News Items from Rt. 3.

A surprise party was given in honor of Henry Weier's birthday at his father's home in Bernadotte Sunday evening. It was enjoyed by a large crowd who spent the evening in dancing.

The 25th anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fisher of the Town of Lafayette occurred Monday, Nov. 18th and Sunday a hundred or more friends of the worthy couple surprised them at their home, bringing many valuable gifts for their hosts in honor of the happy occasion.

Twenty-six years ago Mr. Fisher came to America from Hanover, Germany and settled in Nicollet County. A year later he was married to Miss Laura Heyn, also of Hanover, and they settled down on a farm near Nicollet. They lived in that neighborhood for about ten years. All of their married life has been spent in Nicollet County and the past nine years they have lived where they now reside. Six children were born to them, five of whom are still living, one daughter and four sons. One son is married.

The many guests greatly enjoyed the hours spent with the jubilarians and departed wishing them many more years of happy married life.

The Thresher's dance given at the Bierauge place by the Clobes threshers was well attended.

Conrad Alex, our mail carrier is getting to be pretty up-to-date. Why? He's delivering mail with a Brush automobile now.

Corn husking is nearing its end. There was some good corn all along this route, one farmer averaging up to 90 bu. per acre.

The card party which the ladies of the Auxiliary to the Catholic Church Extension Society announced last week for Nov. 26th has been postponed to a later date on account of other plans of the various church societies for that day and will not occur for some weeks.

Frank Beiersdorf who has been operator and ticket seller at the Northwestern passenger depot for about five years will be transferred to the position of station agent at St. Peter as soon as a relief clerk can be supplied for this point which will probably be within the week. The family will move to St. Peter also as soon as the transfer is made.

$25 Reward

I will pay the above amount to anyone who will furnish evidence which will lead to the arrest and conviction of the parties who cut down a bee tree on my farm in the town of Cottonwood last week. The trespassers should be more careful about leaving evidence behind. A torn copy of the Brown County Journal bearing the owner's name was found where the tree had stood.
