ABOUT THE STATE

News of Especial Interest to Minnesota Readers.

SENATE COMBINE DEFEATED

Attempt to Take Power of Naming Committees From Lieutenant Governor Fails.

Both branches of the state legislature opened their 1913 sessions in the capitol at St. Paul.

Nominated as the Henry Clay of Minnesota, Representative Henry Rines of Mora was elected speaker of the house by a vote of 101 to 19 for Frank E. Minnette of Sauk Center, the Democratic nominee. It was a strict party vote, with the exception that the candidates for speaker voted for each other, and Lewis W. Vasaly, Democrat, voted for Mr. Rines. Every member was present.

In the senate Lieutenant Governor Burnquist took the oath of office and the body got immediately down to business.

Senator Duxbury of Houston county and Senator Sullivan of Washington county began a fight on the floor of the senate to deprive Lieutenant Governor J. A. A. Burnquist, the presiding officer, of the power of making committee appointments. The senators introduced a resolution to deprive Lieutenant Governor Burnquist of his authority to name committees and putting all such power in the hands of the senate. The resolution was defeated—43 to 16.

Elective officers of the senate are: Secretary, G. W. Peachey; first assistant secretary, E. B. Shanks; second assistant secretary, Henry Burkhard; sergeant-at-arms, James H. Ege; assistant sergeant-at-arms, R. A. Christensen; chaplain, Rev. A. D. Stowe; enrolling clerk, N. C. Koel; engrossing clerk, Harry Nordholm.

Elective officers of the house are: Oscar Arneson, chief clerk; G. O. Hage, first assistant clerk; Crawford Sheldon, enrolling clerk; Carl Rasmussen, engrossing clerk; S. A. Simonson, sergeant-at-arms; W. J. Pomplum, assistant sergeant-at-arms; W. P. Kelley, postmaster; O. V. Randall, assistant postmaster; Rev. G. W. Lutz, chaplain.

INAUGURATED THIRD TIME

Adolph O. Eberhart Sworn in as Governor of Minnesota.

Before a joint session of the legislature Adolph O. Eberhart was inaugurated governor of Minnesota for the third time.

Galleries and floor were crowded. Several women were present, including Mrs. Eberhart. Liberal applause greeted the governor as he read portions of his message, especially those relating to the protection of women and children, reapportionment, good roads and other popular recommendations. Women present made a demonstration in favor of suffrage.

In the senate Ole Sageng of Otter Tail county presented a bill providing for a constitutional amendment giving the right of suffrage to Minnesota women. The bill was the first that passed over the clerk's desk.

The initiative, referendum and recall were also among the measures referred to committees.

Senator Moonan presented a bill providing for a vote in 1914 on the question of holding a convention to revise the constitution.

DIVES UNDER CAR TO DEATH

Sensational Suicide of Corporal Near Fort Snelling.

As Motorman Eldon Froling of St. Paul was running a Snelling-Minnehaha car at a moderate rate of speed toward the Fort Snelling bridge a soldier from the fort was walking toward the car. When the car came abreast of the man he suddenly turned and dived directly under the wheels. He was killed instantly. His neck was broken and one arm was cut off.

The soldier was Corporal Anthony Blackestrom, Company H, Ninth infantry.

Corporal Blackestrom, according to several soldiers, had overstayed a leave of absence and had been searched for throughout St. Paul for several days by officers and soldiers from the post.

TWO KILLED BY A TRAIN

Woodsman and Former Brakeman Meet Death.

The frozen bodies of two men were found lying eight miles apart alongside the Duluth and Northern Minnesota railroad tracks.

One was identified as Sam Urbon, woodsman, aged thirty-two. The other was that of Ed Gallagher, thirty-two years old, single, formerly a brakeman on the Duluth and Northern Minnesota railroad.

Marks on the bodies showed the men had been struck by a train.

St. Paul Warehouse Burns.

Fire at St. Paul believed to have started from a plumber's lamp in the basement gutted half of the old warehouse of the Chicago Great Western railroad and caused a loss of $50,000 before it was gotten under control.

HONOR GOVERNOR EBERHART

Thousands Attend Inaugural Reception at St. Paul.

All Minnesota paid honor to Governor Eberhart when the first inaugural reception given in twenty years was held at the capitol at St. Paul. The reception brought out a gathering that has not been equaled in representative citizenship of the state since Governor Merriam, years ago, was feted in the old capitol.

St. Paul was represented at the inaugural by hundreds. Scores came from Minneapolis. Delegations from various places over the state emphasized the public nature of the reception.

There were 6,500 present at the reception, it was estimated. Practically all of the thousands present passed by the receiving line to congratulate the governor and Mrs. Eberhart—to acknowledge formally the re-election of the state's chief executive.

MINISTER ENDS HIS LIFE

Former St. Paul Pastor Kills Self at Cincinnati.

Enough commercial cyanide to kill 1,000 persons—the photograph of a beautiful young woman, on the back of which was scribbled "Auf Wiedersehn," and a closely written letter comprising thirty-one pages dealing with the incidents of a life of romance and adventure are the evidences of suicide discovered in the room of Rev. August E. F. Schade, former St. Paul minister, whose body is lying in the county morgue at Cincinnati.

Dr. Schade was seventy-two years of age. His death, according to the officials at Cincinnati, is one of the most remarkable cases on record there, in that the circumstances are mysterious, tragic and interesting.

PERISH IN BURNING HOME

Woman and Her Invalid Mother Lose Their Lives.

Miss K. E. Barentzen, aged fifty-six, and her invalid mother, Mrs. Chestine M. Barentzen, aged eighty-three, lost their lives in a fire which destroyed the home of James N. Hoffman in Bungo, a town west of Pine River. The house with its contents was destroyed.

Mr. Hoffman left in the early morning and when he returned late in the day found the house burned and fallen in and the women missing. Coroner Kiskella of Cass Lake was summoned and visited the scene, but found only fragments of bones and a small piece of human flesh in the wreckage in the cellar.

MINNEAPOLIS FLOUR OUTPUT

Mills Set New High Mark for the Year 1912.

Running ahead of the most sanguine estimates made by the millers the Minneapolis flour output for 1912 reached the total of 17,031,935 barrels. The Northwestern Miller has finished its annual compilation and its summary carries the authoritative figures. The production was not only far in excess of the 15,795,470 barrels in 1911, but it is nearly a million barrels greater than the production of the great milling year of 1902, when, in the calendar year, 16,260,105 barrels were turned out and which was the Minneapolis record until 1912.

ADMINISTRATOR TO PRISON

Fergus Falls Man, Short in Accounts, Given Indeterminate Sentence.

John C. Peterson, the professional administrator, who was short in his accounts with several estates, asked that he be allowed to plead guilty in the district court at Fergus Falls. The court sentenced him to Stillwater for an indeterminate period. Mr. Peterson dealt in wheat and stocks and mixed trust funds with his own. He was a man of considerable means and turned over all of his property to his bondsmen some time ago.

Boy Kills Brother in Play.

John Hruska, Jr., twelve years old, son of John Hruska, a prominent Steele county farmer, was shot and killed by his little brother, nine years of age. The boys were playing warfare and secured an old army rifle, supposedly useless. They loaded the weapon and it is thought that the child pulled the trigger with the gun pointed at his brother.

Two Railroad Men Killed.

Martin J. Booze, switchman, was killed and Solm Stonniker, trainman, sustained injuries which caused his death two hours later, when they were crushed between freight cars in the Shoreham yards of the Soo Line at Minneapolis. Mistaken signals on the part of the switching crew are believed to have caused the accident.

Great Lakes Veteran Dies.

Captain Alex R. Sinclair, well known veteran of the Great Lakes, who for a number of years has been a vessel broker in Duluth, died at Port Huron, Mich. Previous to his taking up vessel brokerage Captain Sinclair commanded boats on Lake Superior.
