OUR BALTIMORE LETTER.

BALTIMORE, March 23.

The sensation of last week was the disclosure of the defalcation of William A. Wisong, treasurer of the Poor Association.

All big politicians were in the city last Tuesday, including Senator Gorman. They say they have not agreed upon a candidate for Governor but will wait to see the strength of the several aspirants.

for the farmer to assert his rights and make his influence felt. Let the agricultural interests unite upon one of their number for Governor, say a man like Frank Brown, and the managers will not say nay.

The White House was stormed Saturday night by a young man named Henry Martin, who was under the influence of liquor.

The Kansas Senatorial election is but a sign of the times. It is the handwriting on the wall, and the machine Belshazzars, no matter of what party, had better take warning.

The original and only genuine Compound Oxygen Treatment, that of Drs. Starkey & Palen, is a scientific adjustment of the elements of Oxygen and Nitrogen.
