. I consider myself permanently cured. These facts I will make affidavit to any day.
