CITY GLOBULES.

Inspector of steamboats, Gen. Flower, visited Stillwater yesterday and inspected the steamboat "Bock."

Comptroller Roche on yesterday received the contracts for paving St. Peter, Broadway, Fifth and other streets, amounting in all to $95,000.

A social meeting of the council is called for 4 o'clock this afternoon to pass upon the report of the committee on police and transact other business.

The board of equalization was again in in session yesterday afternoon, but will not make their reductions in personal tax assessments public until their final adjournment.

The noise of the pavement excavations on Fifth, between Wabashaw and Cedar streets, were so tumultous yesterday that the district court adjourned after hearing a single case.

A venerable damsel named Nancy Davis was arrested at the corner of Fifth and Minnesota streets yesterday afternoon, paralyzed drunk. She was given the sky parlor at the tower.

The attention of the board of health is called to a filthy cesspool at the corner of Robinson and Fairfield avenues in the Sixth ward, which perfumes the air with its vileness for blocks around.

Among the amusements this week are football, baseball, tub and swimming races at Lake Elmo next Thursday, under the auspices of Grace M. E. church and Sunday school.

Complaint was entered at the city hall last evening of a one legged cripple on crutches who is going about De Bow and St. Paul streets making indecent exposure of his person before children.

The committee on police of the council held a meeting yesterday afternoon, and passed upon a number of applications for positions on the police force. The report of the committee will be submitted at the next meeting of the council.

H. Liebe has established himself at 327 Wabashaw street, where he is putting up after the French style that rare delicacy the Strausbury liver pie in cans, and when the game season comes on will put up similarly, venison, quail, prarie chickens, etc.

A bright looking young fellow named Geo. Hagan was arrested yesterday afternoon on on the charge of attempting to pick the pocket of a German at an emigrant boarding house. He was before Judge Burr and the hearing was continued until to-day.

With reference to the entrance of burglars to the provision store corner of Sixth and Wabashaw, an account of which appeared in yesterday's issue of the GLOBE, it may be said that the booty secured consisted of thirty-five cents and a few cigars. Entrance was made through a side door which was only fastened with a chisel, and the insignificant robbery was undoubtedly committed by bad boys.

The new Sherman building, corner Ninth and Wabashaw streets, has reached a height of four stories above the block of stores therein, and the work of putting on the front roof cornice has been commenced. The inscription "Sherman Building" is finely cut in raised granite letters on its front. The block of Louis Eisenmenger joining the the new Sherman building on the south had an elegant roof cornice placed on its front yesterday, of quite elaborate ornamentation.

Mr. Carl F. Espenschade, Mifflintown, Juniata Co., Penna., writes, that he was injured severely, but by applying St. Jacobs Oil, he was cured at once.

Police Regulations.

Chief Clark, of the St. Paul police, issued the following general order yesterday:

From and after this date all police officers will take notice that a general alarm will consist of six steam whistles, repeated three times. At this signal every member of the force, whether on or off duty, will report at headquarters immediately equipped with belts, clubs and revolvers.

Chief Clark also ordered Capt. Bresette to make the following changes in the location of the force yesterday: Sergeant Morgan and Roundsman Hanft to be relieved from duty in lower town, and to take charge of the upper town district, and Sergeant Walsh and Roundsman Murphy to be relieved from duty in the upper town and take charge of the lower town district.

The Body Found.

The body of the little nine-year-old boy that fell from a barge on the upper levee about a week ago was found in the river yesterday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, in the rear of elevator A. The coroner and the parents of the boy were notified. It is not expected that an inquest will be held, as there is no doubt as to the cause of his death being accidental. The body was removed to the residence of his parents.

Bad House Pulled.

Margaret Delfs, an old offender, brought in three times before on the same complaint, was pulled by Officer Toory last evening, at Swede Hollow, on the charge of keeping a house of ill-fame, and Louisa Swret, A. Smidt and A. Pathault, who were visiting the same, were also put under lock and key.

KAVANAGH'S AUCTIONS.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE—The estate of the late James O'Farrell, deceased, to be sold at auction. I will sell at auction on Saturday, August 2, at 10 o'clock a. m., on the premises, on Fifth street, between Maple avenue, Hope and Arcade streets, a large tract of ground, about 165x629 feet, together with large dwelling of twelve rooms, belonging to the estate of the above named gentleman. This property is finely situated, having a commanding position overlooking a large portion of the city and river. Can be advantageously converted into building sites that will command immediate sale at good figures. Terms cash.

JAMES H. O'FARRELL, Administrator.
P. T. KAVANAGH,
209-214 Auctioneer.

WEBER PIANOS.

Acknowledged by Artists the Best in the World.

I know of none superior to the Weber and none that can compete with them for durability.—Teresa Carreno.

The tone of the Weber Piano is so sweet, rich and sympathetic, yet so full, that I shall always rank you as the greatest manufacturer of the day.—Emma Thursby.

Weber Pianos excel all others in volume of tone and in power of expression.—S. Liebling.

There are no Pianos in the world that sustain the voice like the Weber.—Emma Abbott.
