sent to friends and acquaintances outside of the city. The success of the Carnival Music and Song Folio is now assured, and its enormous sale will be the reward of the skill, time, labor and expense employed in its publication.

Battle of Gettysburg.

The panorama of the Battle of Gettysburg is in position, except a few finishing touches, and will be opened to the public early this week. It will be opened to the stockholders and representatives of the press to-morrow afternoon, when a reception will be held from 2 to 5 o'clock.

Carnival Notes.

Uncle Sam's Toboggan club reorganized last night with Dr. David Ray, president; George W. Hardacre, vice president; J. A. Kamp, captain; James Norris, lieutenant; W. M. Abrahauson, secretary and treasurer.

Employes at the Omaha railroad shops have organized the "Devil's Own" Toboggan club, with T. Burns captain and A. Dinan lieutenant. Those who want information concerning the club are requested to communicate with William Warren, at the Omaha shops.

The annual meeting of the Wacouta Toboggan club was held last evening, and the following officers were elected: President, M. M. Williams; secretary and treasurer, H. B. Brown; captain, S. Gilbert; lieutenant, G. W. Parker. The club has now 100 members, and will unite with the mushka Toboggan club in building a slide on Crocus hill.

Thirty members of the Columbia Snow Shoe club took a run to Woodruff's hall, at Merriam Park, last night. The start was made from the Merchants hotel and the distance was covered in an hour and thirty minutes. The St. George's challenge will be considered at a meeting of the Columbias' on Monday night. The club now numbers ninety-eight, and is very enthusiastic.

GLOBULES.

Bishop Gilbert will officiate at Christ church on Christmas day at 11 o'clock.

The Seventh street dime museum will give bon-bons to childreat the Friday matinee.

Christmas Day Sackett & Wiggins' museum will be open at 10 a. m. On Friday bon bons will be distributed to children.

The Great Western band has arranged for a new uniform suitable for carnival use, being semi-military and toboggan in style.

Dr. P. A. Heitz, a well-known Minnesotan, who is thoroughly experienced in medicine and surgery, has just located in Lawton block, corner Dakota and Chicago avenues, West St. Paul.

The Select Knights, A. O. U. W., will give a ball in Turner hall Jan. 13, the proceeds of which will go towards entertaining the supreme legion of the world, which will meet here in biennial conclave in the fall of next year.

John Enright, a stonecutter employed on the new court house, had his right leg badly crushed by a falling stone yesterday afternoon. He was taken to his boarding house, at the corner of Fifth and Cedar streets, by the patrol sleigh.

Work has been begun on the West St. Paul annex to the ice palace, and everything will soon be ready for winter sports on the ice. It is proposed to have skating contests, base ball, fancy parades, tobogganing, exhibitions of wild animals and sham Indian fights.

"Breciosa" will be given this evening at Turner hall by the German Dramatic company assisted by a chorus and Seibert's orchestra, rendering all the original music to the play. The entertainment is gotten up in commemoration of the 100th birthday of the composer Von Weber.

The annual report of the abstract clerk for the year ending ending Dec. 1, 1886, shows that the work done amounted to $16,671.55; uncollected when due $2,725.70; collected for last item $2,255.80; fees from United States court $448.20; salary from the county $7,200; deposited with county treasurer $13,560.85; net income to the county $6,614.40.

The Germania Theater company gave an entertainment last evening in Pfeiffer's hall to a large audience. Stein's orchestra furnished the music, and the play "Inspector Braetig" was given, being about half German, with the rest in Low Dutch, in which the play was originally written. At the conclusion of the play the hall was cleared and dancing was indulged in.

There was a large attendance at the musical and literary entertainment at the temperance and Bethel rooms last evening. "The Mountain Stream," and "The Maiden's Prayer" were rendered by Miss Anna C. Kay. The vocal numbers, "Last Night" and "The Tempest" were sung by Miss Nellie Mabon and Mrs. Charles. McCannon. "The Organ Builder," and "Josiah Allen's Wife at A. T. Stewart's Store," were recited by Miss M. H. Owens.

Mr. Seibert's orchestra is preparing to give a series of six concerts after the holidays. Mr. Seibert desires and expects a co-operation in a mutual cause, to build up and preserve a a taste and maintain an interest in good music in the city. Market hall gives the best facilities for a large circle of musically inclined people, and the orchestra will leave nothing undone to present the best music in the best style.

Seven attorneys met at the office of C. D. O'Brien last evening to perfect plans for the organization of a bar association. The gathering was the fourth of a series of meetings for this object. The chairman of the meeting, C. D. O'Brien, said nothing, but reports of committees as to the preliminary arrangements were heard. The next meeting will be held in the same place, December 27.

John Howard was arrested yesterday afternoon, charged with stealing carpenter's tools from M. B. Farrell. Howard was arrested about two weeks ago on the same charge, but there was no evidence on which to convict him. Yesterday it was learned that he had left the stolen tools at a carpenter shop and was to call in the afternoon for the money. When arrested he protested his innocence, but will be given a chance to explain before Judge Cory Monday morning.

An Enterprising Business Man.
Among the numerous business changes of the last year has been the retirement of E. Lytle. His successor, J. E. Ingham, has been for a long time identified with some of the leading manufacturing interests of the city. From his former business to watches and diamonds seems a long step, but after six months in the new business we are able to congratulate Mr. Ingham upon his success. He seems to have taken with him his old ideas of business, and whether he is selling a watch or making a door he wants a square thing. Mr. Ingham has many advantages not possessed by most others. He has the cash to discount his bills for new goods, which we are informed is a large saving in itself. He has a corps of helpers who have been in the same store for from four to six years, and he adds to a business already established a reputation that makes his word as good as the bond of most men. To his friends he needs no introduction, to strangers we can only say he will undoubtedly make them his friends if he has an opportunity.

Precious Jewels.
It was not the electric light that made Emil Geist's well-established jewelry store at 85 East Third street so brilliant yesterday afternoon. The radiance was caused by the new stock of real diamonds he was opening up, and in color, weight and style they were in every way desirable. He also took pride in showing a fine line of imported and American gold and silver watches, together with elegant clocks and solid silver and plated ware. Mr. Geist is a most excellent judge of watches and jewelry and his views can be depended upon, especially in regard to the value of precious gems. The settings that he has selected this season are of unusual merit and his display deserves the attention of every seeker after the unique and novel in holiday goods.

Opening the New Art Store.
The fine new art store of Messrs. Blakemore & Angell will be opened to-morrow at 25 and 27 East Seventh street. This firm has such an excellent reputation for handling fine pictures and for furnishing most suitable frames in gilt and all other styles of mouldings, that they will undoubtedly enjoy a heavy trade, especially during the holiday season. Their new store is very tastefully decorated with choice art gems, and will well repay a visit.

Permit P. F. Egan,
The popular jeweler, 115 East Third street, to show you the finest line of ornamental and useful holiday gifts you ever saw.

TRADERS ARE TICKLED.

Brilliant Prospects for Those Who Receive Christmas Presents.

With the near approach of Christmas, holiday buyers are picking up the most entrancing novelties with a rapidity that tickles the traders.

Marvelously excellent are many of the goods now offered. For instance, the toilet cases at Hippler & Collier's, corner Seventh and Sibley streets, have attracted thousands, among whom a large proportion have purchased freely and the above firm congratulate themselves upon having laid in such a large stock. Their champion toilet case and music box is still on exhibition awaiting the announcemnt of the number that draws it on Friday night next. Its magnificence attracts many visitors at their store. Messrs. Hippler & Collier show the choicest novelties in manicure cases, perfume sets, smoking sets and toilet articles of every description. Their selection of goods is unsurpassable in beauty and quality. These features, combined with reasonable prices, make their store the favorite with those who desire the most desirable goods.

Winning With the "White."
Our prosperous Northwest has always a hearty welcome and a warm appreciation for deserving business enterprises, and in recognizing the rapid and substantial growth of the White Sewing Machine company's Northwestern trade, as evidenced by the operations of its St. Paul office, the most friendly recognition can be accorded to it without the slightest compunction. The White sewing machine is winning by reason of its great merit and the careful attention given by it managers to every detail of the business. We are pleased to learn from those who have had most intimate relations with the office here, that S. N. Rowley, the active manager at St. Paul, is making a decidedly favorable impression. The extensive offices and warerooms at the corner of Wabasha and Sixth streets have been redecorated recently and again present a very attractive appearance to the numerous patrons of the company. The store presents daily that lively appearance so indicative of a large and desirable trade. A heavy receipt of these valuable machines arrived here a short time since from the manufacturers just in season for the holiday trade, and many a housewife will become the happy possessor of an easy-running "White" during these days of mirth and enjoyment.

Verplanck Bros. sell the Las Amegas brand of cigars, pronounced the finest in the market. Try them.
