LONG FACES.—What a sad mistake it is to suppose that a man should be gloomy because he is devout; as if misery were acceptable to God on its own account, and happiness an offence against his dignity. A modern writer says:

"There is a secret unbelief among some men that God is displeased with man's happiness, and so they think about creation, ashamed and afraid to enjoy anything."

These are the people of whom Tom Hood says: "They think they're pious when they are only bilious." A good man is almost always a cheerful one. It is fit that bad men should scowl, look blue and melancholy, but he who has God's smile of approbation upon him should show its radiance in his countenance. Dr. Johnson said he "never knew a villain in his life that was not, on the whole, an unhappy dog."

But an honest man—the man with a good conscience, let him enjoy his sleep and his dinner, and love his wife and the prattle of his children, and show a beaming face to his neighbor. Surely, there is no worse theology than that which teaches that he who has given such fullness of joy to beast and bird, delights in the misery of men; or that, having been filled with gladness, we ought to give the lie to His goodness by wearing faces beclouded with woe and furrowed by pretended unhappiness.

NOT SEEN IT!—Not seen the New Davis Sewing Machine? Then you don't know anything about pleasure in doing your sewing, and never will know what comfort is until you have seen and operated this perfect machine. It is well calculated to make mankind happier and better on earth and, therefore, no less fitted for the great hereafter. The 'Davis' should be in every home. It makes the tired mother, and over-worked housewife more cheerful. It brings back the smiles and banishes the blues caused by using the old cumbersome and heavy machines.

A GENTLE HINT.—Mrs. Blinks (to her neighbor)—Oh, I do so like your house! It seems so homelike. Mrs. Jinks—I want to know! Mrs. Blinks—Yes, you've got so much of my cooking dishes borrowed, you know, your kitchen seems ever so more natural to me than mine does.—Lawrence American.

NOTHING OMITTED.—Indignant Tourist (To hotel manager who had just presented his bill)—See here. You have charged me fifty centimes for writing paper, and you know very well that you have not furnished me a scrap. Manager—But, monsieur, it is for the paper on which your bill is made out.—Liverpool Post.

"Me and that off horse has been workin' for the company for twelve years now." Passenger—"That so! The company must think a great deal of you both."

"Wall, I dunno; last week the two of us was taken sick, and they got a doctor for the horse and they decked me. Gid-up there now, Betsy."

A certain philanthropist buys a large quantity of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup every winter and gives it to the poor suffering from coughs and colds. There is not a case of neuralgia which cannot be at once relieved by the use of Salvation Oil. At all drug stores. Price only 25 cents a bottle.

SUNSHINE.—Do you want peace and sunshine in your home? Do you wish to renew the bloom in the sweet face of your wife? Would you have the brightness return to the dimmed eye, as she struggles to share the burden of life? If so, buy for her, without delay, one of the New High Arm Davis Sewing Machines.

What are you doing now, Gus? said one young man about town to another. Oh, I write for a living. No; I write to father about twice a month for a remittance—Merchant Traveler.

SCRAPS.—The mantle of justice is an appropriate court dress.

The athlete makes practice of jumping his spring board.

Lightning strikes without the assistance of a walking delegate.

Consider the lilies. They toil not but they are expensive.

When a train is telescoped the passengers are apt to see stars.

What is GASTORIA

Casteria is Dr. Sam'l Fitcher's old, harmless and quick cure for Infants' and Children's Complaints. Superior to Castor Oil, Paregoric or Narcotic Syrup. Children cry for Casteria. Milk-Moms of Mothers bless Casteria.

Casteria cures Colic, Constipation; Sour Stomach, Indigestion, Eructation; Gives healthy sleep; also aids digestion; Without narcotic stupefaction.

"I recommend Casteria for children's complaints, as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. AUSTIN, M.D., 151 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N.Y.

THE CHESTER COMPANY, 77 Murray St., New York.

BOYS, GIVE THE GIRLS A RIDE!

HAVING made arrangements for the sale of the goods of several of the largest and leading manufacturers of both light and heavy vehicles in the world, I am now prepared to furnish the people of St. Mary's with almost any imaginable vehicles on wheels. As all goods will be sold direct from the manufacturers, competition in material, workmanship, general get up and prices are defied. This is not "wind," but solid truth. Old vehicles taken in part payment for new four wheel ones. Cattle will be taken in full payment for all kinds. Horses and second hand vehicles always for sale. In connection with the above, I am selling, direct from the factory, all kinds of implements used by the farmer, from a wheelbarrow to the largest Traction Engine. Have on hand now and for sale cheap two 8 horse power portable engines, of the Waterbury make, second to none on the market, which are in perfect order, and will be guaranteed to give satisfaction. Having had several years experience in the machine business, and being familiar with all kinds of agricultural machinery, I will act as expert, at moderate charge, in repairing any machine broken or out of kilter. Water forced from spring to house or barn, by wind mill or ram, at a surprisingly low figure. Fertilizers sold from the well-known house of Baugh & Sons. Any person or persons wanting anything in my line and who will be so kind as to drop me a postal, stating what they want, I will gladly call on them with samples or cuts, and, if low prices be any inducements, will be able to make a deal. I will further more state that I will auctioneer sales in St. Mary's and adjoining counties. Hoping to receive a fair patronage of St. Mary's I am, respectfully,

J. A. RENEHAN, Oakley, St. Mary's county, Md.

ONE PRICE STRICTLY CASH STORE

again calls your attention to a large stock of Spring and Summer Goods of every variety known to be kept in one house where prices stand out in plain figures. What ONE PAYS ALL PAY. Sold for one close quick profit. Taking no risk with the credit ledger—not making you pay those heavy losses which certainly must be made up. When a merchant has 5 and 10 dollars credit out for every dollar he is worth, somebody must take the risk of selling them on time. Certainly in these hard times it behooves every honest and well thinking person to look to where they can save something on their purchases. I am still leading in DRY GOODS of every description, FURNITURE, READY-MADE CLOTHING, both for gents, youths and children's wear, CARPETS, BOOTS and SHOES, &c., &c. Standing upon merit alone, fair and square to all, I shall be pleased to show you through. Yours to count on,
