GOV. WILLIAM J. STONE

WILL SPEAK at FARMINGTON, SATURDVY, SEPTEMBER 20TH, AT 1 P. M.

At Flat River That Night at 7 O'Clock.

Ex-Gov. Wm. J. Stone, the next United States Senator from Missouri, will speak at Farmington on Saturday of this week, Sept. 20, at 1 o'clock p. m.

He will also speak at Flat River Saturday night, Sept. 20, at 7 o'clock.

Don't fail to tell your friends, and get everybody to come out.

You will hear the greatest Democratic speech of the campaign.

The St. Louis boodlers are realizing that there is much truth in the proverb "Be sure your sin will find you out."

Remember that Hon. W. S. Cowherd of Kansas City will speak at the Court House to-night (Wednesday). Everybody should hear him.

Arkansas held its State election last week and Gov. Davis was re-elected by a majority of about 35,117, and a plurality of 46,050 over his Republican opponent.

The Poplar Bluff Sentinel grafts a short editorial from THE TIMES with the doubtful credit "Ex." If it were worth reproducing it ought to have been given proper credit.

Next week we will begin to print THE TIMES AND HERALD all at home. With a guaranteed circulation of 1,400 it is one of the best advertising mediums in Southeast Missouri.

Former Governor Boies of Iowa has been nominated for Congress by the Democrats against Speaker Henderson, and they claim that they will defeat the czar of the House with him.

How does President Roosevelt expect to regulate the trusts without removing the tariff on trust productions? To destroy the venom of a rattlesnake you must pull its fangs, or better, chop off its head.

The St. Louis boodlers find themselves up against it fast and hard and several of them want to "turn State's evidence" to try to save themselves; but City Attorney Folk has given them to understand that he is not short on evidence.

Mayor Tom Johnson of Cleveland has talked himself to a whisper in his Ohio campaign and has had to go home to have his vocal cords treated; but he is a man of wonderful resources and the Buckeye Republicans haven't heard the last of him—even his whispers will carry a long way.

The Beef Trust has about finished up its merging of all the big packing interests, to go into effect on the 27th inst. The President's little flurry and injunction proceedings didn't frighten them a little bit. Perhaps it was not intended to, else the criminal provisions of the Sherman anti-trust law would have been invoked.

Will the Republicans tell us what they propose to do with the State school and seminary funds if the most improbable of all things political should happen and they should carry Missouri? Their platform is a little vague on this subject. Do they favor repudiation? They say the State securities are not constitutional; then how do they propose to get the money on them and to invest the funds in "interest bearing form" or "distribute it in proper proportion among the various counties of the State," as their platform suggests? And where do they find constitutional authority for the latter proposition?

FANNING THE AIR.

The Scott County Kicker is mistaken in saying that THE TIMES is "getting in line." It has never been out of line on Democratic principles and issues, and the Kicker makes some woeful blunders in trying to maintain the Republican howl about the State school funds. It is fanning the air with its heels and thus sustaining its reputation as a kicker. The Kicker remarks:

> If Bro (the Editor of THE TIMES) says the certificates of debt are State bonds, and that our school and seminary funds are simply invested in non negotiable obligations of the State. If Bro Fisher had a note in his pocket signed by himself and payable to himself he would have a "non-negotiable obligation," of Bro. Fisher, wouldn't he?

The Kicker doesn't state the proposition fairly, but in this it is only imitating its Republican prototypes. Let us state the case for it. Suppose "Bro. Fisher" owes $3,000 for which Dick Roe, Tom Doe and John Smith hold negotiable notes, and he goes to the County Court and borrows $3,000 of the county school fund, executing his bond or certificate of indebtedness for the same, and with the money pays off the notes held by Doe, Roe and Smith, and destroys them. Doesn't he still owe $3,000? Not to Doe, Roe and Smith, for he has paid them and cancelled the notes held by them; not to himself, for that is an absurdity; but he does still owe $3,000 to the county school fund.

Now, let us change the principals in the case, and for convenience use the sum total of the State school and seminary funds, calling it in round numbers $4,400,000. Say the State owes Dick, Tom, Harry and the Kicker $4,400,000, represented by negotiable bonds of the State. Say there are in the State treasury, the bank, or in some other tangible form, $4,400,000 belonging to the State school and seminary funds. The State borrows this $4,400,000, and with it pays off the negotiable bonds held by Dick, Tom, Harry and the Kicker, takes up the bonds, cancels and destroys them, and then executes to the State Board of Education as trustees for the school and seminary funds evidences of debt to these funds. Doesn't the State still owe that $4,400,000? Not to Dick, Tom, Harry and the Kicker, for they have been paid and the bonds they held have been cancelled and destroyed; not to itself, for that would be as much of an absurdity as the silly idea of the individual owing himself; but the State does owe the State Board of Education as trustees for the school and seminary funds the sum of $4,400,000.

Has the Kicker ever read the form of the State certificates of indebtedness, and if so, does it see the point? We believe it does and that it has seen it all the time, for the active, vigorous grey matter back of its caustic editorial expressions gives ample evidence of shrewd penetration; but since it has essayed to be the propelling power of a professional Kicker, it must continue to kick, even if, like an excited mule, it finds nothing more substantial than thin air to kick against.

Yes, Brother Haffner, the State has had value received for every dollar represented by its certificates of indebtedness to the State school and seminary funds, it recognizes and acknowledges the debt, and as long as grand, solvent old Missouri is under Democratic rule, not one cent of that valid debt and honest obligation will ever be repudiated

The Democratic editors of the State met in St. Louis last Monday and effected an organization for campaign work. James T. Bradshaw of Chillicothe was elected president, R. M. White of Mexico recording secretary, and I. L. Page of Bonne Terre corresponding secretary. A vice-president from each Congressional district was elected, and that honor fell to E. L. Purcell of Fredericktown for the Thirteenth district. The officers and vice-presidents will constitute the executive committee of the association. In the evening the editors were entertained by the Jefferson Club, in whose elegant quarters a banquet was spread. Throughout the meeting and at the banquet the greatest of enthusiasm and harmony prevailed. There were about 120 editors present.

Pension Commissioner Ware has introduced an innovation in the Pension Bureau in filling important positions by promotions from among his best under officers instead of from outside on political pulls. He announces that "when merits are equal, and only when equal, will a Republican be taken instead of a Democrat." Among his recent promotions was an ex-Confederate. This will probably raise a howl about Commissioner Ware's ears by the politicians of his party, but the man merited his advance under the Commissioner's instructions and got it. These "literary fellers" have have a way of their own that the politicians don't always understand.

There are about twice as many Republicans as Democrats caught in the boodler's net set by City Attorney Folk in St. Louis, but as boodle, and principle, counts with that class, no partisan interence is to be drawn from the fact. There happened to be more Republicans than Democratic members of the City Council. The pickings is a fit place for all such public vermin exploraiie.

THE MISSOURI SITUATION.

An Independent Republican Newspaper Tells Why the State Will Not Go Republican This Year.

From the St. Louis Mirror.

Missouri will not go Republican this year. The reason is that Missouri Republicans don't deserve a victory. The leaders of that party don't care for the party or its principles. They are simply using the party to one end—the election of Mr. Richard Kerens to the United States Senate. They don't hope to carry the State. They simply wish to carry a few close counties for the Legislature and, in order to do this, they have to knife the State ticket or trade upon it.

The Republicans are in an absurd position, tied up with everything they have fought for years. They have a bogus issue in the claim that the Democrats have robbed the State. They can't prove their charges. They howl about the Nesbit election law as an infamy. The law is as fair as any election law in any State. But Republicans framed the original law that made the police force a state machine. They yelp that school funds have disappeared, but every county clerk knows that his county's share comes regularly to hand. The Republicans are making a great deal of noise, but their real work is subterranean in the close counties, to secure legislative votes for Mr Kerens for Senator. And the Republicans have made just enough noise to bring out the Democrats. They have scored the Democrats just enough to make them retire some of the veteran managers and put young men in their places. The Republicans have simply put the Democrats on their mettle by all their hubbub. They have not an issue that will stick, that will bear analysis. Their tactics in the Phelps-Populist deal are those of the ostrich hiding his head in the sand. They simply cannot win, for their cards are no good, and besides, they have "slipped their hand" to the enemy. Mr. Kerens had better save his money. Most of it is going into the hands of men who will vote for William J. Stone for Senator. Mr. Kerens is being robbed of every dollar he puts up to the support of the Phelps-Meriwether movement.

21 Years a Dyspeptic.

R. H. Foster, 318 S. 3d St., Salt Lake City, writes: "I have been bothered with dyspepsia or indigestion for 21 years; tried many doctors without relief; I got a bottle of Herbine. One bottle cured me, I am now tapering off on the second. I have recommended it to my friends, it is curing them, too." 50c at City Drug Store.
