THE CITY.

CITY GLOBULES.

The internal revenue collections yesterday, amounted to $1,111.

The First Regiment band did not hold their picnic at Banholzer park last evening.

The city treasurer will disburse $12,000 to-morrow, for work done under city contracts.

The Chippewa Indians who called on Gov. Hubbard on Friday simply did so to pay that gentleman their respects.

The plat commission met yesterday and approved the plan of Bryant's re-arrangement of block 124, West St. Paul proper.

General surprise and regret are expressed that the St. Paul club consents to play a public match game of ball at White Bear to-day.

Suit was brought in the United States circuit court yesterday by C. Aultman against W. T. Luke and others to enforce payment of a note for $1,051.

Since January last the fish commissioners have planted 6,000,006 fish and now Mr. Watkins has gone up into the Superior country for more trout.

The boys with a higher wire in the burned district on Eight street west of Central fire hall on which they acrobat are paving the way to break their necks.

Thomas Ryan and James Allen were arrested last night and locked up for over Sunday on the ground of being very suspicious characters, and they looked it.

A meeting of the Fourth district Democratic congressional committee will be held at the Nicollet house, Minneapolis, at 2 o'clock p. m. on Wednesday the 18th instant.

About 11:30 last night a small fire was discovered in Pratt's wood yard, on Sixth street, between Robert and Minnesota, which was easily and quickly extinguished with small loss.

The jury in the case of John Rogers vs. the National German American bank brought in a verdict at 7 o'clock yesterday afternoon giving Rogers $1,000 damages in place of the $12,000 sued for.

Friends of Elias Seibert and Charles Eighler are requested to call on McCarthy & Donnelly and inform them of the places of burial of such deceased as there are head stones at the depot for such names and must be claimed at once.

Nick Duffy was found on a street corner last night trying to call up the central from one of the government warts on a lamp post and when Officer Lowell ordered him to take a walk, he became mad and broke the lights. He was waltzed to the tamer.

Karl Crapenduffer, from the royal house of Hapsburg, was arrested yesterday afternoon on the charge of breaking into trunks at the Germania house on Fifth street, and stealing therefrom a couple of watches. It must be said that the case against him looks thin.

A warrant was issued yesterday for the arrest of E. Wyland on the charge of disorderly conduct. The complainant is Mrs. Zahm, his mother-in-law, who asserts that he visited the house a few days ago, drew a revolver and threatened to clean out the place.

The ladies of Plymouth church, will give a strawberry and lawn festival on the pleasant grounds at Capt. Peter Berkey's, 163 College avenue, on Thursday evening next, at 8 o'clock. All are invited to come and enjoy the music, ice cream and strawberries. Come and have a good time.

County Auditor McCardy filed with Clerk Bell of the district court yesterday a list of all delinquent tax payers of the county who failed to pay their assessments by June 1. They will be advertised for twenty days and judgment will be entered against the parties and proceedings taken to legally collect the same by property sale.

The great growth of our city will be shown by the forthcoming edition of the directory published by R. L. Polk & Co., who say that more changes occur than, in our former edition, and any errors omissions or changes will be corrected by persons calling at room, Chamber of Commerce, or sending the information by postal card.

Rev. M. W. Montgomery, superintendent of home missions for Minnesota, who has just returned from a European trip, will speak at Park Congregational church, corner Mackubin street and Holly avenue, upon "Recent religious movements in Sweden and Norway," this evening at 8 o'clock. The pastor will preach in the morning upon "The Unwritten of our Savior's Life."

It is a meritorious object, that of young Herman Knauff, in selling lithographs of the accident which befell him, as no one who sees the little fellow, will begrudge the money they may pay for the picture, which is a terrible warning to other boys, and of great service to the street car company. The poor little cripple was on the street yesterday, having been confined to his room over three months.

Last Friday the GLOBE published an interview with Bryan confiend in the county jail on the charge of forging pre-empti on entries, in the course of which Byam reflected on the treatment accorded him by Deputy Marshal Major Brackett. Yesterday Byam explained that it was not his intention to reflect on Major Brackett, as the latter had been very kind in giving him a chance to procure bail, etc.

Suit was begun in the United States circuit court yesterday by M. A. Russel & Co. against Griggs & Foster, the action being for a perpetual injunction restraining the defendants from erecting a wooden building on east Third street, between Broadway and Pine streets. The action grew out of the destruction by fire of Griggs & Foster's warehouse, some months ago, and the subsequent action of the council giving the defendents leave to erect a frame building.

After being on trial nearly all the week the case of John Rogers vs. the National German American bank for damages for trespass was given to the jury by charge of Judge Brill late yesterday afternoon. In his charge the judge said the plaintiff was entitled to a verdict for damages by the bank's building its retaining wall on his property near the barn, and that the question of nominal trespass by building said wall over the line in the rear of the premises, otherwise than in the locality of the barn, was one for the jury to determine.

LIMA PERU.—Senorita Matilda Guevara, says: "Mamma has suffered for months with paralysis of the facial muscles. She has been wonderfully relieved by the use of St. Jacobs Oil, the great pain-cure.

LOCAL MENTION.

Necessity Compels

the announcement that the auction sale of dry goods will continue one more week at 422 Wabashaw street.

Business Chance.

Wishing to retire from business I offer my stock of piece goods, furnishing goods and show case and shelving for sale at a great bargain. A good chance for any one desiring to go into this business to get a clean stock and a good stand at a bargain. Hass, the Tailor, 116 East Third street.

Card of Thanks.

We wish in this public manner to express our kind appreciation to M. Doran, Chas. Friend, my fellow workmen and other friends, for their kindness to us, on account of our losing everything we possessed at the Seventh street fire, Saturday morning, June 14.

MARTIN SEEGER AND WIFE.

St. Paul Choral Society.

A meeting of the society will be held at College hall, on Monday evening, the 16th instant at 8 o'clock sharp.

All who participated in the recent programme of Handel's Messiah are urgently requested to respond promptly to this notice as matter of direct interest will be submitted for consideration and decisive action. E. F. Brigham, Sec.

Attention is Called this morning to the large list of real estate advertised for sale at auction by P. T. Kavanagh.

Two counters, twenty-four feet long, and a handsome shelving with twenty-seven drawers, twenty-four feet long, for sale at Anderson's old carpet stand, corner of Robert and Third, also a handsome lamp chandelier.

Do Not Forget that Kavanagh sells six fine lots on Dayton's Bluff at auction on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Mr. John Matheis,

Our prince of carpet men, has purchased the entire stock of W. L. Anderson, and is closing it out at astonishing bargains at No. 325 Robert street. Consult his advertisement on the fifth page of to-day's paper. It not only presents opportunities in this special sale, but offers many bargains to be obtained from his old reliable headquarters at Fo. 17 East Third street.

Notice.

Parties holding St. Paul Union Depot parcel checks previous to June 11, 1884, are hereby notified to present same on or before June 20th, 1884. After which all claims will be void.
167-171 C. RILEY, Lessee, 293 Sibley St.

Kavanagh Sells

four fine lots on Rice street near Iglehart at 12 m. to-morrow. Parties in search of business sites please take a note of this.

St. Paul vs. Washington.

Hurrah for the St. Paul boys, the reason why the St. Paul guards carried off the prize at Lake Minnetonka by beating the Washington company through their easy movements was all because of their wearing easy shoes, the celebrated BURT'S shoes from the St. Paul Agency, 89 East Third street.

Kavanagh Sells

Altoona, Wis., June 5, 1884—S. Blackford, Proprietor of Dr. Halliday's Blood Purifier and other remedies: Sir:I Received your letter and the Blood Purifier, which I was in need of very much. It is the best medicine in the world. I am feeling better than I ever did in my life, and am getting so fat I don't know myself. I will be in St. Paul next week, and if you want to refer any one to me, tell them to call on or write me at the Omaha Railroad shops. My business is painter. Yours Respt., J. LE CLAIRE.

A Very Desirable

block of six lots at the corner of Pleasant avenue, Oak and Sixth streets will be sold at auction at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

The Ohio Central Barge and Coal Co. have removed their office from 323 Jackson street to 167 East Fourth street, first door from corner of Jackson, in the Davidson building, where they will be pleased to see their old customers, and such new ones as may favor them with their trade. A full stock of hard and soft coal, and all kinds of wood constantly on hand at lowest prices. Special attention given to prompt delivery of all orders.

Base ball at White Bear, Sunday—Northwestern league—Quincy vs. St. Paul. Trains leave Union Depot 10:05 a. m., 1:35, 2:15, 6:05, 7:15, 9:00 p. m, Returning, reaves the lake 7:10, 8:25 a. m.; 12:15, 6:10, 10:00 p. m. Fare, round trip, 50 cents.

A Model Establishment.

Mr. Joseph Ellis, one of our newest, but best known liquor men in St. Paul, has in stock at present a particularly fine line of wines, whiskies Holland and other gins, etc., etc. His business has assumed such large proportions that he now, in fact, represents one of the principal wholesale features in St, Paul's trade. It is unnecessary to mention the class of goods he keeps as they have already gained a wide spread reputation.

That they are the best, every one knows unless there may perhaps be some outside person who has not yet come in contact with the exquisite quality of liquors which Ellis presents to his customers. If there is such a person let him call at 444 Wabashaw street and we guarantee he will immediately join the army of people who bear testimony to the quality of his goods.

Those in Search of really valuable central property will attend the action sale at the corner of Pleasant avenue, Sixth and Oak streets, at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Great Reduction in the Price of Fuel.

The Northwestern Fuel company have reduced the price of coal, and are now offering best quality of Scranton coal for present delivery and cash as follows:
Grate and Egg at $8.50, delivered.
Store and Nut at $8.75, delivered.
And all grades of Bituminous Coal at proportionately low prices.

Grand National Military Encampment, held at Dubuque, June 16 to 21. Diamond Jo Line Excursion leaves St. Paul, June 12th, 15th and 17th. Round trip with meals and berth, $11.75. Go and enjoy yourself

A Better Feeling.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., June 13.—Yesterday's uneasiness over the failure of the State bank has somewhat subsided, but many depositors are much agitated over their loss of money, while others take matters easy and hope for the best. There was a slight run on the Kanawha Valley bank early to-day, but all calls were met and the run stopped after a few minutes. This bank is strong and prepared for a run. Col. Hogeman and George Couch, assignees of the bursted bank, are getting out a statement which will be made public. The arrest of the officials is reported, but up to a late hour no one is in hock.

And Again it is "No."

ST. LOUIS, June 12.—A Republican of this city in referring to Mr. Tilden's letter, having interpreted it to mean that when Mr. Tilden is nominated he will not refuse to be a candidate of the Democracy, the Evening Chronicle telegraphed Mr. Tilden asking him if that was the proper construction to be placed on his letter. The telegram was referred by Mr. Tilden to Daniel Manning, chairman of the Democratic state central committee, who replied: "Mr. Tilden's letter means what it says. His declination is absolute. Under no circumstances will he be a candidate."

Catholics Rejoicing.

LONDON, June 13.—Catholic journals throughout England and the continent are full of rejoicings over Belgium's elections in which the Liberals were defeated by the clericals. The Tablets trusts the Catholics will grasp the reigns firmly, and that the first step of the cabinet will be to send the senate to the people to get purged and be returned with the liberal majority broken.
