Geo. Dinning'e Pardon.

Lexington, Ky., July 7.—Col. W. C. P. Breckenridge publishes an open letter to acting Gov. Worthington, asking him to pardon the negro, Geo. Dinning, who was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary for protecting his home against whitecaps, one of whom he killed. Mr. Breckenridge says

"Dinning is a negro, he is poor, he was a slave, he is a citizen, a man, a father, and it was his home and he was its defender. Manliness, courage, charity, unite to make outrages on poor, illiterate negroes cowardly and unspeakably base."

Stand by Hawkins.

Washington, D. C., July 7.--Post office department officials have determined to stand by F. N. Hawkins, the newly appointed postmaster at Strafford, in Green county. Hawkins was appointed postmaster by Gen. Bristow several weeks ago. He had won in a primary and was selected for that reason. In the first place, Hawkins lives miles from Strafford. The only room in town available for the postoffice was rented by the anti-Hawkins men Then Hawkins set up a postoffice in the sitting room of his house, and compelled the patrons to come one mile to his farm for their letters. A conspiracy was formed to drive Hawkins out of business. Post Office Inspector J. D Sullivan has just made a lengthy report on the case and the department has decided to stand by Hawkins.

Who can fail to take advantage of this offer. Send 10 cents to us for a generous trial size or ask your druggist. Ask for Ely's Cream Balm the most positive catarrh cure. Full size 50 cents.

I suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since a boy, and I never hoped for cure, but Ely's Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Oscar Ostrum, 45 Warren Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Reed's Nerve.

Washington, D C, July 7.—The House reassembled at noon to day, a continuation of Monday's session

Mr. McMillan of Tennessee put the Speaker in a hole. Rising to make a parliamentary inquiry, Mr. McMillian asked, this being a continuation of Monday's session, if it were not in order to move to suspend the rules and put a matter upon its passage?

Speaker Reed (after a moment's consideration): "The chair thinks it would be in order."

"Then," triumphantly shouted Mr. McMillan, "I move that we suspend the rules and put the Cuban belligerency resolution on its passage."

The Speaker, however, did not stay put out. Calmly turning to the Republican side he remarked:

"The gentleman from Maine is recognized."

After a moment's pause, and finding that Mr. Dingley was not likely to take the cue, he continued: "The gentleman moves that the House do now adjourn."

Roll was called and resulted: Yeas, 134; nays, 104. So the House adjourned until tomorrow.

Attention, Old Soldiers.

The manufacturers have instructed J. A. Trimble, Butler, Mo., to give a bottle of 25ct size of Foley's Colic Cure free to the first soldier of the civil war that applies for same. It is the great remedy for Chronic Diarrhoea, Cramp Colic and Bowel complaints.

Damage By Floods.

Paris, July 7.—Advices from the south of France show that the destruction by the floods there was greater than earlier reports indicated. The losses are estimated at 200,000,000 francs in the aggregate. Hardly a village has escaped damage and the number drowned is quite 300.

There is no ?About it.

No question indeed with those who have used it, but that Foley's Kidney Cure is absolutely reliable for all kidney and bladder diseases. J. A. Trimble, druggist, Butler Mo.

Eaten by Sharks.

London, July 8.—Details of the loss of the pilgrim steamer Sultan, which was dashed to pieces on the rocks off the Island of Socrata, are to the effect that a portion of the crew and passengers met death in a terrible manner.

The waters in the vicinity of the island swarm with sharks. On account of the high seas prevailing, the first boat lowered from the doomed steamer was dashed to pieces, and its load of human freight were torn and eaten by the sharks in sight of those remaining on the steamer.

KIDNEY DISEASES are the most fatal of all diseases.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE a GUARANTEED remedy or money refunded. Contains remedies recognized by all eminent physicians as the best for Kidney and Bladder troubles.

$20,000 Indemnity.

Washington, D. C., July 7.—The senate committee on foreign relations to day reported a resolution requesting the president to employ such means or exercise such power as may be necessary to obtain from the Spanish government $20.000 indemnity for the injuries and damages suffered by August Bolton and Gustave Richlieu, naturalized American citizens, for wrongful arrest and imprisonment by the Spanish authorities at Santiago de Cuba in 1895.

All efforts to settle the claims through the usual diplomatic channels has resulted in failure, the Spanish government flatly declined to discuss the matter. Senator Morgan gave notice as soon as the tariff bill passed the senate would be asked to take prompt action.

McKinley Accepts

Washington, D C, July 7.—President McKinley has positively decided to visit Chicago for the purpose of participating in the Logan monument dedication, July 22. This decision was arrived at when the president heard that the tariff bill is to be passed at once.

Twelve Reasons Why.

The St Louis Republic gives a dozen good reasons why newspaper readers should read the paper. Here they are:

1. The Republic is the greatest newspaper published.
2. It has a cable news service over the entire civilized world, which no other paper can secure.
3. Special correspondents in all the large cities and capitols of Europe.
4. News bureau in New York City and Washington, D. C
5. Special correspondents in every city and town in the western United States.
6. Members of the Associated Press, the greatest news gatherer in the world.
7. Publishes daily the market reports of the world.
8. Issues a magnificent colored magazine cover with the Sunday paper.
9. More noted writers and artists contribute to the Republic than any other paper.
10. Issues an unqualled four page comic weekly with each Sunday paper.
11. Publishes pages of interest and value to womankind.
12. Its 10 cent dress pattern department is the most popular feature ever introduced by a newspaper. Thousands patronize it.

The daily and Sunday St. Louis Republic is $6 a year, $3 for six months and $1.50 for three months. The Twice a week Republic is $1 a year—104 papers, two each week.
